WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN. 19.

Pensions for the Totally Disabled

Public attention should be directed and concentrated in the most searching way upon the facts set forth in the report prepared by a strong committee for the "Council of the Toronto and York County Patriotic Fund Association," of which committee Mr. Frank Darling is chairman. Mr. Darling has had the report sent to a large number of people likely to be interested in the question dealt with, which is the inadequate pension provision made for wounded and disabled soldiers, more especially for those who are totally disabled. But it is not enough to enlist the sympathy of members of parliament and of the legislatures, nor of even the 275 mayors to whom Mr. Darling has sent the pamphlet which embodies the facts of the case.

The people at large must be made aware of the scandalous inadequacy of the arrangements for cases of total disability, and we believe when they know what these facts are they will demand that the government will do what is right, just and fair.
If Canada cannot do enough to keep a man alive after depriving him of the ability to look after himself then we are all on the wrong side of things. Government figures show that it takes $13 or $14 a week to keep him, and the pension should not be below the minimum cost of keeping a man alive. The discrepancy between what a man needs when totally disabled to keep him alive and the present pension proposals of the government must be remedied. That is the chief problem which Mr. Darling has taken up.

The United States pension list allows $100 a month to the totally disabled man, so that there are precedents for raising the Canadian allowance. Even at the present rate a soldier who might be injured while on home service or on his way to the front would be deprived of any pension at all merely because he was not in the presence of the enemy. A construction of this nature does honor to a lawyer's clever brains, but it does no honor to the humanity of the Dominion, and it is rather a libel on the human kindness of the average legislator.

When a man is in khaki and gets an injury which disables him, thru service under orders, he is as much entitled to pension consideration as if the kaiser in person had chopped off both his arms and legs. There should be no first degree and second degree of total disablement. When a man is totally disabled in the service of the country the only question should be how much it will take to keep him in decency and without discredit to the nation for whom he has given his strength.

There are not going to be so very many totally disabled men that it will be a burden to provide for them properly, but even if there were, it would be no excuse to dodge the fair and honorable course of taking care of those who took no care of themselves when the need of the nation called for sacrifice.

We intend to take up other aspects of the questions raised by Mr. Darling, but this one stands out and demands simple justice.

Good Old Y. M. C. A.

Like every other organization imbued with national and patriotic spirit, the Y. M. C. A. has taken a prominent part in assisting to get the recruits into to shape for the army, and keeping the soldiers in trim when they have once had their polish put on.

The Y. M. C. A. has had immense influence among the young men because it does its chief work by indirect means. It makes no distinction between the professor and the man who practices, but may not have professed.

It is on the side of the angels in a same and practical way. It does not thrust upon those who come into its circle anything that is distasteful. It sets up counter influences against the attractions which might lure in less desirable directions. It does not warn audibly, nor threaten, nor alarm.

It makes everybody welcome with a real hearty welcome, and gives the casual visitor the assurance that he has a place in the big institution specially reserved for him. This is the principle of the organization, and with few exceptions it is lived up to. The soldiers have found it a haven on all occasions, and abroad it is in many cases the only refuge the men can discover.

Locally the work done has been of the most valuable character. All soldiers are not Galahads, but they understand the Galahad virtues of strength and cleanliness, and the Y. M. C. A. contributes to the cultivation of such habits in the most useful way. The gymnasium and the swimming baths have been at the disposal of, by actual count, 5000 and 3000 men respectively a week. The physical directors have put many men into condition to pass the army surgeon who would otherwise have been rejected.

These things are a real benefit to the nation, and, therefore, to the empire and the cause of the allies. Whatever may be thought of the Y. M. C. A. in any other respects, or whatever ulterior motives may be attributed to it by the hypercritical, these are solid services that are being rendered to all who are on the side of the allies and the great ideals for which they stand.

There is no difference of opinion about the necessity to fight for truth and liberty and civilization. On this behalf the Y. M. C. A. is certainly doing its bit.

Holding the Enemy

There is a gleam of dawn-light in the east. This poetic reflection may be applied to the circumstances reported as attending the campaign on the Tigris. The Turks have not had it all their own way, and with adequate troops there never was any reason why Great Britain should not carry out her intentions and protect the oil regions of the Garden of Eden district while checking any Turkish designs upon the Persian Gulf.

