How long have you been in the market,
Mr. Fenwick?
Six years last April.
You were there before Akerley's time? Liniment DO NOT ISSUE Relieves Pain A CHRISTMAS Yes. Did you pay anybody then for the space ou occupied? Aches and pains yield quickly to Father Morriscy's CATALOGUE Did you pay anyone else since? Yes. Liniment. It is absorbed Yes.
Who and when?
In May, 1907, I was moved to the stand I occupy now. Mr. Potts came to me and said he had taken the market very high and asked me if I could help him out a little every week.
What did you say?
Well, he left it to me, and asked if I thought I could give him $1 a week, and I gave it to him. quickly by the skin, and penetrates deep into the tissues, making it splendid Rev. Father Morriscy for sore muscles, stiff joints, rheumatic pains, backache, sore throat or lungs or any deep-seated pain.

It eases at once and heal surface hurts, such as cuts, bruises, burns, scales and frost-bites. Well, he said he had taken the market high and I suppose I'm a mark for anything that comes along. I guess they think me pretty easy. (Laughter.)
Did you get any additional privileges from Mr. Potts?

I had larger space, but Mr. Dunham gave it to me he and e r-ache it is an excellent remedy. For tooth-a Father Mor iscy's iniment is exceptionally good as a "rub" for athlees. It takes out stiffness and soreness after severe exercise, and never blisters the skin. And therefore you paid Mr. Potts?
I got no privileges from Mr. Potts.
Well, what did you pay for? Keep a bottle handy, for "There's ease in every drop". I don't know.

What do you think then. Had you an idea that the dollar was a lump sum for tolls? 25c. a bottle-at your dealer's. book, impletely illustrated, splendidly printed and by far the most important Catalogue ever issued by T. CHRISTMAS AND HOLIDAY GOODS No.
Did you fear that you might be interfered with? No. Had you any suspicion that you might No. I don't think so.

Well, at that time I suppose you did not know me very well. If I had gone to you and said that I was not making much and asked you for $1 a week, what would you have thought of me?

I think that if you had been in the market I would have given it. (Laughter.)

Well we will take another case,
If the blind man at the head of the market asked you for $1 a week would you give it?

If I thought he needed it I would.
Did you think Mr. Potts needed it?

Mr. Fenwick, what you say may be satisfactory to yourself but it is not to the committee.

If you think for a little while I'm sure you will have something more like an explanation in your mind.

Well, I understood others were giving it and I thought that I had a right to.
You understood who were giving it besides yourself?
I could not say.
Did you fear you might be moved?
No, not by Mr. Dunham or Mr. Potts.
Did you think that Mr. Potts had the right to move you?
No, I did not.
Did you think the dollar was paid as a lump sum for the tolls on the little stuff you brought in?
No, they wouldn't amount to that much.
Now, Mr. Fenwick, I am going to give you a last opportunity to say, if you will, why you paid that dollar to Mr. Potts.
Well, I supposed he had the power to take it from me or he would not have made the demand.

All this was in May 1908-09?
It continued all through the winter. I left January 1 and came back in April.

It was not sold.
This year, did you pay Roy Potts?
Yes, I paid him every Saturday. "Is that Windsor'Table Salt?"
"Yes, here is the Trademark" FOR IT TO-DAY TORONTO CANADA Ald. Vanwart

Ald. Vanwart then took the stand.
How long have you been chairman of the safety board?
Going on six years now.
When was your attention called to the fact that the lessee of the market tolls was selling space in the building?
I don't know that anybody ever called my attention to it.
I suppose that during the five years you have been chairman you have attended nearly all the meetings of the board?
Yes, nearly all.
At any of those meetings has the director ever made any report on the subject?
No. Mother told me to be sure and get Windsor Salt. It's the kind she always uses. Baby's Own Soap She says she could not keep house without her WINDSOR TABLE SALT Best for Baby tor ever made any report on the subject?
No.

Have there ever been any representations made either by the director or the deputy clerk about forestalling?
No. About three years ago I was written up in the papers about it.

When was it first brought to your attention that the lessee of the market was seing space in it?

Well, not more than a month ago I never inquired what they were doint. I don't think any of the lessees ever hade too much out of it.

Were there ever any representations made on the matter by officials to the board? To complete your Costume Best for You. As a matter of fact within the last three years, have any protests been made about forestalling?

Yes.

You would say no attempts have been made to enforce the law?

No, I think not.

What about the matter of smoking in the market?

I don't think the regulation against it is carried out.

In your opinion is the market kept clean?

I think so.

A curious thing was brought to my attention the other day. I was told that the aweepers who have no time to keep the rooms at the end of the building clean make money sometimes by skinning carcases.

Do you know anything about that?

Oyes, I think I have, they are not highly paid men and they might do it in their dinner hour.

Ald, Vanwart ave it as his opinion that the bye-law relating to forestalling could not be enforced. He suggested that a limit of one hour should be imposed instead of three. He did not think that anyone who brings stuff into the market should be allowed to buy more in the building with the purpose of retailing it again there. He protested that the inquiry was not in any way prompted by any feelings he might have against anyone. People had been urging him for the last six months or more to take the matter up. One of the points complained about most bitterly was the abuse of the retail trade in the building.

At the time he ordered Mr. Dounham to remove 'Mr. Allaby's show case from the market he had not explained that he had in the had in the time the had to think the law prompted by any feelings he might have against anyone.
