LOCAL NEWS

NEW FIRE NUMBER A PUZZLE
The new fire alarm signal No. 78, which heralded the Dufferin Hotel blaze early this morning, was a puzzle for many. Recently there has been a shuffle of up-town fire alarm numbers and some re-numbering. This 78 box was therefore something strange to many of the people who simply rolled over in bed and forgot it. When finding out the facts later on they were greatly surprised.

BURIED TODAY
The funeral of William J. Godose took place this afternoon from his late residence, 33 Exmouth street, to the Cathedral, where burial services were conducted by Rev. A. P. Allen. Interment was made in the new Catholic cemetery. Relatives acted as pall bearers.

SUBURBANITES RUSHING HOME
The important roadways leading from popular suburbs are dotted with furniture-laden teams these days, indicating a return from summer abodes before the invading forces of Jack Frost. There is a general abandonment of semi-furnished cottages and unplastered camps and bungalows along the river and far into the railway districts. Some of them are being kept partially furnished for shooting parties as the season is now on. On the whole the last summer was not a very long one in point of fine weather, and motoring suburbanites tell tall tales of wet roads and "top-up" weather.

Q. M. S. HAROLD CUNNINGHAM IS MARRIED IN ENGLAND

A very pretty wedding took place in Corby, Lincolnshire, England, on Aug. 21 last, at the home of the bride, when Miss Evelyn Codd was united in marriage to Reg. Q. M. Sgt. Harold W. Cunningham of this city. He was employed with the Bank of Nova Scotia, and having been transferred to Quebec, he enlisted with a Quebec battalion and went overseas with the first contingent. His many friends wish him much happiness and a safe return to Canada.

SEPTEMBER WEDDINGS

Morrissey-Fitzgerald.
A pretty wedding was solemnized this morning in the Church of Assumption, West St. John, when the rectory, Rev. A. J. O'Neill, united in marriage with nuptial mass Miss Thomasina Fitzgerald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Fitzgerald, Duke street, West St. John, and William Morrissey, of the C. P. R. staff, office staff. The bride was given in marriage by W. M. Akersley, Rev. J. W. Williamson performed the ceremony. The bride was dressed very charmingly in steel grey silk with bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a bridal bouquet of roses and maiden hair fern. The house was prettily decorated with ferns, roses and palms. The presents were very numerous and pretty. Among them was a motor chair from No. 2 salvage corps, of which the groom is a popular member. A handsome china set came from the employees of Fowler's saw factory, where the groom is employed, also two very pretty pieces of silver, engraved, from the employees of Bond's Cafe, also a check from the managers. The bride has been a valued member of their staff.

Carroll-Harrison.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Tuesday evening, Sept. 24, at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Carroll, when their only son, Mr. A. Carroll, was united in marriage to Miss Emma Harrison of Grand Cascapedia, P. Q. The bride was given in marriage by W. M. Akersley, Rev. J. W. Williamson performed the ceremony. The bride was dressed very charmingly in steel grey silk with bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a bridal bouquet of roses and maiden hair fern. The house was prettily decorated with ferns, roses and palms. The presents were very numerous and pretty. Among them was a motor chair from No. 2 salvage corps, of which the groom is a popular member. A handsome china set came from the employees of Fowler's saw factory, where the groom is employed, also two very pretty pieces of silver, engraved, from the employees of Bond's Cafe, also a check from the managers. The bride has been a valued member of their staff.

Harvey-Smith.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Smith, 179 Douglas avenue, when their daughter, Miss Willie D. Smith, was united in marriage to Arthur W. Harvey, son of Mrs. Agnes and the late Fred Harvey of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Henry Penna at the home of the bride's parents in the presence of immediate relatives and friends. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Walter, was costumed in a very pretty dress of white crepe du chene with Georgette trimmings and veil with a wreath of orange blossoms and carried a bridal bouquet. She was unattended. Following the ceremony a dainty wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey left this morning on an automobile tour through the province. Returning, they will reside at 202 St. James street. They are the recipients of a large number of very pretty and useful presents in cut glass and silver.

Bewick-Waters.
At 5.45 o'clock this morning in Trinity church, Rev. D. H. Loweth officiating, Cyril Bewick of 47 Celebration street, and Helen Waters, daughter of the late Harry Waters, of Grand Manan, were united in marriage. A considerable group of friends witnessed the ceremony. Both bride and groom have been employees of the King street offices of T. McAvity & Sons, Ltd., from whom they received a substantial check, whilst fellow employees expressed their good wishes in the form of a chest of silver. Other remembrances such as cut glass ware, fine china, art, furniture and fairies were showered upon the happy young principals. Mr. and Mrs. Bewick left on the American train at 6.45 on a honeymoon trip as far as Woodstock.

