TWENTY-FIFTH YEAR

DECISIVE NAVAL BATTLE WAGING WHILE KUROKI'S TROOPS ARE NOW WITHIN 20 MILES OF HANGANG

Armies Are Moving Cautiously and Positions May Completely Change.

RUSSIAN CENTRE GOING NORTH

Liaoyang, July 1.—Gen. Kuropatkin and Gen. Kuroki are moving their troops like men on a chessboard. The Japanese are now twenty miles from Liaoyang. The rains are impeding their movements.

Detachments of about 1500 men have been detailed from Gen. Rennenkampf's Cossacks to scout in the defiles and hills, harassing the Japanese and not allowing any rest day or night.

Kuroki's army is extremely active east of the Russian position and the Russians are correspondingly active. The Russian centre is being rapidly pushed northwards to a point where Kuropatkin established his base after the battle at Vafangou. So far as the Russians know, Kuroki is steadily pushing onwards thru all the mountain passes, even towards Mukden.

Preparations at all points are now practically complete. The demonstrations made during the last few days against the Russian left flank threaten to completely change the position of the two armies.

Notwithstanding four days' rain the troops are still being moved.

DENIES RUSSIAN LOSS.

St. Petersburg, July 1.—Major-Gen. Plung telegraphed from Mukden, under date of July 1, says:

"The reports from foreign sources that the Japanese fleet has captured our squadron on June 23 and that our loss included Rear-Admiral Prince Otkoumsky and 700 sailors are absolutely untrue."

WILL RETREAT.

Newchwang, July 1.—A telegram from German sources at Mukden received here yesterday evening says Gen. Kuropatkin has decided not to fight at Tachekiao or Hailcheng, but to retreat. The Japanese have advanced movement was started June 28 and it went under way. Small detachments of troops will, however, be sent to stem the Japanese until the Russian retreat is in full swing. It is not believed here that the Japanese intend to reach Liaoyang, as the Japanese control the passes, which would indicate that the Russian line of communication may be cut.

KUROPATKIN REPORTS.

St. Petersburg, July 1.—The emperor has received a report from a Russian agent from Gen. Kuropatkin, dated June 30:

"Torrential rains fell in the Tachekiao district on the 28th and 29th, inundating our bivouac. The Japanese are advancing slowly in different directions towards our east and south fronts.

"On the south the Japanese are advancing eastward, with the object of effecting a junction with Kuroki's army.

"It has been ascertained by a reconnaissance in the direction of Dalin-fang that the Japanese have retired some distance from the positions recently occupied by them. Their covering forces, consisting of several companies, retired after a short fight. The report from the direction of Fengwangcheng, June 29, announced that an energetic advance of the Japanese forces had been discovered near Wafanwan and the Linhoish Pass.

"The rains continue."

JAPS EVACUATED DALIN.

Liaoyang, July 30 (delayed in transmission).—Gen. Kuropatkin, with reinforcements, personally moved towards Dalin Pass, whereupon the past was evacuated by the Japanese and re-occupied by the Russians.

SOME ROADS IMPASSABLE.

Liaoyang, July 1.—The Chinese say the real rainy weather season has begun. The roads in some places are absolutely impassable.

The Japanese have retired from Dalin Pass and are moving in a northerly direction on the Liaoyang road. They have appeared in great force at Fenshi and Motien Pass, outflanking the Russian positions.

The Russian eastern divisions continue to retire before superior numbers, but are keeping in close touch with the enemy.

THE RUSS IS GONE.

St. Petersburg, July 1.—The opinion is unanimous that there is absolutely nothing in the present situation, so far as Russia is concerned, on which to base an early termination of the war, and that the question of peace will be considered only when direct proposals have been made by Japan.

180,000 NOW IN FIELD.

Chefoo, July 1.—On June 24, it is stated, the Japanese landed an independent division of ten thousand men at their naval base on the Elliott Islands. This division is to be used, it is said, to either attack Gen. Nogi at Port Arthur or Gen. Oku in clearing the railway.

An authoritative source it is learned that the Japanese now have 180,000 men in the field, including Gen. Kuroki's army on the road to Liaoyang, the independent division of twenty thousand landed at the Elliott Islands, and the division of ten thousand along the railway. Gen. Nogi's army at Port Arthur and the ten thousand landed at the Elliott Islands.

None of the fourth army has yet been landed.

LOST 300,000 LBS. FLOUR.

Liaoyang, June 28.—During a recent typhoon in the Sea of Japan, 27 barges belonging to the Nippon Yusen Kaisha of Tokio, lost 300,000 pounds of flour intended for the Japanese armies.

Great Naval Battle Is On

CHEFOO, July 1, 8.30 p.m.—(Bulletin)—What should prove to be a decisive naval engagement was in progress at one o'clock p.m. midway between Chefoo and Port Arthur.

