

Certainly this flock could give and ought to give, for the support of the Church and the maintenance of its Minister, as much every year as it has given towards the New Church in the year now past.

I am, Rev. and dear Sir,

Yours faithfully

JULIAN MORETON.

The Rev. J. PEARSON,
Secretary of the Church Society.

THE COLLEGE,

March 27th, 1856.

MY DEAR SIR,

* * * * *

I have much pleasure in referring to the willingness with which many of our Church Members in Petty Harbour came forward with their payments, without being called upon specially for their subscriptions. The same might be said of some in Torbay. I hope to be able to make a larger collection for the present, than for last year, as I am conscious there are several in all three settlements who gave nothing.

I am, my dear Sir,

Your obedient Servant.

W. G. CROUCH.

To the Secretary of the Church Society.

For some time past it has been felt to be a great want in the Church of this Diocese that there was no fund for the relief of the widows and orphans of deceased Clergymen. Such provision has already been made in several of the adjoining Dioceses, and the matter placed upon such a firm footing as to relieve considerably the minds of the Clergy whose families may expect to be participators in such a scheme. Those who fully understand the straitened means of the Clergy of this Colony, and the present increased expense of living, must be well aware how very inadequate the small income of a clergyman must be to make provision for his family in the event of his death or disability; while the necessity of such pro-
