Galt Landmark Disappears, GALT, Jan. 3.—(Special.)—An historic landmark of Galt disappears in the demolition of the Hotel Grand, originally the Queen's, on the west side of Main-street bridge, which began to-day, the building being removed to make a site for the new Y. M. C. A. structure, for which $30,000 has been raised. It was built sixty years ago and known widely as the most pretentious as well as homeliest hotel in Western Ontario.

Where is Thomas Stribbell? The Hamilton authorities have wired the Toronto police, asking them to locate a Thomas Stribbell, supposed to live in Toronto, to tell him that his father died at 116 Robert-street, yesterday. Stribbell has been away from home for some years, and his exact address is not known. The police could find only one man of that name in the directory, William Stribbell, 129 Bartlett-avenue. He says that his father did live in Hamilton at one time, but that he does not know where he is now, alive or dead.

CONTRIBUTION EXPLAINED. Editor World: I am directed by the board of the Toronto Industrial Refuge and Aged Men's and Women's Homes to request you to kindly publish this letter of explanation, in order to correct the unfortunate, erroneous impression which appears to have gone abroad since publication in the press of my letter to the secretary of the fire department, covering our subscription to the Freeman's Fund.

ADDRESS ON TUBERCULOSIS. The above was the subject of an illustrated lecture given in St. James' School-house last evening to a rather small audience, by Mr. J. B. Watson, the field secretary of the National S. N. Tuberculosis Association. The Rev. Canon Plumtre filled the chair, and Mr. Kirkpatrick very dexterously handled the lantern and slides.

GRIST FOR CIVIC MILL. Numerous notices of motion will be made at the inaugural meeting of the city council on Monday. For example, Controller Foster will move that a fruit market be established. Ald. Hyton wants an athletic field on the lot between Victoria and Teraulay-street, continued thru to Bloor-street. Ald. Wanless would like to see the boulevard on Spadina-street from Beldwin to Queen-street removed and a roadway substituted. Many other motions will be made on Monday.

TRADE WITH WEST INDIES CONSIDERED AT OTTAWA Parliament Will Have Big Program to Attack on Wednesday—Three New Bills Ready for Opening.

OTTAWA, Jan. 3.—When parliament reassembles on Wednesday next it will be seen that the government is prepared to provide it with work. The period before Christmas served the purposes of settling rid of the legislative postponement upon the election, and of settling the estimates for the current year finally voted.

The government has already taken steps to implement the promises contained in the speech from the throne for closer trade relations between Canada and the British West Indies. Negotiations have been opened thru the imperial authorities with the West Indies, and the expectation is that the progress now being made will clear the way for a more extended and detailed conference between representatives of the West Indies and the Government of Canada.

The Canadian end of the negotiations now in progress is in charge of the minister of trade and commerce, Hon. George F. Foster. The object toward which the negotiations are now working is the establishment of a mutual trade preference. As long ago as 1895 Canada gave the West Indies a preference of 25 per cent and got nothing in return.

The royal commission, headed by Lord Balfour of Burleigh, which was appointed by the British Government to investigate the Indian trade conditions, reported in 1910 that the islands might be willing to extend a 20 per cent and accept a lower Canadian preference in return, provided the present Canadian system of letting in each year a little foreign sugar at lower rates were discontinued.

SAID PASHA'S NEW CABINET Opposition Disatisfied With Modification of Turkish Constitution.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 3.—Altho likely to be further remodeled, the new cabinet named by Said Pasha appeared in the chamber of deputies this afternoon.

When the grand vizier announced that it was the intention of the ministry to proceed with the policy of a modified constitution, he was violently attacked by the opposition. Stormy scenes ensued, but finally the opposition members withdrew.

A motion was carried fixing to-morrow as the date for the beginning of the debate on the constitutional bill.

WERE D.R.O.'S TOO LAX? RUMORS ARE ACTIVE Much Dissatis' action Prevails Over Handling of Returns—No Recount, Says Spence.

