A little more activity, with a somewhat firmer tone, were the only features of local stocks to-day. Such small railies have no bearing on the immediate future of the market, and lapses from the present level of small dimensions are about as likely as further railies. Traders seem to be imbused with the feeling that any permanent recovery is some distance off, and chances of even small profits will, as a consequence, be taken advantage of. The steel and coal slocks showed more strength, and Dominion Steel advanced nearly 2 points, to 56%. Heavier dealing in Dominion Coal brought the price of this stock up to 129. N. S. Steel was not dealt in, but was held higher at 105. Northern Navigation made another point to-day, reaching 143, and closed at 105. C. P.
