

CITY NEWS.

Recent Events in and Around St. John.

Together With Country Items from Correspondents and Exchanges.

When ordering the address of your WEEKLY SUN to be changed, send the NAME of the POST OFFICE to which the paper is going as well as that of the office to which you wish it sent.

Remember! The NAME of the Post Office must be sent in all cases to ensure prompt compliance with your request.

THE SUN PRINTING COMPANY, issuing weekly 3,500 copies of THE WEEKLY SUN, challenges the circulation of all papers published in the Maritime Provinces. Advertisers, please make a note of this.

The wreck of the steamer Domyville in the Yukon river has been ordered to be removed, it being considered an impediment to navigation.

The clearings at the St. John clearing house for week ending Thursday, 27th July, 1896, were $809,904, corresponding week last year, $823,381.

Brother Veniot has received that custom house appointment yet, and his paper still carries with laudatory articles in Hon. Mr. Blair-Chatham World.

B. Mooney & Sons began work on the new Cushing pulp mill on Thursday. A very large gang of men has been put on, and every effort is being made to rush the work forward.

The rainfall so far for the present month has been nearly seven and a half inches. Last year for the month of July the total fall was about three inches, which is about the average for that month.

Alfred Clark of Penniac, York Co., died very suddenly of heart failure while visiting friends at Marysville on Thursday. He was 78 years of age and had resided with his son-in-law, Albert Clark of Penniac.

Rev. J. L. Gordon went to Bangor Saturday, where he will remain about four weeks. During his absence the pulpit of the Congregational church will be supplied by Rev. Messrs. Houghton, Hooke and McKinnon.

The D. R. R. at "Pine" Edward arrived from Boston about 10 o'clock Sunday morning with 140 passengers. The Edward made the run from Bangor to Edward in 11 hours and 20 minutes.

At Christ church, Bangor, yesterday, B. C. on Wednesday, July 18th, Rev. Canon Beaudin united in marriage Miss M. K. Reynolds of Halifax, N. S., and Miss Brenda Nickels, daughter of Captain John Nickels of Liverpool.

A Calais letter says: "Harold Gregory of St. Stephen, who left some time ago for Winnipeg, Manitoba, has secured a lucrative position there with his former employer, Mr. W. Wood. Ellen Harris of Calais, leaves on Wednesday to join her husband."

A. H. Hamilton and his daughter, Miss Alice Hamilton, are now touring through the Annapolis valley on their bicycles. They left Annapolis Thursday and have planned a very delightful trip to all the important points in central Nova Scotia.

Norman Woodworth, who went to the Klondike about a year ago, arrived in Moncton on Friday en route to his home in Albert Co. Mr. Woodworth, it is understood, says the Klondike was among the luckiest gold seekers and has made his pile.

While playing with giant fire crackers on Thursday night Alfred Lemon, a thirteen year old boy, had the thumb and two fingers of his left hand blown off. He received several severe injuries. Drs. Roberts and Ellis attended to the sufferer.

The body of John Runciman, who was drowned Thursday while attempting to board the Victoria at Oranmore, was recovered about 10 o'clock Friday morning, and was viewed by the coroner's jury and taken to Wesley station. The remains are slightly disfigured by the grappling hooks. Mr. Runciman and George Runciman went to Wesley Friday afternoon and brought the body down to the late train Friday night. The depot it was met by a delegation from the Knights of Pythias, of which the deceased was a member.

Word has been sent by the owners of the bark Malden City, which put into Bangor the other day in distress, to Rice & Co. of Boston, the owners of the cargo, that the vessel will not be repaired unless they undertake the job. The Malden City was bound from St. John to Buenos Ayres.

Says the Bangor Commercial: "Harry Card, aged 25 years, of St. John, N. B., was drowned Saturday morning, July 22, in the Androscoggin river at Riley's, while working on the logs in the sluiceway connected with the pulp mill. His body was shortly afterwards recovered."

Rev. A. J. Mowatt, of the Brackin church, Montreal, and formerly of Fredericton, preached at the service preparatory to communion in St. Stephen's church Friday night. His text was Exodus xlii: 12: "And when I see the blood I will pass over it." A good sized congregation was present.

It is said that a girl in Bathurst sat for hours out on the verandah the other night watching for one of those kissing bugs. After the old folks had retired one of them came along and stopped quite a while. He stood nearly six feet tall and wore a dark suit, with a bicycle cap—Bathurst Corner.

The barkentine Guldoo, of St. John, N. B., Capt. Charles, left the port yesterday in tow of steam tug Danville, for Quebec, where she will load a cargo of lumber for the government dockyard at Malta, under charter concluded through Petersen, Tate & Co., ship brokers, of this city—Montreal Herald, Thursday.

