

JOHN BODEN PASSED AWAY YESTERDAY

St. John Man Who Made Name and Fame in New York.

JOURNALIST, POLITICIAN AND TURFMAN.

At one Time Law Partner of Judge Carleton and Member of Staff of Local Newspapers.

New York, Aug. 24.—John Boden, a widely known newspaper man and horseman of this city, died today at his brother's home in Spring Valley, N. Y., after a long illness. He was 52 years old, and was born in St. John, N. B., where he became a lawyer and politician, and was a pioneer in agitating the cause of labor in the Dominion and was one of the first labor candidates, but withdrew to secure the election of C. N. Skinner, in whose office he had studied law.

Mr. Boden became reporter of the New Brunswick Legislature and later joined the staff of the St. John Daily Telegraph.

He came to New York in 1887 and joined the staff of the Press, where he became a political writer, and for several years was that paper's Albany correspondent. He also was sporting editor of the Press, and left to go to the old Morning Advertiser. He left after staying two years, to return to the Press as managing editor.

When the State Rating Commission was organized Mr. Boden was appointed its secretary by Governor Morton. He held that position until rating was abolished. He owned some racing horses and besides was official handicapper of the Canadian tracks. He was forced to withdraw from active newspaper work through ill-health some months ago.

Mr. Boden was a member of the St. John Standard and gained distinction in journalism in New York.

A telegram received by Mrs. D. Colgan, Rockland Road, aunt of the deceased, stated that Mr. Boden had died at four o'clock yesterday morning. Death was caused by a rupture of the throat.

Born in St. John 52 years ago Mr. Boden received his primary education at the public schools. Pursuing his studies he attended St. Joseph's University and received his B. A. degree from that institution in the same year as his Lordship Bishop Casey, Rev. Father Walsh and Judge Carleton.

Some time after his graduation from St. Joseph's Mr. Boden studied law and was associated with Judge Carleton in the law firm of Carleton & Boden. Later he went to New York.

John Boden was a son of James Boden, who was born in Ireland, but migrated to this country. He is survived by a mother and two brothers, none of whom are living in this city.

MR. CARNEGIE AN AMERICAN.

ANDREW CARNEGIE.

Andrew Carnegie is an American citizen by virtue of naturalization papers obtained by his father while Andrew was a minor.

The elder Carnegie came to Pittsburgh when Andrew was twelve years old. Seven years later he became a naturalized American citizen. The son being only nineteen years old required no naturalization to obtain the full rights of citizenship.

Andrew Carnegie voted in Pittsburgh for years and took an active part in politics there. Among his cherished possessions are his father's naturalization papers. He has often expressed pride in being an American.

MINISTER UPHOLDS SASKATOON BUGLER

Hon. Sam Hughes Believes Flag Incident Although Indiscreet Shows Proper Spirit—Ladies Had No Right to Flaunt Emblem of Republic in Faces of Regiment.

Ottawa, Aug. 24.—The action of the officer commanding the 5th Fusiliers of Saskatoon, in dismissing Bugler Hill for resenting the flaunting of the American flag by a woman on July 31 has not been sustained by the Minister of Militia and Defence, who maintains that the evidence asked for and submitted does not warrant his dismissal from the service on that account.

After the incident had occurred Adjutant General, Col. Victor Williams wired Colonel Steel, D. O. C., of Winnipeg, to ascertain carefully if the bugler had been provoked to such action. If the action of the officer commanding the regiment in dismissing Hill was conclusive and fair to all parties and if the evidence of the bugler and others who had witnessed the incident had been taken with consideration.

Lt. Col. Smith, commander of the Saskatoon Fusiliers, after enquiry reported that an automobile which ran alongside the regiment in the streets contained two ladies. One of them nearest the regiment flaunted an American flag in the faces of the buglers. Bugler Hill broke from the ranks, snatched the flag from the lady, took it up and trampled it under foot. On the return of the regiment to the armory Col. Smith had Bugler Hill brought before him. He investigated the case and felt satisfied that it was a case of thoughtlessness on the part of the lady. Col. Smith then notified Hill that such conduct would not be allowed and ordered that it be not repeated. Hill declined to apologize and Col. Smith ordered his discharge from the regiment and called for confirmation from Col. Sam Hughes.

