HAILS POLICEMAN M'GUIRE AS NEW SENSATION OF THE ROWING WORLD

Baltimore Writer's Report on His Race With Hilton Belyea.

The Baltimore Sun of last Sunday, commenting on the victory of Edward McGuire of the Mutual Rowing Club of Buffalo, at the National Regatta, says him a glowing tribute and says that his feat will not soon be forgotten by rowing devotees. The writer contended that there was nothing fluky about his sensational performance especially as he was pitted against such men as Paul Costello, the champion, and the internationally famed Canadian, Hilton A. Belyea. He furthermore asserted that the performance of these famous oarsmen did not occasion the new champion the slightest nervousness. McGuire is a policeman. A description of the race follows: "Rowing a beautiful, smooth and powerful stroke, he was in front within less than a length of the leader all the way. And he had in reserve for the final dash more energy than to enable him to gain a fairly easy victory over his nearest rival Belyea. "While it is practically certain that Costello could not have retained his laurels under any conditions against the new sensation of the rowing world, it will be interesting to rowing fans to know that Costello effectively put himself out of the running when he struck with his oar one of the making flaps about midway between the starting point and Hanover street bridge. "Belyea quickened his stroke 200 yards from the bridge and gained approximately a half-length on McGuire. But as soon as they struck open water on the other side McGuire let not link or two and in a few strokes had forged up on even terms. "They were opposite the Ariel pier when the St. John sculler began to show signs of willing under the terrific strain. His oars failed to catch the water properly and the rough water that now prevailed was troubling him. A half-length and then three-quarters, the Buffalo man fought ahead. "Belyea was hanging on grimly, but only his courage was keeping him in the running. For about 20 yards there was no perceptible change in the relative positions. Then McGuire again began gradually to force forward until at the finish there was open water between the shells. "Belyea collapsed after crossing the line, and it was several minutes before he was able to bring his shell back to the Ariel float. Costello finished about six lengths behind the winner."

ST. GEORGES LOSE

Garrison Takes Carleton Contest, Eight Runs to Good.

In Hannah, St. George's "Iron Man" was off color last night and the Garrison walked off with a 9 to 1 win on the Queen Square diamond. Brooklin hurried for the winners and touched for four safeties. This puts St. George's full game in the lead. The box score and summary follow: Garrison—A.B.R.H.P.O.A.E. Harper, s.f., 4 1 1 1 0 0 0; Sparks, i.f., 4 1 0 0 0 0 0; Mountain, 2b., 0 0 0 0 0 0 0; Peckham, r.f., 4 2 1 0 0 0 0; Snodgrass, lb., 4 2 3 0 0 0 0; Barry, c.f., 4 0 0 0 0 0 0; Pierce, 3b., 4 0 0 1 0 0 0; Logan, c., 4 0 0 0 0 0 0; Brooklin, p., 4 1 0 0 0 0 0. ## Walter Johnson Admits He's Slipping But Blames Legs Instead of Arm

Washington, Aug. 10.—Is Walter Johnson going back? Walter admits it himself, so there can be no doubt about it. At times, Johnson looks as good as ever, but his pitching lacks the old consistency that made him the greatest pitcher of his day. Johnson has been pitching in the American League since 1907. He has always been on a losing team, never with a great club. As a result, in order to win, he invariably was forced to press his pitching to the limit. When a star pitcher begins to go, he has gone four or five innings at an ailing arm. Listen to what Johnson has to say on this point: "Of course, I am not as good as I was 10 or 15 years ago. Age tells in baseball quicker than any other sport. "I'm going back, and no one knows it better than I do. It may surprise you, however, to know that I figure it is my legs rather than an ailing arm that troubles me most. "Unless a pitcher's legs are strong and able to stand up under the constant strain of striding on every ball pitched, he can't get his stuff on the ball. "My legs are far more troublesome than my arm. Some days they seem too weak to support my body after I have gone four or five innings at top speed. "Empires and battles tell me after certain games that I had as much stuff as ever. In those games my legs have always felt strong. It's a pair of weak legs rather than an ailing arm that is robbing me of much of my old-time speed."

WALTER JOHNSON.

Today's Baseball And Other Sport

The fast Fredrickton team, winners of the first series, and St. Peter's, leaders of the second series, will be the attraction of the Two-1 League at St. Peter's Park this afternoon and evening. Fast and exciting ball should result. Miss Mary Davies, a member of the Fredrickton team, was recently recovered from their slump, having overhauled Moncton and taken the Vets into camp twice this week. On the other hand St. Peter's have been going strong, winning the last eight of nine games. The batteries were, for the winners, Cunningham and Gibbs, and for the losers, Wright and Coy. In this set, they changed their style of play and both resorted to the crushing net game. In the third set, Hudson and Thomson took three straight games and Wood and Bigelow captured the next three. Hudson, rising to great heights, won the pair 6 to 4. Wood and Bigelow again turned the tables and won the fourth set, 6 to 4. This was the best set of the match. The St. George team won the first three games, then lost one, but took the next two, making the score 5 to 2. Then Hudson and Thomson took three straight and the excitement was intense as it appeared to many that the Rosettes team would win the match then and there. Thomson was serving and all who know his crushing service expected him to win the game. It was a thriller, but Woods and Bigelow, rising to great heights, won the game and set. The veterans were firing noticeably, but the youthful pace set hardly warmed up Hudson and Thomson and they took the deciding set by 6 to 2. Every game went to the limit, the large crowd on edge until the deciding point was played.

After tea had been served in the University, the mixed doubles final was played. George Hudson and Miss Muriel Davies defeated Nova Scotia mixed doubles champion here this afternoon. And the championship events will be completed on Saturday afternoon and the Nova Scotia winners will be ready to meet the New Brunswick champions here on Monday.

Reasoning It Out.

"I see by this advertisement, mother, that your clothes show what opinion we have of ourselves."

"Yes, son, and I suppose it is true. But why do you mention it?"

"Oh, nothing. Only when Sister Doris went in the surf last summer at Atlantic City she mustn't have had much of any opinion of herself."

McBRIDE, HERO OF A DRAW WITH JOE GANS, FALLS DEAD

Danny McBride, who fought a twenty round draw with Joe Gans in 1909, fell dead of heart disease while walking in East Fifth street New York on Wednesday. He had been employed recently in the Park Department. He was 40 years old. He was a star lightweight of the old Broadway Club ring for many years and at one time was thought to have a chance for the championship. He was said to be one of the hardest men in the ring to knock out. His career came to an end when blood poisoning set in after he had broken the knuckles of his right hand in one of his fights. Two of his fingers had to be amputated at that time.

JACK JOHNSON TO FIGHT SPALLA ON SEPTEMBER 6

Boston, Aug. 11.—It has been definitely settled that Jack Johnson, the former heavyweight champion will mingle with Erminio Spalla, the Italian heavyweight champion, in a scheduled twelve round contest to be decided at Dreamland P.M. in Newark on September 6. The match has been put back from August 30 to give Spalla more time to get into shape for the fray.

Nick Cline, manager of Spalla, received a cable from his protegee from Milan, Italy, where he boxes this week, stating that he intends to sail immediately after that battle, and can be expected here within two weeks. Cline quickly got in touch with the Dreamland Park promoters and agreed on September 6 as the new date for the battle.

This bout will mark Johnson's first competitive appearance in this country since his battle with Jim Flynn, the Pueblo freeman at Las Vegas, N. M., on July 4, 1912.

COOMBS AGAIN TO COACH AT WILLIAMS

Williamstown, Aug. 11.—Williams College will again have Jack Coombs, former big league pitcher, as baseball coach next season. His services have been secured to take charge of the purple nine for another season. Coombs has coached Williams for the past three years and he turned out the strongest nine in the past decade last spring. Coombs is manager of the Kennebunkport team in Maine this summer.

MILLIDGEVILLE RACES LIKELY CLUB REGATTA; NOT CHAMPIONSHIPS

Question of Lack of Four Oared Crews in This Vicinity.

There is every prospect of the Millidgeville Outing Association today requesting the withdrawal of the application for the Maritime Amateur Rowing Championships, to be held on the Millidgeville course on Aug. 28, and a club regatta will be held instead. The Millidgeville Club was in earnest in making their request for the grant and the New Brunswick members of the executive voted that they be given the sanction from the Maritime body as it was New Brunswick's turn this season. Harry Ervin, the secretary for New Brunswick, received a wire from R. T. MacLennan, of Halifax, yesterday to the effect that the Maritime Association was ready to vote the championships to St. John provided the clubs here would guarantee New Brunswick entries for the various events. If the competition for four-oared events were to be confined to Halifax crews there was a feeling that the expense of sending eight four-oared crews with spare men and attendants to St. John to race against one another was hardly justified when the championship could be settled in Halifax without such cost. If there would be reasonable competition by New Brunswick four-oared crews the position would be different. The secretary learned last evening from William Turner, president of the Millidgeville Club, that there were at present no senior four-oared crews in New Brunswick, and the only four that will compete in the regatta are a few juniors around the age of twenty years who will row for the McEllan Cup. Other than these are only junior, intermediate and senior singles, although any outside four can come and race for the Fulton Cup, which is not a championship race. This information was wired to Halifax last night, asking if it would be possible to run championship events with the exception of the fours and this class rowed at Halifax. While it is generally understood that such cannot be granted, there is every possibility of Millidgeville withdrawing their request and they will carry out their programme as a club regatta. It is unfortunate that St. John clubs have no senior fours ready, when the rowing game has taken such a firm hold, but perhaps before next season arrives, our wonderful single scullers will be joined by a few fine fours.

The deaths caused by appendicitis are reported on the increase.

"Where the Pavement Ends"

WHERE THE PAVEMENT ENDS, THERE ROMANCE BEGINS—and there is no pavement beneath the feet of life in the South Seas. It is all sunshine and danger and the slow, easy poison of laziness; all lay surf and white beach and green jungle. Such is the essence and the background of "Where the Pavement Ends," a story by John Russell, which has been produced for Metro by Rex Ingram, maker of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," "The Prisoner of Zenda" and other such great photoplays. It is the story of the young daughter of a missionary. She was quite alone and young; and the tropic nights, so alive with the pulse of life, quickened her longing for love. Alice Terry is the girl, and Ramon Navarro the one to symbolize love to her.