The steamer Chefoo, which has arrived here, passed within fifteen miles of the Japanese fleet, consisting of two battleships and five cruisers, all actively engaged.

The Russian fleet was not seen, but the distance of the Japanese fleet from land precludes the possibility of any attack on the land batteries.

The captain of the Chefoo says he heard a terrific explosion, but was unable to discern whether a Japanese or a Russian ship was affected.

Vladivostok Squadron Trapped.

TOKIO, July 2.—(Bulletin)—Vice-Admiral Kamimura evidently trapped and attacked the Russian Vladivostok squadron off the Islands of Tsu, in the southern entrance to the Sea of Japan last night.

The result of the encounter is unknown.

FIGHTING ROUND PT. ARTHUR

Japanese Attack at Siapingtao Successful, But 1000 Men Die—Shelling Doing Little Damage.

Mukden, Thursday, June 30.—(Delayed in transmission)—Heavy fighting in the Siapingtao region has occurred near Port Arthur June 28, resulting in the Russian withdrawal from Guinsanhan after severe losses on both sides.

The Japanese fleet approached Siapingtao, midway between Port Arthur and Port Arthur, on the morning of June 28 and bombarded the coast north of the bay so far as Utselooshan. Strong Japanese forces which had landed then attacked the neighboring heights, which were occupied by Russian riflemen.

Three times the Japanese were driven back with heavy losses, but the Russians were forced to retire from their main position near Guinsanhan. The Japanese reinforced their advance guard and pressed the attack. After several fruitless assaults on Guinsanhan, the Japanese commander sent a strong column along the central road from Dalny to Port Arthur with the object of turning the Russian left, forcing the Russians to retire.

The Russians lost seven officers and 2000 men in the attack. The Japanese losses are believed to have been at least 1000, as a large number of their passed over the mine which the Russians successfully exploded.

DID FIVE GET AWAY?

Chefoo, July 1, 7.30 p.m.—A party of Russian and Chinese arrived here by train today direct from Port Arthur, having left there yesterday. They report that for several days shells from both land and sea have been falling in the town, but doing little damage.

The Russians who resisted the advance of the Japanese suffered severely. Many dead and wounded men have been brought to Chefoo. The hospital there is overcrowded.

The Russians maintain that the fleet is intact with the exception of the battleship Sevastopol, which is being repaired.

A Chinaman who left Port Arthur last night says there are only four Russian warships, cruisers and battleships, in the harbor and none outside. The opinion prevails that the faster ships eluded the five Japanese warships maintaining the blockade.

CLAIM FOUR SUNK.

Liaoyang, Thursday, June 30.—(Delayed in transmission)—Russian advice from Port Arthur says that the Russian Port Arthur squadron consisting of eleven ships attacked the Japanese squadron of eighteen ships June 23, sinking four of the Japanese torpedo boats and inflicting damage on the other vessels. The Russian ships returned to Port Arthur. Not a single large vessel, it is added, was damaged.

NORTHWEST'S WHEAT AREA.

Regina, N.W.T., July 1.—The department of agriculture has just issued an estimate of the area of the Northwest Territories under crop this season, 1904. From the figures given it appears that there are 1,054,211 acres under wheat, 654,649 acres under oats, 111,879 acres under barley and 20,938 acres under flax.

A comparative table is also appended, showing the acreage under these crops for each year since 1888. Wheat, oats and barley all show large increases in area over 1903, but flax from 20,481 acres in that year has fallen to 20,938 acres for 1904.

FEMALE BICYCLE THIEF.

There have been many number of bicycle thieves, but heretofore they have all been men. Last night the police ran up against a woman of this class. Her name is Marie Hebben and her address is given as 62 Orange-avenue, She is 19 years of age. She will appear before the magistrate charged with having stolen a bicycle yesterday, and there will probably be other charges of a similar nature.

A resident of Durham told The World that there was more behind the resignation of D. Park Simpson, K.C., of Bowmanville than meets the eye.

He would not be surprised to see Mr. Simpson taking no part in the campaign to elect Robert Beith, M.P., who was given the nomination Wednesday at Newcastle.

MOULTON GIRLS' PLUCKY ACTION SWAM TO SAVE DROWNING BOY

Two Young Ladies Plunged In Humber River and Rescued Son of Wm. Elder.

Elder's Mills, July 1.—Two young ladies, companions at Moulton College, Toronto, who are visiting Mr. Elder, made a plucky rescue of a boy from drowning yesterday and are deserving of recommendation to the Humane Society for the medal given in recognition of bravery.

A son of Mr. Elder was crossing the apron of the dam on the Humber when he accidentally slipped and fell into about 15 feet of water. The current was in close order, about a mile and a half, and he was observed by the young ladies, who were digging for worms on the river bank. Two of the girls were expert swimmers, and, talking in the situation, rushed down to the dam, while the third one stood on the river bank and screamed.

