

townships of Loborough, Portland, Hinchinbrooke, Camden, Ernestown, Richmond, Tyendinaga, Tudor, Hungerford, Thurlow, Sidney, Marmora, Madoc, Elziver, Kaladar, Rawdon and Murray, and the Prince Edward District, chiefly upon the bay and lake shore. He also spent some time in Glengarry, principally for the sale of Gaelic Bibles.

He has sold and distributed 1126 copies of the Scriptures.

We present the following extracts from his reports :

The Colporteur needed.—"In — found not a few without the Bible, some persons in apparently affluent circumstances, others poor; to the former I sold, to the latter made grants. In this locality I gave a Bible to a Scotchman who had none!"

"I found a number of people opposite — without Bibles; to some I made grants."

"The latter," referring to the townships which he had just mentioned, "the latter, as you are aware, is rather a remote settlement; sold pretty freely, penetrated as far as I could into the interior, visited a few of the lumber shanties, and conversed freely with the lumbermen, some of whom seemed seriously disposed; was treated kindly by them, and invited to eat such things as they had. I intimated that I would hold a meeting in the settlement on Sabbath. Although disturbed by some who were intoxicated at the outset, quiet was soon restored, and I was listened to with marked attention and seeming interest."

Interesting Case.—"In the neighborhood of — I met with rather an affecting case. On entering a house I was received with great kindness by a female evidently in a delicate state of health. Upon informing her of the object of my visit she said 'ah me, I have no money.' 'I said, I can give you a Bible for ten pence;' she very pensively said 'I do not have it.' 'Have you a Bible in the house,' I enquired. She wept bitterly. I continued, 'it is written "How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation?"' Continuing to weep, she said 'Sir, a few months ago I was laid very low, the doctor declared my case hopeless, I believed I was dying and plead earnestly with my husband to get me a Bible, but,' with evident desire to conceal his cruel carelessness, she said 'I have not yet obtained one.' I of course gave her a Bible, and such were the evident marks
