NEW VITAGRAPH STAR

AT THE IMPERIAL

Gladys Leslie, "A Tiny Blonde"
With a Million Dollar Smile, in a Story of Irish Village Life

A new star in the Greater Vitagraph constellation is at the Imperial in "His Own People," a Blue Ribbon feature, sharing honors with Harry Morey. She is Gladys Leslie, a tiny blonde, and called by some critics "the girl with the million-dollar smile." Miss Leslie is a New York girl, who got her opportunity with the Thantousser Company and was seen in several important features on the Pathé programme. She first attracted attention as Sophia in "The Vicar of Wakefield," in which Frederick Warde was starred, and later appeared in two vehicles in which she was featured alone. They were "The Amateur Orphan" and "What Happened to Adele," in both of which she had roles peculiarly suited to her. Albert E. Smith, president of Greater Vitagraph, a man noted for his ability to pick actresses and for his conservatism, is authority for the statement that in Miss Leslie his company has a "find." He says that it is his intention to provide Miss Leslie with vehicles which will permit of the development of her talents to their fullest. "His Own People" is a story of Irish village life, the scenes being laid in a little spot in Connemara on the shores of Lough Corrib. There are numerous fine touches in the picture especially those introducing the domestic animals—dogs, pigs, cats, chickens, geese, etc.—and the production is generally declared to be one of the finest ever put out by the Vitagraph Company. It was produced under the direction of William P. S. Earle, who also directed "Within the Law" and other big Vitagraph features, and is declared to be a masterpiece of photoplay drama and artistic photography. It was certainly very much enjoyed yesterday and will doubtless attract many more people today.

The Imperial's bill is further enhanced in interest by the History of the War series, a Pathé scenic, Drew comedy and Mutt and Jeff—one of those big programmes filled with absorbing subject matter and hearty laughs.

Tomorrow the Imperial presents the famous Japanese star, Sessue Hayakawa in William C. DeMille's production of the Marion Fairfax story "The Honor of His House."

Following England's example, U. S. manufacturers are approving the proposal to introduce metric measures.

Thousands of infants die annually who could be saved by the timely use of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. There can be no doubt about it.

During the seventy-two years that this wonderful remedy has been on the market, it has been proved conclusively that it is the best for diarrhoea, dysentery, colic, cramps, cholera infantum, and all looseness of the bowels, especially when the children are teething.

Many of the limitations of Dr. Fowler's being offered to the public today are positively dangerous, as they often check the diarrhoea too suddenly, cause inflammation and leave the bowels in a constipated condition. "Dr. Fowler's" will not do this, but will impart healthy tone to the mucous surface, and stop the diarrhoea in an easy and natural way.

Mrs. M. Tyler, Orland, Ont., writes: "I have used your wonderful medicine for nine years with great satisfaction. My little girl was only five months old, and she was so sick with diarrhoea I thought she would die. I was advised by a friend to try Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and it gave her quick relief. I have used it ever since for the whole of my family, six in all, and can praise it more than anything I ever used."

The genuine is put up by The T. M. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. Price, 42¢.

OLD ORCHARD RAIDED

FOR SUNDAY VIOLATION; 18 ARRESTS MADE

Amusement enterprises at Old Orchard, Me., were run wide open last Sunday, in direct violation of the orders of Governor Milken that the Sunday laws of the state must be strictly enforced.

Excitement was caused in the large holiday crowd when thirty-five local and county officers made eighteen arrests of owners, employees and patrons of amusement places.

After the town officials had reported to the governor at his summer home at Ocean Park, two miles up the beach, that enterprises were still running despite the arrests made, he announced that the closing order would be enforced if it became necessary to call in the militia and put the town under martial law.

All the arrested ones were taken to the town hall, followed by crowds, where they were released in 800 bonds for appearance in court.

Undeterred by the arrests, the amusement enterprises continued to operate until the usual closing hours.

Ten of the eighteen men arrested were brought before Judge Lombard in the Municipal court Monday morning and in all cases were fined a small sum in costs or discharged for lack of evidence to convict them.

KAISER STILL SEEKS NEW NATIONAL ANTHEM

Amsterdam, June 22.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press).—Germany's emperor is still seeking a suitable "national anthem." German officials have decided that the music of "Hall Dir im Siegeskranz" ("Hall to Thee in the Victor's Crown") should be changed, as it is the same as the tune to which "God Save the King" is sung, or else that an entirely new hymn should be substituted.

A committee of prominent Germans was formed and poets and musicians throughout Germany were requested to submit pieces for consideration. More than 3,200 pieces were submitted, some of them being sent to the Emperor himself, but no fit hymn has as yet been found.

Recently the poets and musicians were asked to try again.
