MONTREAL PRODUCE MARKET.

Montreal, Feb. 16.—The domestic cash grain trade continues very quiet. Prices are down $2 a ton for mill feed owing to keener competition. The rolled cats trade is steady. The local egg market continues on the easy side with prices further down 1 cent to 2 cents a dozen. There is an easy undertone in the potato market. The trade in butter was better today. There is nothing to report in the cheese market.