ALONG THE RIVER

September Strawberries — Some Interesting Souvenirs

Mr. Wilkes, at Public Landing, picked a box of strawberries in his garden this week.

Farmed along the river who did not use the Bordeaux mixture find that a considerable portion of their potato crop is affected by rot.

The Ocoee yesterday and today brought down potatoes, apples, pumpkins and squash, and a variety of other products.

Captain Taylor, purser on the Ocoee, has the starting bar of the tug Admiral as a souvenir. Not because it was in the Admiral, but because it was in the Antelope in the states and in the Reindeer in the early fifties. It started the first compound engine made in these parts, if not in the world—invented by Mr. Tibbitts of Fredericton and first used in the Reindeer between St. John and the capital city. Captain Taylor has gathered at odd times a great mass of information about steamboating on the river years ago. Captain Flewelling has a fine group of photos of river steamers, and one of Indian town water-front in 1873, showing the steamers Olive and David Weston at the wharf.

THE MACVITY PLANT

A very interesting event took place at six o'clock last evening in the MacVity munitions factory, Marsh Road, and was the first of its kind which has occurred since the war work was taken up there. It was a presentation to Mrs. Hatfield, Fairville, who is employed on the three to eleven o'clock shift for girls and women. Yesterday marked the twenty-fourth anniversary of Mrs. Hatfield's wedding and her co-workers on that shift called her before them at the supper hour and presented to her a case of knives and a basket of flowers in patriotic colors.

The presentation was nicely made by Mrs. Jeannette Moss who is in charge of that shift and there was a very grateful response by the recipient. It is noteworthy that Mrs. Hatfield's husband and son are both overseas and that herself does not rest idle at home, but is doing her share to win the war.

GETS HELMET FROM BATTLEFIELD

Mrs. MacDermott of this city, was pleased to receive in the mail this week a rather bulky souvenir from the battlefields of France. It was a much battered brass helmet with sweeping brush crest surmounting it and lined within with leather. It has evidently seen some hard usage because it is much dented and bent.

It came from her husband, Trooper William MacDermott, who has been across for three years. He went over with the 6th C. M. R.'s in 1915 and is now with the third Canadian division. He has been through a great deal of the severe fighting but fortunately has escaped being wounded. At the time of writing he was just going on ten days leave and intended to pay a visit to Scotland. In St. John before the war Trooper MacDermott was a driver for the James Robertson Company.

DEATH OF MRS. CHARLES R. WASSON

Mrs. Charles R. Wasson died this morning at her home, 274 Douglas avenue, after a very short illness. Mr. and Mrs. Wasson and some friends arrived home on last Friday after a motor trip through the United States. Mrs. Wasson complained of feeling ill, but nothing serious was thought of it until a day or two ago when pneumonia set in. She was an active worker of Victoria street Baptist church. Mrs. Wasson leaves her husband, two sons, Charles Ester and John Edward, and one daughter, Edith May, all at home. The funeral will be on Friday. Many will deeply sympathize with the bereaved ones in their great loss.

NO MORE COMPLETE VICTORY IN HISTORY

That's What is Said About Allenby's Success in Palestine

London, Sept. 25.—Detailed reports of operations in Palestine lag considerably behind events there. The latest reports from the accredited British correspondent, sent from Nebulus on Monday, emphasize the astonishing thoroughness of the destruction of the seventh and eighth Turkish armies. Remnants of these forces which succeeded in crossing the Jordan River are isolated and are almost entirely without war material.

There has been no more complete victory in history," the correspondent says. "Groups of men have been found sitting under white flags awaiting the acceptance of their surrender." Aside from more than 200 guns captured, vast quantities of ammunition are lying everywhere, some munition depots covering acres of ground. It is reported that if the Turks try to raise new armies to replace those destroyed, they must call on Germany to supply every gun and every instrument of war, as the Turks manufacture only small arm ammunition.

The correspondent describes a remarkable spectacle around Beus. This area was strewn with wreckage of the retreat. Here alone the British captured eighty-seven cannon, thousands of horse-drawn vehicles, hundreds of motor lorries and field kitchens, water carts and a mass of other implements. This material, mingled with thousands of bodies of Turks, Germans and horses, blocks the roads. Much of the destruction was wrought by airplanes, which swooped down upon the retreating columns and dropped bombs from a low altitude until whole columns became vast broken masses of men. Those who escaped wounds or death fled to the hills, abandoning everything. Many of these were captured by cavalry, while others sought refuge in the British lines.

NOVELTY SHOWER.
Miss Mary Harrison of 25 Cedar street entertained about twenty-five friends last evening in honor of Miss Mildred Akersley, whose marriage to Rev. W. H. Mackay of Sydney, N. S., will take place early in October. The evening took the form of a novelty shower and the bride-to-be received many pretty and useful gifts.
