Whites and Indians a holding out for 25 cents a fish, while the Japs are selling at 20 cents. An average of 30 fish was taken by th Jap boats last night, so that canneries are fairly busy to-day.

The union men held meetings on Sat urday, when the 25 cent resolution was carried. The Japanese secretary was sent for but refused to come. Finally he was brought by force, and agreed that none of the Japs would go fishing to day. The white men were much incensed when the Japanese broke up the strike on Sunday night.
