

THE SENATE OF CANADA

BILL Q<sup>s</sup>.

An Act for the relief of Lucy Jane Cole Judd.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Lucy Jane Cole Judd, residing at the city of Ottawa, in the province of Ontario, hairdresser, wife of Charles Wilfrid Judd, who is domiciled in Canada and residing at the village of Deschenes, in the province of Quebec, has by her petition alleged that they were married on the fifth day of October, A.D. 1921, at the said city, she then being Lucy Jane Cole, a spinster; and whereas by her petition she has prayed that, because of his adultery since then, their marriage be dissolved; and whereas the said marriage and adultery have been proved by evidence adduced and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Lucy Jane Cole and Charles Wilfrid Judd, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Lucy Jane Cole may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Charles Wilfrid Judd had not been solemnized.
