WOODSTOCK NEWS.

Woodstock, March 27.—Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Methosh, Horton Settlement, have moved to Kirkland to reside

There is a rumor that Thomas A. Greer, jr., who resided in Kirkland for a number of years, but later in Oakfield, Maine, got lost and perished in the woods at that place recently. If the rumor is correct he leaves a widow, who formerly was Miss Annie Saunders of Eel River Lake, and four young children.

Mrs. Wm. Benn, of Kirkland, recently fell on the ice and broke her arm. Mrs. M. Bunting and little daughter Effie, of Kirkland, have been on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Graham, of Smyrna Mills, Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Eber Tompkins, who were visiting at Kirkland, have return det to their fome in Stickney, N. B. John Lenehan, McAdam, has been visiting friends here.

The funeral services for Mrs. Fred Stewart of Centreville were held in the Methodist church there on Saturday. Rev H. iPerce preached an impressive sermon from James 4: 14.

Mrs. Stewart was formerly Miss Besses Smith, of Pioneer, N. B.

C. A. McBride of Pioneer was in town today from a business trip to Biggar Ridge, Foreston, Argyle, Glassville, Bristol and Florenceville. He says that large piles of sleepers are along the right of way from Woodstock to Centreville all ready for the Valley Railway.

HORSE CLIPPING

It might be well to point out to lovers of the dramatic art that a real treat will surely be missed if one fails to see the wonderful Sarah Bernhardt in her animated portrayal of Dumas Camille at the Opera House. But two more days remain in which to see the greatest actress in the world and considering the fact that the prices are the same as those charged for the ordinary dramatic show, none should allow this feature go by without seeing it. Matinee today at 2.30. ELECTRIC CLIPPING—Horses clipped and groomed while you wait at Short's Stable, Union Street. Only electric clipper in the city.