A. C. Smith of Carleton was painfully injured Friday morning near Sand Point. He was driving alone, when his horse, while at a loom, was thrown by a post. Mr. Smith was thrown heavily and his hip was quite badly bruised and strained. Dr. Wheeler is attending him.

M. Harley was an early visitor to Treadwell's lake Saturday morning, and he was well repaid for his trouble, for he landed two of the finest trout that have yet been taken there. One weighed 2 pounds 10 ounces and the other 1 pound and three quarters. Mr. Harley had considerable sport in landing his two beauties.

The New Brunswick Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals beg to acknowledge the receipt of $5 from C. F. Woodman; $4 from W. F. Hawthorne; $2 each from W. H. W. & J. J. M. Taylor, Daniel & Robertson, Geo. E. Fairweather, J. R. Ruel, E. L. Whitaker, Theodore H. Estabrooks, Smith & Thon, Dr. McAvaney and a friend; $1 from C. P. Clark.

At the organization meeting Saturday of the Linton Sinclair Co., Ltd., the following directors were elected: T. H. Wilson, R. A. Sinclair, T. A. Edgar, and J. M. Milligan. Afterwards the directors met and elected officers as follows: T. H. Wilson, president; R. A. Sinclair, vice-president; C. J. Milligan, secretary; and T. A. Edgar, treasurer.

Writing of what he saw and heard in the gallery of parliament recently, Chas. E. Knapp says: "Among them (the members) we recognized many familiar faces. One we had known when a mere boy; Sir Charles had since then added sixty years to his age. Many of his juniors look much older. No one can have seen him without being distinctly that those of any other member who looks."

The executors of the late W. W. Turnbull are now considering the formation of a provisional board to organize the home for incurables. It is likely the formation of this board will be announced in a few days, and the government will then be asked to hand over to them the Marysville Hospital, that necessary work can be undertaken to have the building ready for occupancy as soon as possible. At the next session of the legislature an act of incorporation of the trust will be asked.

Mrs. Prichard, widow of Captain Joseph Prichard, died Saturday morning at the residence of Philip Palmer, Hamilton, where she was visiting her daughter, Mrs. F. S. Whitaker. Mrs. Prichard, who had previously been attacked with paralysis, received an other serious stroke on Friday night, which resulted in her death. Her children are: Mrs. Edmund Smith of Halifax, Mrs. Fred S. Whitaker, Miss Lily Prichard and Miss Hattie Prichard, and Joseph Prichard, Jr., and Charles Prichard of Brookline.

