Ground was broken yesterday for the new Methodist Church to be built on the Red Head road just below Little River. The building will be 28 by 45 feet and will cost $8,500.

At the closing meeting of the High School Alumni reading club, which was held last evening, each of the young ladies was dressed to represent a geographical name. Misses Rogers and Jamieson guessed twenty-eight of the fifty-four and each received a prize. Miss Harriet VanWart and George Morrissey contributed to the programme and music was furnished by Ralph Crawford.

$50.00 REWARD.

Still a mystery—Who Threw the Brick? Up to this afternoon no information has been received by Brager's of the whereabouts of the man who threw the brick through their window. The police have not taken the matter in hand, but quite an army of amateur detectives are making inquiries in the hope of receiving the substantial reward offered; information to be given to Brager's, clothing, 185 to 187 Union street, the store where you get ladies' and

A travelling bag was presented last evening by some of his friends to Louis McGloan, who has been employed in Weldon & McLean's office and who is going to Montreal to enter the office of his brother, Norman L. McGloan.

The housing survey of a section of Prince Ward has been completed and the information is being assembled to be turned over to the housing committee of the Board of Trade for use in preparing recommendations on housing reforms.