The young ladies were Miss Grace Ayer of Montreal and Miss Annie McLean, daughter of Dr. P. D. McLean, Woodbridge, and winner of the Ryrie life medal for music. The two girls both plunged into the water without clothing in a way and swam out to the lad, who was sinking, for the third time, when Miss McLean caught him by the hair of his head and the other two girls who succeeded in swimming with him to shore and resuscitating him.

Remarkable Pluck and Skill.

In addition to showing remarkable pluck, the girls proved their skill in swimming with all their wearing apparel on and making a successful rescue, which had a longer would have terminated in another drowning fatality in the Humber. The girls are receiving congratulations from everybody.

FINE DISPLAY OF HORSE FLESH THOUSANDS SAW OPEN AIR SHOW BEST EVER SEEN IN AMERICA

Parade of Drivers, Saddle and Work Horses Was Induced a Credit to Toronto.

Just escaping the heavy shower at 11.30 a.m., the open air horse parade was concluded in time yesterday to be accounted one of the most successful spectacles of the year. The people turned out in thousands and the streets were lined all along the route by those interested. In the park itself the crowd was estimated at from 6000 to 8000. The procession extended, when drawn up in close order, about a mile and a half, and no accident of any kind occurred.

The feature of the parade was the magnificent display of tradesman's and other utility vehicles, every description of conveyance except the heavy motor car. The tradesman's vehicles were of the most varied and interesting, and the parade was a credit to the city.

As a Chinaman who left Port Arthur last night says there are only four Russian warships, cruisers and battleships, in the harbor and none outside. The opinion prevails that the faster ships eluded the five Japanese warships maintaining the blockade.

DUNDONALD DEPLORES AN "IGNOBLE BREED OF MEN"

Thankful for Kindly Scotch Sentiment Which Sordid Minds Know Not of.

Retnew, July 1.—(Special)—Lord Dundonald, as tendered a hearty welcome to the guests of Greenlaw Camp, No. 48, Sons of Scotland. This Scottish town was gaily decorated. He arrived from Ottawa at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and was met at the station by the pipe band of the 8th Highlanders and scores of enthusiastic "brothers." In spite of the rain which fell heavily at intervals, several hundred people assembled at the agricultural grounds.

Lord Dundonald, on his entrance was greeted with lusty cheers. The Highlanders' band provided music. There were many Scotchmen present from Pembroke, Arnprior, Burnstown, Almonte and other places. Prominent among those who took part in the demonstration were: Wm. Barclay Craig, district deputy; Dr. James Mann, Chief of Greenlaw Camp; J. W. Fraser, secretary; Mr. Rev. John McLeod, pastor of the Scotch Presbyterian Church.

Lord Dundonald took great interest in the games and at night attended a series of lectures on the history of his entry he was accorded a hearty reception, the audience rising to its feet in its excess of enthusiasm. An address of welcome was presented, saying: "Your lordship may rest assured that in whatever part of the empire you go you will be met with the same kindness and favor which you have shown to us in visiting us this day."

Lord Dundonald in replying said in part: "The kind welcome which you have given me here today, I have experienced from Scotchmen in many other parts of the globe and in many quarters of the globe.

"It is something indeed to be thanked for in these days, which is a sentiment as this can live—these modern days which produce so largely that iscent homes, which in its entirety should be the heritage of your children and your children's children for generations to come."

Continuing he said: "In strengthening the links which bind our great empire together, you are in reality also permanently consolidating this magnificent home, which in its entirety should be the heritage of your children and your children's children for generations to come."

WHITBY FIFTY YEARS AGO.

Boers claim secret army ready to take the field. 4000 men, well equipped, in mountains on border of German Southwest Africa.

York, Pa., July 1.—(Special)—A Boer uprising in South Africa is predicted in a letter written by a Boer in German Southwest Africa, to Girardus H. Van Deventer, who was a lieutenant in the Boer army and who is now earning a livelihood by teaching languages in this city.

Van Deventer was in receipt of the letter yesterday, and he was surprised to learn that a Boer army of 4000 men well armed, fully provisioned and with good horses, are in the field on the borders of German Southwest Africa. These troops are in command of Generals Van Zyl, Van Brummelen and Moritz, who have never surrendered their arms to the British.

After the close of the war these went into the mountains on the borders of German Southwest Africa, where they remained with a few followers. During the past year their handful of men has grown, it is claimed, to an army of 4000 and is still increasing. It is expected that there will be 10,000 men in the field before next January, as Boers who are dissatisfied with the situation in the Boer republics are coming into the border camp daily.

German's giving aid.

