quently causes it to lie out of whole cloth Sir Charles Tupper did not condemn or repudiate Imperial Federation; on the contrary he expressed his hearly sym-pathy with the movement, but he de-clined to go so far as Mr. Gisberne in affirming that it was merally impossible that the present loose relations of the United Kingdom with the colonies could long co-exist with the integrity of the Empire. This statement was made by Mr. Gisborne in a paper read before the Royal Colonial Institute, and it was in the course of the discussion which fol-lowed the reading of the paper, that Sir Cherice There are more the ways, was Briefly stated it is this: Sir Charles Tupper is in entire sympathy with this great movement for the con-solidation of the Empire, and it has his is more than the does not in the subject for reflection, but it con-verys a valuable lesson. It shows that the wooden ship can no longer compete with the iron ship or the tramp steamer, in foreign trade, and that, if St. John in-tends to remain a great ship-powning port, it will be accessed to a consolidation of the Empire, and it mass its tends to remain a great sup-coving port, but he does not it will be necessary for our shipowners, believe that the empire will go to pieces either to build or purchase ships and steamers of iron and steel.