The Minister of Militia, in declining to sustain the dismissal, stated that the evidence was too flimsy. He maintained that the flag should not have been flaunted in the face of the soldiers, for such would provoke any man of proper spirit. When the emblem of a nation was put improperly to such use as the insulting of the soldiers of another nation, it ceased to be a national emblem.

While the Minister agreed that Bugler Hill's action may have been indiscreet, the whole thing depended upon the distance the American flag was from the regiment and how much the soldiers were taunted. The conclusion of the evidence submitted, the Minister stated, did not warrant Hill's dismissal from the service.

SAYS TURKS WILL RETAIN BULGARIAN PROSPECT OF MEXICO-U.S. TROUBLE NOW

Great Powers Have Been Unable to Agree to Plan of Coercion—Vivid Story from War Zone.

London, August 24.—The Vienna correspondent of the Daily Mail declares that the powers have been unable to agree on any plan to coerce Turkey. France opposes any financial pressure, while Germany objects to moral pressure. Neither Austria nor Russia appears inclined to assist Bulgaria, and there is little doubt, according to this correspondent, that Turkey will retain Adrianople.

London, August 25.—The Bullfinch Porte has opened direct negotiations with the Bulgarian delegate, M. Nohovitch, who has remained in Constantinople since he went there at the outbreak of the second war to negotiate an understanding with Turkey. It is understood that the Porte has made firm with regard to Adrianople and Kirk Killise, but is prepared to make concessions in other quarters.

Pierre Loti, the French writer, under Constantinople date, sends to the Daily Telegraph a vivid story of his impressions on visiting Adrianople and the surrounding districts. Loti says:

"The Bulgarians have made of Thrace a desert surpassing in abomination everything I had been told and that I imagine. With what fury these Christian liberators worked in order to accomplish so much destruction in a few months." He describes orgies and massacres, "violation and desertion in all the Turkish villages and asserts that Adrianople itself only escaped by a miracle because the Turks arrived a day earlier than was expected and so defeated the Bulgarians' plans for a similar massacre there.

Loti confirms the story of several thousand Turkish prisoners being herded on an island and there allowed to starve to death by the Bulgarians, those who survived starvation being massacred, and protests in the strongest terms against Europe permitting Adrianople to be handed back to the Bulgarians. He says to do so would be a crime, and expresses the belief that the Russians have been misled, and that when they know all the monstrous truth they will realize that to take up the cause of this small, deceitful and ferocious people, this opponent of the great slave family would be to soil their history with an indelible stain.

STRATHCONA WILL RESIGN, THE REPORT

Aged Canadian Peer Unexpectedly Leaves London.

GOVERNMENT NOT AWARE THAT HE WILL RETIRE.

Nothing Will Be Known Until Lord Strathcona Himself Makes Statement—Six Men Mentioned as His Successor.

Ottawa, Aug. 24.—The news that Lord Strathcona had sailed for Canada, unexpectedly left revived the speculation in political circles that the High Commissioner intends to resign. Cabinet ministers who are in Ottawa deny all knowledge of Lord Strathcona's intentions, while Premier Borden, with whom the High Commissioner would, naturally, deal, is out of the city, having left last night for Toronto where he opens on Monday the Toronto exhibition.

There has been talk of Lord Strathcona's resignation for years, and yet despite his ninety odd years he has continued energetically to represent Canada in London. When Premier Borden took office he made a special trip to Ottawa and offered his resignation to the new first minister. Mr. Borden personally requested him to continue in the office which he has filled with such honor for so many years.

While nothing is known at the capital of Lord Strathcona's intention it is the general belief that he is coming to Ottawa to consult with the government in regard to a number of important questions of which his resignation may be one. It can be stated definitely, however, that his resignation is not in the hands of the government.

