

OTHER WORKS ON ECONOMICS

Economic Essays

By CHARLES FRANKLIN DUNBAR, late Professor of Political Economy in Harvard University. Edited by O. M. W. Sprague, Assistant Professor of Economics, Harvard University, with an Introduction by F. W. Taussig, Professor of Economics in Harvard University.

Cloth, 372 pages, 8vo, $2.50 net

The Economic Interpretation of History

By EDWIN R. A. SELIGMAN, McVickar Professor of Political Economy, Columbia University. [Published by the Columbia Univ. Press.]

Second Edition revised, cloth, 12mo, $1.50 net

This suggestive little work is substantially the same as the articles which, in the Political Science Quarterly, attracted widespread attention. Since the first issue of this book it has been translated into Japanese, Russian, and Spanish.

Outlines of Economic Theory

By HERBERT JOSEPH DAVENPORT. With a series of suggestive questions introducing each new topic, and a wide range of questions following each discussion, reviewing its chief points in relation to subjects of current and practical interest.

Second edition, cloth, 3rd pp., 8vo, $2.00 net

ECONOMICS FOR HIGH SCHOOLS

Economics

By FRANCIS W. BLACKMAR, Ph.D., Professor of Sociology and Economics, University of Kansas.

Cloth, 539 pages, $1.40 net

Elementary Principles of Economics

By RICHARD T. ELY, University of Wisconsin, and GEORGE RAY WICKER, Dartmouth College.

Cloth, leather back, vii+388 pages, 12mo, $1.00 net

The Principles of Wealth and Welfare

By CHARLES LEE RAPER, Ph.D., University of North Carolina.

Cloth, 336 pages, 12mo, $1.10 net

THE MACMILLAN COMPANY
PUBLISHERS, 64-66 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK