Sir,

My last letter to you, dated Sept 17th, must have read as though it had been written by a lunatic, but the wording of it was caused by my believing as correct the hearsay news that you were visiting Battleford during the time of pre-emption, and were still there. I told the bearer of the said letter that if you had left there, for the north Town, to have it forwarded to you. Of course, I know, now, that my belief was wrong and you were not in Battleford at that time, and as I took the precaution to address it to Ottawa in case of such an emergency, and it has not returned, I know that you must have received it. Such being the case I am much disappointed that I have not received any answer. I will put forward my proposition again as you may have forgotten it by now. I read in the newspapers that the Thunderchild Indian Reserve had