A number of names are prominently mentioned as possible successors to Lord Strathcona. However, it is all a matter of rumor and will be until Lord Strathcona's intentions are definitely learned.

Six names are mentioned for the High Commissioner's office. They are: Hon. Clifford Sifton, Sir Hugh Graham, Sir Edmund Oster, Sir Edmund Walker, Sir Richard McBride and Sir Rodmond Roblin. All of these men are outstanding Canadians and any of them would admirably fill the post.

In addition to the question of his retirement it is understood that Lord Strathcona will take up with the government the question of a new Canadian building in London. The present quarters are crowded and inadequate and it is becoming imperative that the Dominion should have a structure, premier overseas dominion. The government had the matter under consideration for some time and there is a million dollars in the estimates for the work.

Through Lord Strathcona's efforts an option on a suitable site was secured a year ago, but it was lost through premature publication of the plans.

Present the government has before it the scheme of Earl Grey, who is for all the overseas dominions to co-operate in erecting a new Canadian building to house all the offices under one roof.

A syndicate of prominent men, interested in the Lawrence ports, will make Halifax a port of call. The new liners Andania and Araucan, launched this year, will call at Halifax during the coming winter season.

WELL-KNOWN ENGINEER DEAD.

THAW CASE MAY LAST FOR SEVERAL WEEKS

Little Doubt Now that if Thaw is Deported Vermont Will be State to Receive Him—Habeas Corpus Hearing Will Come up on Wednesday—Prisoner Not Worrying.

Sherbrooke, Aug. 24.—Harry K. Thaw, reconciled with his Canadian lawyers to the procedure to be followed on Wednesday next when, according to present plans, he will be arrested in the superior court on a writ of Habeas Corpus, announced tonight that no matter if William Travers Jerome did not take charge of New York State's case he (Thaw) was not fearful of the outcome.

"I faced the death chair twice," said Thaw. "Why should I worry about going back to Matteawan?"

Mr. Jerome had not reached here this evening and in the absence of Franklin Kennedy, deputy attorney general in charge of the New York forces, no statement could be obtained as to the time of his arrival. E. A. Conger, District Attorney at Albany, said he heard Jerome was coming by motor, but that he had not been told any more than this.

On the Thaw side, the arrival here of Roger O'Mara was just as indefinite. Today Thaw himself said he had not summoned the Pittsburgh general in charge of the New York forces, but that he was waiting for a request for a list of the leading newspapers of that state.

"I may have some important statements to give them," he said.

Having found it useless to argue with them, Thaw's lawyers, headed by J. N. Greenhalgh, K. C. of Montreal, brought about a truce in the breach that for a time threatened by agreeing to let Thaw manage the "publicity" end of his case.

To Thaw this end has become predominant. He has been told that he is likely to be deported to Vermont after the immigration authorities take him into custody, and tonight he made a request for a list of the leading newspapers of that state.

"I may have some important statements to give them," he said.

THAW CASE MAY LAST FOR SEVERAL WEEKS

Little Doubt Now that if Thaw is Deported Vermont Will be State to Receive Him—Habeas Corpus Hearing Will Come up on Wednesday—Prisoner Not Worrying.

Everybody in town, even those going to church, had Thaw's case on their lips, and tonight the Rev. George McIntosh of the Sherbrooke Methodist church, referred briefly from the pulpit to the fugitive.

"It is to be hoped that our Canadian courts will maintain their high reputation for integrity, in disposing of the case of Harry K. Thaw." He said public opinion in Canada demands that justice be done, without a suggestion of any corrupting influences. Sentiment seems to be growing among some of our people that the poor fellow has suffered enough. Others—the better informed—feel that sympathy and justice must remain distinct."

Thaw laughed at the recurring rumors that attempts would be made to kidnap him. "The whole trouble is," he exclaimed, "that they send a guard up to watch me every time I have a caller. This keeps them trotting up and down stairs and disorganizing the jail equipment."

Have you seen Roger Thompson since his arrest? Thaw was asked.