An enquiry was received by a St. John firm yesterday from Montreal, asking for Barbados molasses. This market has none to spare. In fact very little is held here. The stock is chiefly of Porto Rico, which is not as great a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. S. Patterson, Elliott row, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The body was taken to St. John's church (Stones) for burial. The service was read by Rev. J. deSoyres. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall bearers. The remains were laid to rest at Fernhill, the interment being made in the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the St. John's church and was a native of St. John. He was a well known and popular man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. S. Patterson, Elliott row, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The body was taken to St. John's church (Stones) for burial. The service was read by Rev. J. deSoyres. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall bearers. The remains were laid to rest at Fernhill, the interment being made in the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the St. John's church and was a native of St. John. He was a well known and popular man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. S. Patterson, Elliott row, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The body was taken to St. John's church (Stones) for burial. The service was read by Rev. J. deSoyres. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall bearers. The remains were laid to rest at Fernhill, the interment being made in the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the St. John's church and was a native of St. John. He was a well known and popular man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. S. Patterson, Elliott row, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The body was taken to St. John's church (Stones) for burial. The service was read by Rev. J. deSoyres. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall bearers. The remains were laid to rest at Fernhill, the interment being made in the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the St. John's church and was a native of St. John. He was a well known and popular man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. S. Patterson, Elliott row, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The body was taken to St. John's church (Stones) for burial. The service was read by Rev. J. deSoyres. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall bearers. The remains were laid to rest at Fernhill, the interment being made in the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the St. John's church and was a native of St. John. He was a well known and popular man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. S. Patterson, Elliott row, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The body was taken to St. John's church (Stones) for burial. The service was read by Rev. J. deSoyres. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall bearers. The remains were laid to rest at Fernhill, the interment being made in the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the St. John's church and was a native of St. John. He was a well known and popular man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. S. Patterson, Elliott row, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The body was taken to St. John's church (Stones) for burial. The service was read by Rev. J. deSoyres. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall bearers. The remains were laid to rest at Fernhill, the interment being made in the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the St. John's church and was a native of St. John. He was a well known and popular man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. S. Patterson, Elliott row, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The body was taken to St. John's church (Stones) for burial. The service was read by Rev. J. deSoyres. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall bearers. The remains were laid to rest at Fernhill, the interment being made in the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the St. John's church and was a native of St. John. He was a well known and popular man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. S. Patterson, Elliott row, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The body was taken to St. John's church (Stones) for burial. The service was read by Rev. J. deSoyres. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall bearers. The remains were laid to rest at Fernhill, the interment being made in the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the St. John's church and was a native of St. John. He was a well known and popular man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. S. Patterson, Elliott row, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The body was taken to St. John's church (Stones) for burial. The service was read by Rev. J. deSoyres. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall bearers. The remains were laid to rest at Fernhill, the interment being made in the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the St. John's church and was a native of St. John. He was a well known and popular man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. S. Patterson, Elliott row, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The body was taken to St. John's church (Stones) for burial. The service was read by Rev. J. deSoyres. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall bearers. The remains were laid to rest at Fernhill, the interment being made in the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the St. John's church and was a native of St. John. He was a well known and popular man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. S. Patterson, Elliott row, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The body was taken to St. John's church (Stones) for burial. The service was read by Rev. J. deSoyres. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall bearers. The remains were laid to rest at Fernhill, the interment being made in the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the St. John's church and was a native of St. John. He was a well known and popular man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. S. Patterson, Elliott row, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The body was taken to St. John's church (Stones) for burial. The service was read by Rev. J. deSoyres. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall bearers. The remains were laid to rest at Fernhill, the interment being made in the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the St. John's church and was a native of St. John. He was a well known and popular man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. S. Patterson, Elliott row, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The body was taken to St. John's church (Stones) for burial. The service was read by Rev. J. deSoyres. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall bearers. The remains were laid to rest at Fernhill, the interment being made in the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the St. John's church and was a native of St. John. He was a well known and popular man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. S. Patterson, Elliott row, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The body was taken to St. John's church (Stones) for burial. The service was read by Rev. J. deSoyres. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall bearers. The remains were laid to rest at Fernhill, the interment being made in the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the St. John's church and was a native of St. John. He was a well known and popular man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. S. Patterson, Elliott row, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The body was taken to St. John's church (Stones) for burial. The service was read by Rev. J. deSoyres. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall bearers. The remains were laid to rest at Fernhill, the interment being made in the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the St. John's church and was a native of St. John. He was a well known and popular man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. S. Patterson, Elliott row, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The body was taken to St. John's church (Stones) for burial. The service was read by Rev. J. deSoyres. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall bearers. The remains were laid to rest at Fernhill, the interment being made in the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the St. John's church and was a native of St. John. He was a well known and popular man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. S. Patterson, Elliott row, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The body was taken to St. John's church (Stones) for burial. The service was read by Rev. J. deSoyres. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall bearers. The remains were laid to rest at Fernhill, the interment being made in the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the St. John's church and was a native of St. John. He was a well known and popular man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. S. Patterson, Elliott row, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The body was taken to St. John's church (Stones) for burial. The service was read by Rev. J. deSoyres. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall bearers. The remains were laid to rest at Fernhill, the interment being made in the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the St. John's church and was a native of St. John. He was a well known and popular man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. S. Patterson, Elliott row, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The body was taken to St. John's church (Stones) for burial. The service was read by Rev. J. deSoyres. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall bearers. The remains were laid to rest at Fernhill, the interment being made in the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the St. John's church and was a native of St. John. He was a well known and popular man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. S. Patterson, Elliott row, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The body was taken to St. John's church (Stones) for burial. The service was read by Rev. J. deSoyres. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall bearers. The remains were laid to rest at Fernhill, the interment being made in the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the St. John's church and was a native of St. John. He was a well known and popular man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. S. Patterson, Elliott row, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The body was taken to St. John's church (Stones) for burial. The service was read by Rev. J. deSoyres. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall bearers. The remains were laid to rest at Fernhill, the interment being made in the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the St. John's church and was a native of St. John. He was a well known and popular man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, C. S. Patterson, Elliott row, and was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased. The body was taken to St. John's church (Stones) for burial. The service was read by Rev. J. deSoyres. The six brothers of the deceased acted as pall bearers. The remains were laid to rest at Fernhill, the interment being made in the cemetery. The deceased was a member of the St. John's church and was a native of St. John. He was a well known and popular man, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was a favorite west as the Barbados product. But even of Porto Rico this market has none too much.

The funeral of the late Alexander C. Woodman of Westfield took place at three o'clock on Monday afternoon from his residence, Alvington Manor, the Rev. H. T. Parlee conducting the services at the house and at the grave side in the Woodman Point cemetery. The pall-bearers were: P. S. Tilson, Mont. McDonald, Henry Town, Capt. McCordock, Fred Nae and B. C. Barclay Boyd. The chief mourners were two nephews of the deceased, Arthur Woodman of Bathurst, and Chas. Woodman of St. John, and a large gathering of sorrowing friends and acquaintances attended the obsequies.

The funeral of the late Frank H. deForest took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of