

13. The Council shall conduct and control the business of the Association, and may grant such salary as they shall see fit to any Officer of the Association, and shall meet twice during the year, or oftener if required by the President or any two of its members.

14. The Council shall, at its first meeting, elect five of its members to form, with the President and Secretary, an Executive Committee, which, subject to such instructions as may be given by the Council, shall transact the business of the Association, and shall arrange for and conduct the Annual Prize Competition.

15. The Council shall have power to fill any vacancy which may exist in the number of its members, or of the Office Bearers of the Association; to enact Bye-Laws and to form rules for the regulation of the competitions of the Association, and of all other matters committed to its charge.

16. The Secretary-Treasurer shall conduct all correspondence, keep the minutes of the proceedings of all meetings of the Association and of the Council; and shall also keep the accounts of the Association, which shall be annually audited and reported upon to the Annual Meeting by three members appointed by the Council for that purpose.

17. A general meeting of members and competitors shall be held on the second evening during the Annual Prize Matches for the discussion of matters relating to the prize list and shooting regulations.

18. No alteration in this Constitution shall be made except at the Annual Meeting of the Association by a vote of a majority of the members present and entitled to vote at such meeting.
