

University Extension Lectures.

UNDER THE SUPERINTENDENCE OF MCGILL UNIVERSITY,
MONTREAL, AND BISHOP'S COLLEGE, LENNOXVILLE.

SESSION 1894-95.

The Joint Board of Representatives of McGill University and the University of Bishop's College is prepared to organize and superintend courses of Lectures and Classes in populous centres for English-speaking audiences in the Province of Quebec.

OBJECT.

The purpose of the Local Lectures is to provide the means of higher education for persons of all classes and of both sexes engaged in the regular occupations of life. To obtain this object, the Lectures will be organized upon the general lines which have been worked out successfully from twenty years' experience in England.

PLAN OF THE LECTURES.

In order to make the teaching at the same time attractive and thorough, a special method is followed.

1. The courses consist of ten weekly lectures, each lecture occupying an hour.
2. For about an hour preceding or following each lecture, a Class is held for those students who wish to study the subject more thoroughly. The teaching in the class is conversational, and its object is to enable the Lecturer to answer questions or solve difficulties which have occurred to students, and to give advice as to text-books and other means of studying the subject.
3. The ten Lectures and Classes, which may be given in the three months before or three months after Christmas, form a continuous course on one subject.
4. In order to enable Students to follow the lecture readily and to carry away the substance of it, a printed syllabus in pamphlet form is prepared beforehand by the Lecturer for the use of Students.
5. Questions (printed in the syllabus) are set upon each Lecture. Those who desire to answer the questions write their answers at home during the week, and forward them to the Lecturer for correction and comment.
