ANDY KYLE SLATED TO SLIDE DOWN

-May Be Sold to Canadian League Club-Notes.

Andy Kyle, the local boy, who made his pro debut in the Canadian League, then advanced to Columbus in the American Association and once more stepped up, landing with the Cincinnati Reds, is due to slide back. Andy was turned over to the New Orleans Southern League club by the Reds, and his work in the southern city has not been satisfactory this season. Andy reported late, after a strenuous nockey season in the Maritime Pro. Hockey League, and has falled to find his batting eye, besides slowing up considerably when after a fly ball. According to despatches from New Orleans Andy will likely find himself back in the Canadian League. He would come in handy for Percy Kirwin's club.

Frank Gurney, the former firstbaseman of the St. Thomas club, is looking for took in the Canadian League. Frank as written nearly every manager on the ircuit, hinting that he is a free agent not that he would like to take care of its initial sack for them this season. So r, however, he has not caught on with y of the clubs. Gurney is a fine fielder, but a little ak with the stick for a first base indian.

Dr. Robert Yates, manager of the Hamilton Canadian League Basebali Club, arrived in the Ambitious City and proceeded to get a line on his material, which he will have to use this season.

Gil Forgue of the Saints is rapidly re-covering from the operation he under-went the fore part of this week.

Griffith plans this season to use Walter Johnson as a pinch hitter and is having the pitcher take strenuous batting practice daily. The Kansan has always been a good batsman, but never trained particularly to develop this angle of the game.

Armando Marsans, the Cuban out-fielder with the Cincinnati Reds, has gotten over his peevishness, and reports from Ohio have it that he will neither return to Havana nor jump to the Feds, but will do garden duty in Redland.

Claude Hendrix, erstwhile Pittsburg
Pirate, but now a member of the Chicago Federals, undoubterly will be sent demand to be shown something in the size for their claim.

Hendrix is willing to join Brooklyn to help out this season, according to Fresident Weeghman; but he will rejoin the Chicago Club after the 1914 season. Weeghman is eager to settle the matter satisfactorily, but the Ward brothers seem to think the league leader should force Seaton to play with their aggregation.

Hughey Jennings has some tall and skinny pitchers on his team this season. Three of them are said to total nineteen feet one inch in height, one of them being almost seven feet tall. Now if he could only pitch two of them at once his team would be sure of a championship.

Harry Utrecht, the Cincinnati youth, who was recently taken on by the Cubs, is said to be due for the chute. Good batter, fine allround player, and promising pitcher, but needing, so O'Day thinks, another season in the brushwood.

Jimmy Gilhooley, a Hamilton holdout, has apparently seen the folly of his ways. He returned his contract signed yesterday.
