AILSA CRAIG STARS BEAT LUCAN NINE

AILSA CRAIG, June 21.—The second game between the Irish nine of Lucan and the Ailsa Craig stars, under the auspices of the Young Girls' Club, which is using the games to add to its patriotic collections, was held here this afternoon. It was a good attendance at the game because of the half-holiday, and the spectators saw a ten-minute game, with Ailsa Craig the victors by a 4-3 score. The game was a fast one throughout, as follows:

WILD BILL'S NINE BEAT OUT BOSTON

Bagby Outpitches Cicotte, and Cleveland Beats Sox.

NEW YORK, June 21.—New York won a nip-and-tuck game from Boston here today by a score of 5 to 4. The Yankees scored their winning run in the eighth inning on Pipp's single, Miller's infield out, and Peckinpaugh's double. Boston filled the bases with one out in the ninth inning, but Gardner, who had made three hits, ended the game by hitting into a double play.

BAGBY TWIRLS FINE GAME FOR CLEVELAND

CHICAGO, June 21.—Bagby outpitched Cicotte in a pitching duel today, and Cleveland shut out the White Sox, 1 to 0. The visitors won the game in the first inning. Bagby allowed only three hits, and not a Chicagoan reached second base after the first inning. The support behind the Cleveland pitcher was faultless.

BROWNS GO UNDER ON NAVIN FIELD

DETROIT, June 21.—Austin's wild throw on a bunt by Veach permitted Cobb, who had obtained a scratch single, to score from first in the ninth inning today, with the run that enabled Detroit to win 5 to 4, from St. Louis. Seaton scored first in the ninth inning from the field for disputing a called ball.

ATHLETICS SHUT OUT GRIFFITH'S SENATORS

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 21.—Philadelphia beat Washington today, 3 to 0, bunched hits off Dumont in two innings. Bush pitched excellent ball in reserve when threatened. Score: R.H.E. Philadelphia ... 0 0 0 0 0 1 2 3 3 Washington ... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0

STRATFORD, June 21.—Taking advantage of Hesson's poor pitching in the first inning of tonight's game, the Canucks hammered out nine runs, and clinched the final of the junior city baseball league from the fast Riversides club. Johnson, who replaced Hesson in the first inning, was also hit hard, and when the umpire called the game at the end of the eighth inning the Canucks were leading 15 to 7. Edwards pitched excellent ball for the winners, and received credit for a shut-out from his teammates. The Riversides were held scoreless until the fifth inning.

Except for the first inning the game was the best seen here this season, and was witnessed by a fairly large crowd. Whalin's and Ferguson's fielding was a feature of the game. Whiffin, who caught for the Canucks, sprained his hand in the seventh inning, and was replaced by Whiffin, who worked well behind the bat. Hansford of the Riversides knocked the only home run of the game.

MARY ROSALIND PARR A BAY CITY WINNER

Rank Outsider Cops 2:10 Pace—Bad Spill in Third Heat.

BAY CITY, Mich., June 21.—Close finishes and plenty of work for the sheet writers gave the big crowd its money's worth at the Michigan "Short-ship" meeting here this afternoon. The big number of the day was the 2:10 pace for a $1,000 purse, won by Mary Rosalind Parr, a rank outsider, after five heats had been negotiated. Miss Shell, Canute and Teneke were made favorites in the pools and the upset for the form placers. There was a bad spill in the third heat, due to a collision between Elsie Onwardo and Mary Peters.

The other events were straight heat affairs. Summaries: 2:16 pace; purse $300—Cliff Monquette, ch. b., by Olle R. Cumberland, M.D. (G. A. Mayne) ... 1 1 1 1
