

y, as has from the h a per-the new ral other which I book use-

R. N.

INDEX.

- Adipose tissue diminished, 208; Omentum, 200.
Aeration of blood arrested, 118.
Animals attacked—A horse, 176; Poultry, Fishes, 177.
Ascites, hydrothorax, etc., drained away, 204.
Atmosphere—Choleraic, 41; Cholera carried by, 45; Change of, no protection, 88; While in infected, less risk, removal to a healthy one injurious, 155.
Attacks—Sudden, 57; At Suedie, 58; While riding, 106; At breakfast, 57; None other than the exposed, 208.
Attack, a second one, 172.
Bile—Secretion of, arrested, 180.
Blood, 185; Quality of, 194; Salts in, 196; Globules, proportion of, explained, 194; In the cyanosed state, 186;
Difference between healthy and choleraic, 194.
Cæsarean operations, 126.
Calorification arrested, 121; Temperature reduced to 70°, 122; Cold breath, 124; Interior of body cold, 126;
Stools cold, 123; A warm enema returned cold, 125;
Saline injections cooled in passing through the body,
129; Temperature measured by thermometer, 128.
Catalysis, 138.