"Thompson who?" he evaded.

"Was he a good chauffeur?" an interviewer insisted.

"I told you my lawyers found me reasonable," said Thaw, rising and gestulating with a cigar stump. "I answered any such question as that it would not be very reasonable, would it? I retained counsel for Thompson because he is a British subject, wrongly involved in my case. They tell me he was born in Toronto."

"Gentleman Roger" in another cell had no statement to make except "I've admitted that I'm Roger Thompson, but that I drove Thaw in a car when he escaped. That's all I'm going to admit. They have got a lawyer for me now and things look better."

WILL CHOOSE HIM AT ONCE.

Ottawa, Ont., August 23.—E. Blake Robertson, assistant superintendent of immigration, who returned from Sherbrooke Saturday, where he had been in connection with the Thaw case, reported to Hon. C. J. Doherty, Minister of Justice and Acting Minister of the Interior, that matters are temporarily at a standstill and will likely remain so until Wednesday, when it is expected the habeas corpus proceedings will terminate. In Mr. Robertson's opinion matters will move more swiftly.

It is the intention of the department, he said, to see that the fugitive immediately leaves the country.

ARRESTED FOR THEFT OF FOXES

Fortune Cove, P.E.I. Man, Captured in Portland, Me., for Robbery—Stole Foxes Valued at $18,000.

Portland, Me., August 23.—Lemuel Coughtin, formerly of Fortune Cove, P. E. I., was arrested here tonight by the local police, charged with being concerned in the robbery of valuable breeding foxes from a farm at Summerside in that island.

The arrest was made at the request of Charles Black, an officer of Prince Edward Island, who came here with a warrant for Coughtin's arrest. According to the officer that prisoner is believed to have been connected with a gang of men who have been stealing foxes from the island farms for some time. The specific charge against him is that of stealing two black foxes said to be worth $18,000. Most of the foxes stolen have been recovered, but the pair named are still missing.

Coughtin engaged counsel and will fight extradition. He was committed to the police station for the night. He has been employed at the Union railway station since coming to this city.

JUDGE LANDRY WEAK, BUT HOPE NOT GONE

Moncton, August 24.—A report from Dorchester this evening states that some of the reports in regard to Judge Landry's case have been exaggerated. DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE

E. E. McCall is New York Mayor or Possibility.

TAMMANY LEADERS WERE UNANIMOUS.

Mayor Gaynor Probably Nominated by Gaynor League With Independent Ticket of His Own.

New York, August 23.—Edward E. McCall, chairman of the public service commission, was tonight designated as the Democratic candidate by the Democratic city committee.

McCall's selection by the 630 delegates as leader of the Tammany forces was unanimous, as had been forecasted since it appeared from yesterday's announcements that the Tammany leaders had decided not to renominate Mayor Gaynor and that he would be nominated by the Gaynor league, with a complete independent city ticket of its own.

Herman A. Metz was unanimously designated for controller. Mr. Metz held this office during Mayor McClellan's second term. Congressman Joseph A. Goulden, was unanimously selected for president of the board of aldermen.

The main planks of the platform are:

A declaration for rigid economy in municipal administration.

An endorsement of the present subway policy of extension.

Home rule, as against "interference by the state in legislation.

Equal tax assessments to relieve the burden of small owners and rent payers.

To promote the supremacy of New York city as a port.

To receive from police supervision the suppression of gambling, disorderly houses and kindred vices.

The part of the platform regarding the police situation was quite generally taken as an endorsement of the work of District Attorney Whitman, and the talk that he would be endorsed by Tammy was at once revived with added strength.

The county committee, which will designate a candidate for district attorney, meets next week.

The taking of evidence by the Dominion Royal Commission has completed all the Dominion now with the exception of Canada and South Africa.

Owing to the change of government and the unsettled state of affairs in Australia, Mr. Foster states that he expects to make as good progress as he expected in the matter of trade relations between Canada and Australia. When conditions become settled, in his opinion, closer relations can be arranged.
