London Press Lauds Wilson's Attitude

On Repeal of Exemptions to American Owned Vessels

Suggests Recognition of His Stand By British Participation in San Francisco Exposition—Considers of British Decision

(Canadian Press) London, March 6.—Laudatory comments on President Wilson's message delivered to congress yesterday, are published in most of the newspapers of this country today. The government organ, the Westminster Gazette, pays the highest compliments to President Wilson, for his attitude in regard to the question of Panama Canal tolls. It says: "It is not always convenient to hail a statesman of another country as a 'just judge' when he advocates your cause against a section of his own country. We cannot refrain however, from expressing respectful admiration of the courage and manliness with which President Wilson handles the Panama tolls question."

LOOKING FOR DRIVERS OF MYSTERIOUS RIG

(Special to Times) Digby, N. S., March 6.—The strange horse and carriage found in the woods yesterday is creating a lot of interest in this vicinity. Your correspondent this morning succeeded in obtaining a description of the occupants of the unknown rig. They stopped to feed their horse at W. U. Jones' stables at Digby, two miles west of where the horse was found. Jones described them as follows: "Two young boys, about about sixteen and eighteen, dressed in blue overalls, and a man in a heavy overcoat and a fur hat. The man inside coats inside their overall straps. No one is obtainable of their whereabouts since that hour."

SAYS HORSE FLESH IS SHIPPED TO SWEDEN

Montreal, March 6.—The proprietor of one of the three equine stables on the South Shore stated tonight that each of these places between fifty and sixty horses are killed in a week, the animals being inspected before and after slaughter by a veterinary. The animals, all of which are housed in a large shed, are then shipped to Sweden. He denied that any of it was sold in Montreal. About three hundred pounds of meat were obtained from each animal, the hides fetch $5 to $8, and the bones, fat, blood, hoofs, hair, shoes and intestines for sausage casings, are all sold, bringing a profit of $15 to $20 on each animal. The Montreal Equine Company is capitalized at $100,000.

Maritime—Northeast and east winds, gradually increasing, fair today, snow and rain by Saturday.

BRILLIANT LECTURER MAY JOIN STAFF OF PINE HILL COLLEGE

(Special to Times) Halifax, N. S., March 6.—A piece of news which will be received with exceptional interest is to the effect that Rev. T. M. Shaw, whose brilliant series of four lectures under the Pollock Memorial Lectureship, delivered at Pine Hill Presbyterian College, have so profoundly impressed all those who heard them, will be invited to accept a permanent appointment at the college, and that a re-arrangement of the chairs would be made in the event of his accepting, of which there is a possibility. Overtures have been made at the urgent request especially of leading laymen who are greatly struck not only with Mr. Shaw's distinguished scholarship, but quite as much with his spiritual fervor.

REMOVING WRECKED TRAIN FROM RAILS OF M. & B. RAILWAY

(Special to Times) Moncton, N. B., March 6.—Twenty-one dollars of the fifty dollars alleged to have been stolen from the body of Fireman Sylvain Bourque while lying pinned under the wreckage of the Moncton and Beauceville Railway, at Scotch Settlement bridge was found yesterday by Sergeant Miller of Beauceville, bridge foreman of the Moncton and Beauceville Railway while engaged with the gang of men making repairs to the bridge. The wrecked train was found yesterday by the police. The bridge was found yesterday by the police. The bridge was found yesterday by the police.

NOT WORTH THE PRICE

American Residents Abroad Rejoice Citizenship Rather Than Pay Income Tax

London, March 6.—American income tax has aroused a wealthier American here. Unless the law is modified there is a possibility of a mass exodus of American citizens. Ambassador Page will forward to Secretary of State Bryan, a memorial signed by leading American residents, protesting against the inequalities of the act. Already Isaac Seligman, of Seligman, London bankers, and Frank E. Bliss, former Standard Oil magnate and ex-president of American Society of London, have become British subjects.

RAILWAY LABORER HELD UP CAMP AT POINT OF REVOLVER

(Special to Times) Fredericton, N. B., March 6.—A Russian railway navvy named Victor Alberts, is in jail here charged with attempting to hold up the employees of a construction camp at Kingsclear at the point of a revolver. It seems that Alberts appeared at the camp yesterday morning with his revolver and threatening a revolver demanding money. His demand was not complied with and the employees of the camp made a hasty exit. A watch was kept on the desperado and late in the afternoon he was captured by eight of his fellow workmen and disarmed. They brought him to this city and turned him over to the custody of the police. He was arraigned in the police court this morning and remanded until this afternoon.

Stefansson Plans Record Sled Trip

From Point Barrow To Prince Patrick Island

Mounted Police, With Despatches For Explorer, Set New Mark For Overland Trip—Brought Out Mail For All Parts of The World

(Canadian Press) Washington, D. C., March 6.—Vilhjalm Stefansson, the explorer who is now in the north, is planning the longest sled trip ever made, from Point Barrow, Alaska, to Prince Patrick Island, across the Canadian boundary line, practically 600 miles eastward, according to a letter received from Stefansson today by Gilbert H. Grosvenor, director of the National Geographical Society. When Stefansson's letter was written, he was on the ice of the steamer Karluk, and the schooner Mary Sachs, concerning the proposed sled trip, Stefansson's letter says: "It looks easy to me."
