

- from Amsterdam, 213; administration of the government, 214 to 307; early life of, 214; character of, 215; is promoted to be Governor, 299.
- STELLENBOSCH: first visit of Simon van der Stel to the valley of, 216; description of, 216; is named, 217; first settlement of burghers at, 217; further settlement of burghers at, 222; establishment of a board of heemraad at, 222; establishment of a school at, 223; establishment of an annual fair at, 265; establishment of a church at, 267; names of the most notable residents in 1691, 301 et seq.; particulars concerning the records of, 337 et seq.
- ST HELENA, bay of: is discovered and named by Vasco da Gama, 4.
- ST HELENA, island of: is discovered and named by Joan de Nova, 7; is made a place of refreshment for English fleets, 10; is taken from the English by a Dutch fleet sent from the Cape, 186; is retaken by the English, 186.
- ST HELENA NOVA: search for the fabulous island of, 105.
- DE ST PIERRE: book of, 399.
- SUTHERN, PIERRE ANDRE, French Admiral: is sent to protect the possessions of the Dutch East India Company against the English, 378; attacks the English fleet under Commodore Johnstone at Porto Praya and is beaten off, 378 et seq.; lands troops at Simon's Town to defend the colony, 380.
- SUGAR CANE: experiments in the cultivation of, 180.
- SWELLENDAM: particulars concerning the records of, 348 et seq.; formation of the district of, 349; description of the site of the village, 350; condition of the district towards the close of last century, 353 et seq.
- SWELLENGREBEL, HENDRIK: Governor of the Cape Colony, 366.
- TABLER BAY: is discovered by Antonio de Saldanha, 7; is subsequently called Agonda de Saldanha, 7; is made a port of call by the early fleets of the English East India Company, 10; receives its present name from Joris van Spilbergen, 16; is made a port of call for outward bound Dutch fleets, 20.
- TACHARD: book of, 324.
- TARGET SHOOTING: description of in the seventeenth century at the Cape, 266.
- TERWOLD, LEONARDUS: clergyman at the Cape, 299.
- THUNBERG: book of, 401.
- TITHES OF FARM PRODUCE: particulars concerning, 273.
- TRADING PRIVILEGES of the Company's servants, 159.
- TRANSFER DUES: particulars concerning, 236.
- TRISTAN D'ACUNHA, islands of: discovered and named, 8; inspection of and report upon, 62.
- TULBAGH: description of the Basin of, 341; establishment of a church at, 342.
- TULBAGH, RYK: sketch of the life of, 361 et seq.
- LE VAILLANT: books of, 495 and 499.
- VALENTYN: book of, 395.
- VARIATION OF THE MAGNETIC NEEDLE: 15, 263, and 334.
- VERBURG, FREDERICK: visits Saldanha Bay, 49; is sent to St Helena for a supply of provisions, 53; is appointed Secunde, 54; visits Madagascar and procures a quantity of rice, 54; visits Madagascar the second time, is shipwrecked there, and dies of fever, 61.