There is no reason either why the troops, if adequately reinforced, should not still proceed to Bagdad and assert the supremacy of the allied arms in a way that would impress the whole of the Ottoman Empire. The Russians are doing very well in the Caucasus and Mesopotamia, and if the Germans are held there we may rest satisfied with the results of the winter campaign. They have been held everywhere else, and more than held, and this the Germans amount to defeat. What else, say their people at home, are all our victories while we cannot get food?

The enemies of the German victories must soon impress all the members of the German alliance, and we know that the innate distrust which Germany elicits by her methods even with her own allies, is an element of weakness which must tend, as so many other factors are tending, to the disintegration of the German organization.

Premier Asquith, who is nothing if not cautious, has ventured to congratulate the Russian nation with the hope that the war will be brought to a satisfactory conclusion in 1916. The British machine has never been tried out yet in any large sense, but when it begins to move; and when the revived and reinvigorated Russian army begins to move; and when France puts forth the effort of which she has proved herself capable, we may feel sure that the Germans will have something to face rather different from anything that hitherto they have met.

The Eastern Entrance

It is pleasant to hear that the eastern entrance to the Canadian National Exhibition is being put into hands at last. For many years the subject has been agitated and one excuse after another has been used to put it off till a more convenient season.

Recently the handicap on the annual fair has been a very heavy one, as the crowds cannot be handled by the western entrance with sufficient convenience to attract more people than are willing to face the jostling and delay which the arrangements, however admirable on the part of the street railway, entail.

We believe that the money put into this entrance will prove to be one of the best investments the city has made for some time, as increased attendance at the exhibition means increased revenue to the city both thru the gate receipts and thru the street cars.

The Church Militant

Rev. W. A. Cameron may not be the first man from the pulpit to come down and join the rank and file of the army but he is the first notable accession so far as Ontario is concerned, and he deserves to be welcomed for his spirit and for his example. It appears that chaplains are super-abundant, and that in order to give the church militant an opportunity to prove its faith a preachers' battalion has been authorized.

There is inspiration in the thought, and it will be a great lesson to the world to see all the preachers, even tho they cannot agree on a common

THANKS, FRIGHTFULLY, BUT I'VE GOT A CLEANER ONE MYSELF.

HERE'S A GOOD CREST

Why not join the 134th Overseas Battalion, now being recruited by the 48th Highlanders, and have a crest like this on your uniform?

Platform in theological matters, fully agreed, and agreed to the death, upon the fundamentals of common honesty, and freedom of national life and truth in action. Mr. Cameron lives with the logic of consistency, nor will he quibble about a mace, and he deserves to have a glorious company along with him.

ANOTHER SPLENDID SAFETY RECORD.

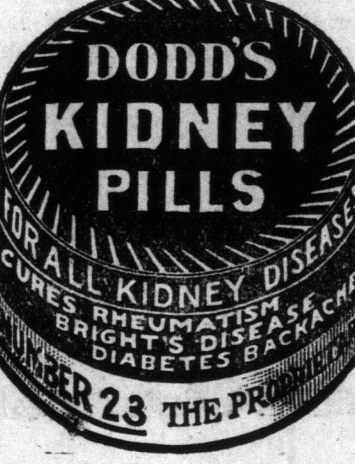

The Chicago and North Western Railway Co. point with pardonable pride to the splendid record they have made during the year just passed by not having killed a single passenger.

This is a splendid demonstration of the effective results obtained through the persistent and active work done by the Safety First organizations maintained by this company and the co-operation extended from all employees, this line being the pioneer in this great movement, and is also attributable to the extensive double tracking, together with the complete and modern signal appliances with which this line is fully equipped.

Winter Tourist Trips to Southern States

Are becoming more popular every year, largely owing to the increased transportation facilities and modern luxuries equipping, making the journey to California, Florida and other resorts a pleasure instead of a hardship. With one change of cars, you can travel from almost any point on the main line of the Grand Trunk Railway to your destination in the Sunny South, where the flowers bloom, and warm, balmy breezes blow. Meals served in dining cars make it unnecessary to leave the train en route. Round trip tickets are issued by the Grand Trunk Railway at very low fares, giving choice of all the best routes via Chicago, Detroit or Buffalo. Fast trains are run daily from Toronto, etc., carrying electric-lighted Pullman sleeping cars, dining and parlor-library cars, and first-class coaches, making connections with through trains for the south, etc.

Before deciding on your trip, ask Grand Trunk ticket agents for full particulars. Toronto city ticket office, northwest corner King and Yonge streets, phone Main 4209.

MOTORISTS DISCUSSED LICENSE RECIPROcity

One of Chief Topics of Interest at Meeting of Ontario Motor League.

