

- St. Lawrence, a British ship of 90 guns, on lake Ontario, 266.
- St. Ingoes, landing of the enemy at, 238.
- St. Michael's (Chesapeake Bay) attack on, 182.
- St. Mary's, capitulation of, 294.
- St. Mary's river, transactions on, 297.
- Stonington, the enemy's dash at, 244.
- Suspension of hostilities, 41.
- Syren, U. S. brig, capture of, by the enemy, 299.
- Tecumseh, death of, 128.
- Tennessee legislature, resolution of, 197.
- Treat, captain, dismissal from the army, 251 ; trial and acquittal of, 252.
- Treaty of peace ratified, 302.
- United States and Macedonian, frigates, and Hornet, sail from New-York, 186 ; chased into New-London, ib.
- Van Rensselaer enters Canada, 46 ; takes a redoubt on the heights of Queenston, 48 ; defeat and surrender of the American army, 50 ; treatment of prisoners, 51 ; resignation of the general, ib. ; report of colonel Mullany, note, 49.
- Vermont, governor of, calls home the militia from the service of the United States, 192.
- Viper, United States' brig, taken by the enemy, 75.
- Vixen, U. S. brig, taken by the enemy, 65.
- War declared by proclamation, 19.
- Warren, admiral arrival of, at Halifax, 167 ; off N. York, ib. blockades the Chesapeake bay, and Delaware, 168 ; blockades Long-Island sound, 192.
- Washington-city, approach to, and capture of, by the enemy, 227, to 231.
- Wetherford, speech of, 311.
- Wilkinson general, proceeds toward Montreal, 135 ; abandons the design, and goes into winter quarters, 144.
- Williamsburgh, battle of 141, 145.
- Williams, Mrs. bravery of, 135.
- Winchester, general, defeat of, at Frenchtown, 68 ; massacre of his men, 69.