GAGETOWN

Gagetown, Aug. 24.—That Capt. M. A.
Scovill must be here before the end of the year was the welcome message received from him this week. In a letter written to his home at Meadowlands, from the town in Holland, where he is now interned, Capt. Scovill stated that the officers who had been transferred to Holland would be repatriated within the next few months, and he is hoping that by December he will be on leave in Canada. At present Capt.
Scovill is pleasantly situated with a fellow-officer at a quiet country inn near a Dutch town on the coast.

The Red Cross meeting held on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J.
R. Caswell, the one of the most interesting and largely attended of the season.
The delightful weather prevailed and on the veranda and lawn were groups of workers, who late in the afternoon enjoyed light refreshments served by the Misses Marion and Frances Caswell, assisted by Miss Arthura Babbitt, by which a good sum was added to the Red Cross fund. The president, Miss Pearl Peters, announced that the Board of Trade, which has now dissolved, had contributed to its remaining funds to the Red Cross. The $11.88 remaining was given to Miss Molly Oddy, to be used in sending comforts to the army.
C. M. R. L. Oddy having been an interested member of the Board of Trade before his enlistment.

The July contributions to the Prisoners of War Fund, sent to St. John recently through Mrs. T. Sherman Peters, amounted to $7.00.

On Saturday evening a business meeting of the Gagetown Fire Brigade was held in the Temperance Hall to conclude the business in connection with the annual firemen's picnic which was held, most successfully, a few weeks ago. John R. Dunn presided, in the absence of the fire chief, Deputy Sheriff A. J. Sutherland.

The meeting passed a resolution renewing the picnic for next year, and read a full and very satisfactory report of the finances of the picnic, showing the net proceeds to be $274.13. Of this sum, $48.33 was handed over to Miss Nellie M. Bulyea for the Soldiers' Comfort Association, and $68.53 to Miss Molly Oddy, secretary treasurer of the Red Cross.

The meeting passed a resolution of thanks to Mr. Harry Warwick of O. H. Warwick & Co., whose generous donation of a silver plate brought in $30.45 to the funds. It was decided to purchase a hundred feet of new hose, and have the engine thoroughly repaired, the latter work being under the supervision of Fred L. Corey.

Intense indignation and horror is expressed on all sides by Gagetown people at the revolting crime committed by Michael Bear, the Indian now in Gagetown jail, on the body of the assaulting little Dorothy Cox, of Gorham's Wharf. Bear was brought into Gagetown about eleven o'clock on Sunday morning, having been captured from Hampstead in a car, in charge of Sheriff J. F. Peck, Constable George McKay and William C. Belyea. The shot which was fired at the boy did more than penetrate the skin, and was easily rubbed out by Dr. J. A. Caswell, who examined him. Many expressed the wish that the shot had hit a deeper and more painful place. The prisoner, who was placed in one of the dungeon cells, appeared quite unconcerned over his crime. His statement was that he had been drinking "bee beer" is considered a mere attempt to evade the consequences of his crime, as he did not appear to have been drinking when captured. Bear is a young man of twenty and of rather good appearance.

The sidewalks, which have been in very bad condition since early spring, have been undergoing thorough repairs during the past week under the supervision of road commissioner, Jarvis Boyd. New sidewalks have been laid throughout the greater part of the front street, and the drains and culverts are now receiving attention.

A severe frost visited the outlying districts on Sunday night and did considerable damage to buckwheat and other crops. On Grand Lake more harm was done than on this side of the river.

Sergeant and Mrs. Abner M. Belyea, little Miss Aileen and Master Allen Belyea and Mrs. Belyea's sister, Miss Albena, have returned to St. John, after spending the week with Mr. and Mrs.
William Belyea.

and Mrs. Bradford Currier, of Upper Gagetown, left on Tuesday for Montreal, where she will enter on the nurse's training course at the Royal General Hospital. Miss Currier's