The writer of the letter says in part: "We are well fortified in the mountains and have enough provisions to last us a year, also the abundant supply of ammunition and arms. These stores will have been accumulating gradually. We are now in a position to capture the camp to equip 8,000 men and we expect to be supplied with more. The Germans are very friendly to us. Our rendezvous is an ideal spot both for living and in point of the protection it affords us. The time is not far distant when the spark of rebellion will be fanned into a great flame which will sweep South Africa. Rest assured, the Boers will never rest until the British are driven out and our country reclaimed."

Fear Publicity.

The letter states further that the existence of the Boer army has not been given publicity and that the leaders and the men have been very careful to keep their movements secret. The Boers are sufficiently large to inspire Boers all over the world, so letters are being sent out to all the Boer republics and through the United States urging them to be in readiness to respond when a call for recruits is issued.

OLD WHITBY ENTERTAINED AT LEAST 4000 VISITORS AND ALL HAD GOOD TIME

One Thousand Went Down From Toronto and First Day of Celebration Was Big Success.

Whitby, July 1.—(Staff Special)—The four days' celebration of the jubilee year of Ontario county and Whitby, its county town, has begun and the town has been the scene of the most enthusiastic celebration since the war. The heavy home-coming sentiment was everywhere evident. The decorations of the residences and principal streets spoke "welcome" in large letters. To the home-coming it was getting back to early days after an absence of a decade. In marking the changes time has made, the faces gone forever, the strange faces come on the scene, the heart of the old boy took many a catch in his throat. Joy came at unexpected meetings of old time friends. Silence settled on one as the first intimation of the passing of a close friend was given. Meditation marked the demeanor of the home-coming. The past present and the future were aligned for each today. The final analysis of life was made and house-wives and friends acclaimed in the minds of all the greatest good in the world.

The morning was spent in a formal reception in the town hall, and in intimate converse. In the afternoon thousands of people went to the exhibition grounds and spent three hours watching the old King's motorway. Two thousand and others visited the homes of friends. In the evening a reception by the ladies of the town was held in the town hall, followed by a concert. Rest followed an exciting day for host and hostess and most of the Toronto contingent left at 11 p.m. for home. Many will remain till Monday night and more are expected here to-morrow.

Arrival of Home-Comers.

The Ontario Old Boys' Association of Toronto, comprising Whitby, Brockton, Oshawa, Port Perry, Uxbridge and other old boys, arrived about 11 a.m. by special train. They were met by Mayor Blow and a reception committee and marshalled by Major Henderson and Capt. King, preceded by two bands, one from the town and the other from Whitby, paraded to the town hall, where the formal freedom of the county was conferred upon the visitors. Mayor Blow had on the platform with him representative old boys from both near and far. There were, among others: Mr. McCullough, William Dixon, Major Henderson, Andrew Jeffrey, J. S. Robertson, G. H. Robinson, M.A., W. H. Higgins, J. J. D. Brown, J. J. D. Brown, M.L.A., Cannington; William Ross, M.P., Port Perry; Rev. R. M. Thornton, Whitby; Rev. Wm. Norman McCullough, Cornwall; Dr. Donald McCullough, Whitby.

ST. PETERSBURG REJOICES AT NEWS FROM THE FRONT

St. Petersburg, July 1.—There was considerable rejoicing in the Russian capital at this morning's reports from the theatre of war. From the headquarters at Mukden came the positive statement, made apparently on direct news from Port Arthur and probably through the press, that the Russian fleet had captured the Japanese battleship Kailash, which had been damaged during the Japanese torpedo boat attacks on June 23 and 24.

Japs Lost a Thousand.

Also came the report that the Japanese have lost a thousand men in a night fight near Port Arthur. From Liaoyang came two separate reports that Major-General Mischenko had died of wounds received in the capture of the severe blow by recapturing Dailen Pass, which was lost June 27. One of the reports, dated yesterday, says Gen. Mischenko has been suffering from the Japanese for several days, capturing three guns and an ammunition train. None of these reports are official.

Big Battle Delayed.

The military critic of the Russ, who usually is well informed, strongly opposes the idea of a big battle before the end of the rainy season. He expresses the opinion that the Japanese only wish now to assure possession of the Liaoyang Peninsula, and that their present objective is to capture Kailash, which would compel the evacuation of Newchwang and permit landing on the west coast. The critic considers the movements of the Japanese north, across the Fenshui range, as being simply a diversion to facilitate the taking of Kailash, and he declares that Kailash will be captured without a fight. But he surrendered without a fight. But he surrendered without a fight. But he surrendered without a fight.

The critic further predicts that Gen. Kuropatkin will adhere to his plan to capture the Liaoyang Peninsula, and that he will wait until the rainy season is over, and then strike. He seems to assume a combination of the first and third Japanese armies and the isolation of the peninsula.
