"It affords me much pleasure to recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. Wy son was afflicted with great pain in the joints, accompanied with swelling so bad that he could not get up stairs to bed without crawling on hands and knees. I was very anxious about him, and having read Hood's Sarsaparilla, I determined to try it, and got a half-dozen bottles, four of which entirely cured him." Mrs. G. A. LAKE, Cshawa, Ontario. N. B. Misery.

Women who are subject to head-aches, sudden faintness, despondency, nervous dread, fits of wild mirth or qually unnatural depression; flattering of the heart; who hear a roaring in the ears, and white specks floating before the eyes; woman who cannot bear noise, who are easily startled, who feel like laughing at one moment and crying the next; who teel in fact thit lite is little short of constant tortures; such women are simply suffering from extreme nerve exaustion.

The greatest skill of medicial science has been directed to the solution of the prob'em, How shall diseased nerves be made strong active and healthy? After years of carful study, the originator of Hawker's nerve and stomach, tonic presented his remedy to the public confident that he had produced one that would effect a complete cure of all diseases of the nervous system. The subsequent history of Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic has completely proved that he was right. Thousands upon thousands of men and women who were victims of 'hattered nerves have been by its agency restored to perfect health. Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic is a great blood and flesh builder as well as nerve restorer, invigorator and aid to digestion. It is a certain cure for diseases peculiar to women, giving tone to the nerves and stomach, vigor to the mind and body and strength to the blood, restoring the bloom of health to the pale and delicate.