There are rumors around the city, especially in Ward Six, that the municipal election on Monday should have been conducted more carefully; that there should have been more of a check on the returning officers and, in general, that more overseeing should have been done.

The result may be, it is thought in some quarters, that not only a recount, but a new election will take place. This is hardly likely, yet the errors which have been made in compiling the returns, together with the suspicions of some people in Ward Six, may give rise to an investigation in reference to the voting in that section of the city.

More Rumors. The candidate went on to say that he would gladly assist in doing anything toward putting matters on a basis where mistakes would be impossible, and added that he was sure that all municipal elections during the past few years have been run in a rather loose manner.

It is said that a candidate went to the secretary of an association and promised to "look after him" if he would allow the membership books to be kept over.

There was a marked looseness in the returns for the board of control furnished to the press by the D.R.O. in a polling booth at St. George's school as compared with the figures received at the city hall.

THUGS IN VANCOUVER After Tenderfoot Englishmen's Cash and Clothes. VANCOUVER, B.C., Jan. 3.—Four men working together holding up innocent citizens is the latest in Vancouver thugdom.

One, pointing a gun, said: "Give us your valuables quick." Just at that moment the young man noticed two other men on the opposite side of the street walking. Ducking away from a possible shot from the hold-up men, Malcolm ran across the street, shouting for aid from the new arrivals and they received him with open arms with another revolver. They pressed the gun in his ribs and held him so he could not get away.

HULL'S PANDEMONIUM IN MAYORALTY FIGHT Police Ineffective, and Priest Had to Be Called to Suppress Mob and Restore Order.

OTTAWA, Jan. 3.—Some of the most riotous scenes that have ever been witnessed during a Hull municipal campaign occurred to-night at the meeting held by Mayor Archambault.

There were over 300 persons present, partisans of Mayor Archambault and Ald. Dupuis, the two municipal candidates, and the utmost confusion reigned during the early part of the evening.

Free fighting was going on all over the hall, and yelling, catcalls and obscene language blocked any attempt on the part of the mayor to address the meeting, the services of the police having to be called in to quell the riot which was in progress, several arrests resulting.

Even at this the mob refused to keep quiet and the Rev. Father Carriere, parish priest of St. Redempteur, who heard the disturbance from the presbytery, several blocks away, had to be called in to restore order.

WHO IS POLLY PRIM? TOXICATED MEN DIED FROM NATURAL CAUSES

No Suspicious Circumstances in Deaths of Lawrence Vale and Charles Saunders.

"That Lawrence Vale, 65 years of age, came to his death at St. Michael's Hospital, Dec. 28, from a hemorrhage of the brain, due to natural causes," was the verdict of the coroner's jury, conducted by Coroner M. D. McKelhan at the city morgue last night.

Vale was a shoemaker of Weston, weighing over 300 pounds, and was arrested at noon of the day he died for drinking. He was released from No. 1 station at 10.30 at night, and at 11 o'clock of the same night was re-arrested, the charge being drunkenness, altho it is possible the man's physical condition may have led the policeman into believing he was intoxicated. He was taken back to Station No. 1 where his pitiable condition being apparent, and was conveyed in the police ambulance to St. Michael's Hospital, where he died soon after.

"Charles L. Saunders came to his death from natural causes," was the verdict of the coroner's jury at the inquest into his death, at the city morgue last night.

Saunders was a porter at Knapp's restaurant, 143 Front-street, and was found dead in the cellar, after he had been drinking, as the evidence established. He died December 21 at eight o'clock.

George Parker, the third man, who was picked up unconscious at the old morgue on the same night as the other two, is still unconscious at St. Michael's Hospital, where his condition is regarded as very grave.

COTTON STRIKE SPREADING MANCHESTER, Eng. Jan. 3.—The lockout of the weavers and spinners in Lancashire, which began Dec. 30, has extended to several mills at Bolton and elsewhere.

The conference, which took place here to-day between the Rev. R. A. Aspley, noted strike arbitrator, the employers and employes, lasted for six hours.

No settlement was reached and the conference adjourned until to-morrow morning.