OFFICERS ELECTED

"Transportation One of Biggest Problems," Declared Hon. F. G. Macdormid.

Reciprocity in motor car licenses between Ontario and New York State and the improvement of the roads of the province were the two topics of absorbing interest that the Ontario Motor League dealt with at its annual session at the King Edward Hotel yesterday when Hon. Francis M. Macdormid, secretary of state for New York, and Hon. F. G. Macdormid, minister of public works for Ontario, gave addresses.

Officers were elected for the coming year as follows: L. B. Howland, president; W. T. Marriott, Oakville, first vice-president; J. Gibbons, Toronto, second vice-president; George B. Read, London, third vice-president. The Toronto and York County Patriotic Association were assured that their request for 200 cars for use in their campaign next week would be granted, and Capt. Dingman of the 189th Battalion was promised 15 cars for the next two Sundays to aid in the recruiting campaign which that unit will conduct in the churches and theatres.

Progress of Motor Industry.
Hon. Francis M. Macdormid, in his address outlined the progress of the motor car industry in the last decade, stating that there were now two and a quarter million car owners in the United States. He declared himself in favor of local clubs and province-wide associations. With regard to reciprocity in licenses he stated that within 24 hours of the time Ontario passed such a measure he could guarantee that it would also be in force in New York State.

Hon. F. G. Macdormid, minister of public works, outlined the new Ontario Highways Act that came into force on Jan. 1. "Transportation is one of the biggest problems Canada has to face," he asserted.

A motion was passed by the league authorizing the appointment of an international license delegation to wait on the government urging the introduction of an exchange in motor licenses. Herbert Baker of Albany, secretary of the New York Motorists' Registration Bureau, was among the other speakers at the evening meeting.

President W. W. Digby read his report for the year, in which an increase of 2000 members was an encouraging feature. There were now 5041 members in good standing, with either active or affiliated membership. During the last year there were 26 new club formed, making a total of 84 affiliated clubs.

W. A. McLean, the newly-appointed deputy minister of highways, gave an address to the league in which he dealt with several clauses of the new act which affected the motorists. In Ontario there were 55,000 miles of roads. According to the present program the government will improve 20 per cent of the roads, which is figured will handle 80 per cent of the traffic.

ALLEGED TO HAVE STOLEN DIAMONDS FROM STORE

Ike Cohen, Jake Gould and Joseph Troup Are on Trial in Criminal Assizes.

Ike Cohen, Jake Gould and Joseph Troup appeared in the criminal assizes yesterday before Mr. Justice Middleton and a jury charged with the theft of six diamonds, valued at $2000, from Bernard Allan, a diamond dealer, with offices in the Continental Life Building.

Mr. Allan in describing how he believed the theft took place stated that the men visited his office and while examining stones asked him to weigh one of them. While this was being done his attention was diverted, and he alleges the stones were picked up from the table. Mr. Rose, K.C., acting for the crown, said that after leaving the office the men drove by motor to Hamilton, where they boarded a train for Buffalo. They were, however, detained at Fort Erie by United States customs officials. The trial will be resumed today.

CARRIED WORTHLESS STOCK.

Worthless cheques formed the stock-in-trade of Jos. Hendrickson, alias Alex. J. Simpson, who came up before Assistant Crown Attorney Hughes in the police court yesterday on a charge of fraudulently obtaining a suit of clothes from P. Fitzpatrick and O'Connell on Jan. 4. He was given 90 days in each case, the sentences to run concurrently.

EVERYTHING IS READY FOR BIG CAMPAIGN

Two Million Dollars Will Be Raised in Toronto in Three Days Next Week.

STRONG COMMITTEE WORK

E. R. Wood is Honorary Treasurer, and Sir Wm. Mulock is Chairman.

Two million dollars is an enormous sum to raise in three days, but that is what is to be attempted on Wednesday and Thursday of next week by the executive, officers, captains and teams of the Toronto and York County Patriotic Fund. For several days now decorators have been hard at work in the old McConkey building, 29 West King street, which is to be the headquarters of the campaign, hanging the walls with streamers of red, white and blue, over which will be placed shields and emblems of the allies. The entire three flats are to be occupied by the executive officers and workers, and ample accommodation will be afforded in this spacious building to carry out the great campaign. In hand on the ground floor will be used for the receiving of contributions that are made in person. At the head of the large stairway, where those attending the daily luncheons can check their overcoats, etc. The old ballroom will be used on this occasion for an information bureau, where any information regarding the progress of the campaign can be had.

