

HONORS OF THE INSTITUTION.

Two courses of study have been established, a Classical and an English; and Diplomas will be given to those who satisfactorily complete either of them. The title of M. L. A., or Mistress of Liberal Arts, is given to the former, M. E. L., or Mistress of English Literature, to the latter. Certificates may be had by those who pass an examination in a partial course. Diplomas will be given to those who complete the course in Music.

A good moral standing is necessary in order to obtain either Certificate or Diploma.

BOARDING, ETC.

The Institution, as a home, is designed to be the abode of comfort and pleasant associations.

Rooms are carpeted and furnished throughout, so that the pupil requires nothing in addition. Napkins are not provided.

The provision for the table is wholesome and abundant.

GOVERNMENT.

It is intended that the government of the Institution shall be firm without being arbitrary; that it shall be founded upon confidence in the pupils, and that its tendency shall be to teach them self-control, obedience to principles, and a conscientious regard for right.

No young lady will be allowed to retain her connection with the school, whose example tends to encourage indolence or insubordination, or whose influence in other respects is injurious.

PRINCIPLES.

Truthfulness in opposition to pretence, patriotism, love of home, devotion to parents, simplicity, avoidance of heartlessness and display.

DRESS, ETC.

Every young lady must be provided with thick boots, umbrella and overshoes.

School-room dresses should be simple and inexpensive, with high necks and long sleeves.

Every article belonging to a student should be marked with her full name before leaving home.

Very little jewelry or spending money should be at her disposal.

Carelessness and the possibility of dishonesty in servants, etc., make it proper that all funds should be deposited with the officer appointed for that purpose.
