THIS DATE IN RING ANNALS

- 1901—Tommy Sullivan defeated Billy Barrett in rounds at Hartford, Conn. Barrett was disqualified. Sullivan was then a prominent runner-up in the featherweight division which was headed by Terry McGovern as champion, and included at that time such great little men as Kid Broad, Dave Sullivan, Jack McEneaney, Eddie Gardner, Oscar Gardner, Arthur Rice, Hugh McPadden, George Gardner, Solly Smith, Young Corbett and George Dixon. Dave Sullivan, Solly Smith and Dixon were ex-champions. Later in that year, at Hartford, the title changed hands. Young Corbett defeated McGovern. Tommy Sullivan, who whipped Barrett in the first mentioned Hartford battle, succeeded Young Corbett as champion of the division in 1904 and held the title about four years.
- 1902—Jack O'Brien defeated Charley McKeever in 6 rounds at Philadelphia.
- 1911—Billy Papke knocked out Dave Smith in 7th round at Sydney.

O'BRIEN UNCERTAIN.

"Buck" O'Brien, who is the "property" of the Oakland club but who hasn't decided as yet whether or not he will stick in organized baseball or jump to the Federal, from whom he has received a flattering offer, will set forth for Hot Springs, Ark., with a party of friends on the 10:30 train this morning.

O'Brien will stay at the Arkansas camp for a couple of weeks and will work out with his old friend Bill Carigan each day. Will at Hot Springs Buck will make up his mind about his ultimate destination. He doesn't want to return to the Oakland club and if Manager Devlin can fix up some deal whereby O'Brien's services can be transferred to the Montreal club, the chances are the Brockton spittballer will stay inside the fold. Otherwise he will shine on the Gilmore circuit this season.

Accompanying O'Brien will be Dan Howley, the Montreal catcher; Mike Burns, Charles Garland, Al Brady, Dan Shaughnessy, Billy Bryant and John H. Moran.

IF COX HAS EARL, JR.

If Earl, Jr., 2:01-1/2, becomes a member of Walter Cox's 1914 racing stable, as rumored, the New Hampshire renege will have a candidate for the free-wheel racing which will have to be reckoned with. Cox saw his former breed winner race last season and was of the opinion that the gray warrior had lost some of the dash which made him such a dreadful opponent when he carried the Cox colors; still he may yet have it and he must have it, before Walter will take on the gray fellow again, because this year's free-wheel among the sidewheelers promises to be the greatest ever known, with two of the best on each side.

If Earl, Jr., goes down the big line with Cox behind him there will be something doing for the French coach, Jr., French driver, French man, French horse, French team, French rest of the brilliant bunch comprising the ultra-strict of the party.

WHO WILL MEET THE CHAMPION?

New York, Mar. 10.—The second series of international wrestling bouts to select a challenger to meet Frank Gotch for the championship title was held at Madison Square Garden tonight. The most important match was between Zbyszko of Poland and Tom Jenkins of America, instructor of wrestling at the Military Academy at West Point. Zbyszko threw Jenkins with a back hammerlock and neck hold in twenty-seven minutes and thirty-two seconds. Jenkins' shoulder was wrenched by the hold and a physician was called to attend him.

Hjalma Undine of Sweden threw Hans Lieber of Germany in seventeen minutes and four seconds with a leg-hold and flying fall.

KILBANE NOT ABLE TO FIGHT

Cleveland, O., March 10.—Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion, tonight decided to call off his matches with Johnny Dundee of New York at Philadelphia March 18, and Charlie White of Chicago at Milwaukee later in the month. He is suffering from the grippe and will not be able to fight again until some time in April, when he has promised to appear before a Philadelphia club.

GEERS' HARD LUCK

The latest piece of news to cause a sensation in trotting horse circles is the failure of the Mercantile Bank of Memphis, Tenn. Frank G. Jones, millionaire horseman, owner of Dodge Archdale, Anvil, 2:03 3/4, Etawah (3), 2:07 1/2, etc., was one of the directors of the bank and a heavy stockholder. E. P. Geers, who trains Mr. Jones' horses, was also caught in the failure and his some $20,000 swept away. This was part of a nest egg that Geers had laid away for old age, as he is now in his sixty-second year and may not be seen many seasons longer in the sulky. As soon as the defalcation became known, Mrs. Geers was taken suddenly ill from the shock of the loss of the money. Harness horse circles in Memphis are buzzing with talk of this great bank crash, as some $1,000,000 is involved. It is said that Wall Street got the money.

