

- the ordinance of 1787, 184; on the conduct of the free States on slavery, 187; in reply to Hayne, 188; debate with Hayne, 188, 140; opposes Van Buren as Minister to England, 215; on the recharter of the bank, 243, 244; on the prospect of public distress, 254; on the force bill, 332; on nullification, 388; on the French spoliation bill, 438, 505; on the Expunging resolution 550; on the bill to suppress incendiary publications, 586; on French affairs, 594, 596; on abolition petitions, 619; on the specie circular, 699.
- WHITE, HUGH L., on the entrance of the bank directors into the political field, 254.
- WICKLIFFE, CHARLES H., on the Committee of Inquiry, 287.
- WILKINS, WILLIAM, on the force bill, 330.
- WILLIAMS, JOHN, Senator from Tennessee, 7.
- WILLIAMS, LEWIS, Representative from North Carolina, 7; Father of the House, 7.
- WILLIAMS, T. H., votes for the Missouri Compromise, 8.
- WIET, WILLIAM, Attorney General, 7, 55; counsel for the Cherokee Indians, 165; candidate for the Presidency, 282; decease of, 475; rank as a lawyer, 475; lessons of his life, 475; early condition, 475; authorship, 476; time of his death, 476; remarks of Mr. Webster at bar meeting, 476.
- WOODBURY, LEVI, Secretary of the Navy, 181.
- WRIGHT, SILAS, on the French Spoliation bill, 489.

Y

YELL, ARCHIBALD, on the cession of the public lands, 711.