At the daily luncheons the different captains will report as to their progress with collections and offer any suggestions as to what might better the collecting.

A Good Committee.
E. R. Wood is the honorary treasurer of the fund. Major W. S. Dinwiddie is the organizer, and is assisted in the work by J. E. Atkinson and W. C. Noxon. Sir William Mulock, who is the president of the Toronto and York County Patriotic Fund, will preside at the daily luncheons.

The first gun of the campaign will be fired this afternoon at 3 o'clock, when the ministers of Toronto will meet the executive. The ministers will be asked to urge the members of their congregations to do their utmost to make the campaign a success. Canada has asked to raise $5,000,000 for the Patriotic Fund, and it is expected that Ontario will raise one-half of this amount.

The Duke of Connaught visited the headquarters yesterday and expressed himself as being very well pleased with the arrangements already made, and thought that the campaign, judging from the previous efforts on the part of Toronto citizens, under like circumstances, would be a great success.

TORONTO MEN INVOLVED.

QUEBEC, Jan. 18.—The invalided soldiers that the C. P. R. Mississauga landed at St. John, arrived here this afternoon and were directed to the Quebec discharge depot. All are expected to be discharged before Thursday.

Toronto men included are: E. Slinn, F. Acock, R. E. Adams, W. D. S. Best, G. T. Croke, C. H. Brown, H. Rawlings, H. Boulton, W. J. Matthews, C. Holter, T. Wheeler, T. Fox, A. L. Taylor.

MAINTAIN FUNDS BY MONTHLY TAG DAY

Suggestion Made at Executive Meeting of Citizens' Recruiting League Yesterday.

WANTS GRANT RAISED

Took Eight Hours to Count Money Collected at Sunday Recruiting Meetings.

A monthly tag day with a straight five-cent contribution was suggested as a means of maintaining the funds at a meeting of the executive of the Citizens' Recruiting League, held at the city hall yesterday afternoon. Col. Brown of the 12th York Rangers headed a deputation from that militia unit asking that a grant of the league be raised from $600 to $1,000, or the same as had been given to the other units. The colonel pointed out that it was practically a city corps, and while they had not the same strength the cost of carrying on their recruiting work was about the same as that of some of the other units, as they had to organize and hold meetings throughout the whole of York County.

When the question of finances was raised it was learned that at December 31 the league had a balance of about $21,000, and that this had been reduced to $13,000 since the first of the year, not including an appropriation of $2000 for advertising purposes, which makes the available balance about $11,000. In view of these somewhat startling figures it was decided to systematize the giving of grants in order that all requests might be satisfactorily dealt with.

LEONCAVALLO'S OPERA WAS MUSICAL TREAT

Climaxes at Intervals Ranked as Triumphs for Principals of Boston Company.

Accompanied by the continuous applause of the audience, six times did the curtain rise to the closing act of "Le Pagliaccio," given by the Boston Grand Opera Company at the Royal Alexandra Theatre last night. The beautiful opera of Leoncavallo from start to finish was a decided success with climaxes at intervals which were ranked as triumphs for the principals and as tributes to the production of the composer.

Giovanni Zanatello as Calio, the injured husband, whose passionate revenge leads to the tragic ending, was superb. He dramatic interpretation of his part being such as to convey to the audience the complete story of the plot, while his vibrant voice, capable of the greatest depth of emotion, was always under the intellectual control of the singer. At the close of the first act when in throes of grief and despair he answered the call of his part in the most dramatic and dramatic action drew from the audience spontaneous applause.

Felice Lyne as Nedda, wife of Calio, shared the honors largely with Zanatello. Her role gave her much better opportunities than that afforded her on her first visit to Toronto, and in every instance she did her them justice. That she is capable of depths of feeling was evidence in her scene with Tonio and in her tragic finale.

As Tonio, Thomas Chalmers played a part leaving nothing to be desired. Zanatello's Harlequin gave her much better opportunities than that afforded her on her first visit to Toronto, and in every instance she did her them justice. That she is capable of depths of feeling was evidence in her scene with Tonio and in her tragic finale.

"Coppelia," a ballet in two acts, by Delibes, with Anus Pavlova in the role of Swanilda, and M. Valinsky and Jan Zalewski, as assisting principals, was the second offering. The work gave opportunity for the exquisite dancing of Pavlova, and a number of fascinating chorégraphie figures from the company. The music of "Coppelia" is bright and dainty, and was delightfully interpreted.
