DOING WELL AT LADY BYNG CAMP

The children at Lady Byng Camp at Fair Vale are all reported doing well. They played on the beach with toy balls and shovels yesterday, though there are not enough of these to go around. Miss McAvity and Miss Jones of Rotheray spent considerable time with the kiddies on the beach yesterday. Officials from the local Red Cross depot were visitors also.

Miss McKeljohn said that all visitors were welcome. She wanted as many of the people of St. John and elsewhere as were interested to see the cottages and how the work is carried on. The camp is in Fair Vale, just opposite the post office. Signs show the way for all who wish to go.

There are several things the camp is in need of, such as boys' and girls' bathing suits. Miss McKeljohn would like very much to procure a gramophone and some records that the children may come to appreciate good music.

Some twenty children are expected in camp next week.

YOU FEEL YOU WANT TO BUY IT
A while ago there was a wide difference in price between ordinary teas and the best—and you naturally hesitated to buy the best. Now, the once-cheap teas are double what they were, while the best—RED ROSE ORANGE PEKOE TEA—is still the same price—43c. per 1 1/2 lb. package—only 8c. more than other package teas. It's so strong, too, it goes much further. You really save money by using it. You ought to try it.