In Memoriam.

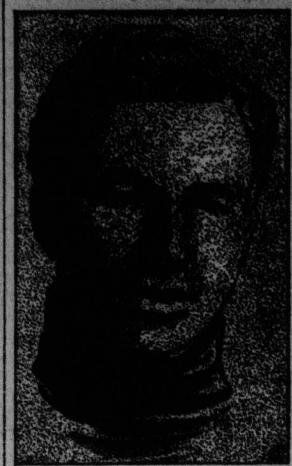

"My word, Jacob," said Steinberg, "that is a beautiful diamond you have in your pin. How much did it cost?"

"I paid $1,000," replied Jacob.

"One thousand dollars? Good gracious!" exclaimed Steinberg. "Why, I did not know you were worth so much money."

"Well, you see," exclaimed Jacob, "my old man died and he left $1,000 for a stone to be erected to his memory, and this is the stone."—Kansas City Star.

DAVE SMITH, Australian Boxer, Sought to Emulate Bob Fitz.

Dave Smith, the Australian middleweight, was born in New Zealand, where Robert Fitzsimmons began his pugilistic career. He fought his first important bouts in Sydney, Australia, just like Ruby Robert. He is a middleweight, the division in which the freckled fellow first won fame. Up to three years ago today, March 11, 1911, Smith was convinced that he was going to follow in the footsteps of Lanky Bob. On the night of that day he changed his mind, and erased "middleweight champion of the world" from his professional cards. Billy Papke, of Illinois, assisting at the obsequies.

Smith was born in Danedun, New Zealand, in 1886, and was twenty-two when he began to make a name for himself as a boxer by whipping Billy McCall, Albert Scanlon, Jack Blackmore, Starlight, Rauli Burns, Pat O'Keefe, Arthur Cripps and Ted Whiting. In the latter part of 1910, when Billy Papke was fighting in Australia, Smith was matched with him and landed one of those punches that had made him famous, a wallop to the jaw that sent Smith down for the full count.

Smith again looked like a comer in 1912, when he defeated Jack Lester and Cyclone Johnny Thompson, and fought a draw with Jimmy Clabby, but Eddie McGoorty arrived on the scene and put a kibosh on Smith's aspirations.

COLLAPSE OF TOWER HALTS WORK ON NEW FEDERAL BALL GROUNDS

HOUSE OF COMMONS VOTES DOWN CENSURE OF LLOYD GEORGE

London, March 10.—The House of Commons tonight by a vote of 304 to 240 refused to pass what virtually was a vote of censure of David Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer. The resolution was proposed by Sir John Randles, Unionist member for Manchester, Northwest, who moved that "the House contemplates with regret the repeated inaccuracy of the Chancellor of the Exchequer and his gross and unfounded attacks upon individuals."

As brought out in the debate the individuals chiefly concerned in the resolution are titled Conservative land-owners, with whom Mr. Lloyd George got into controversy in his last campaign speeches.

TY COBB SIGNS WITH DETROIT CLUB

Detroit, Mar. 10.—Tyrus Raymond Cobb, the Detroit centre fielder, has signed a Detroit contract for two years and with Crawford in the fold, lifted a heavy burden off the shoulders of Pres. Navin.

Mr. Navin reached Detroit from New York and met with a pleasant surprise in the form of Cobb's contract, which reached the club's offices Saturday. With the document was a letter informing Mr. Navin that Cobb would report to Manager Jennings in New Orleans Saturday.

Mr. Navin did not make public the terms, but declared that the star will be the best-paid ball player in the history of the game.

"Does that go for Speaker, too," was asked.

"It does," replied the Tiger boss. "That stuff in the papers about Speaker getting the biggest salary paid in baseball under his new contract, is not true. Cobb's contract calls for the biggest salary in the game."

PRES. McLEOD AWARDS THE CHAMPIONSHIP

March 10, 1914.

To the Sporting Editor of The Standard.

The last game on the schedule of the Interprovincial Hockey League was played at Amherst on Saturday night last between St. John and Amherst and resulted in a win for Amherst, thus leaving Sussex and Amherst tie for the championship, each having won eight games and lost four.

Amherst has refused to play off the tie, therefore I have awarded the championship of the league to the Sussex team.

Yours truly, W. E. McLEOD, Pres. of Interprovincial League.
