

persisted in after admonition by the Professor, shall be reported to the Dean of Faculty, who may reprimand the student, or refer to the Faculty, as he may think proper. He may also suspend from classes until the next meeting of the Faculty.

3. The number of times of absence, from necessity or duty, that shall disqualify for the keeping of a Session, shall in each case be determined by the Faculty.

4. While in the College, or going to and from it, Students are expected to conduct themselves in the same orderly manner as in the Class-rooms. Any Professor observing improper conduct in the College building or grounds, may admonish the student, and if necessary report him to the Dean.

5. Every student is required to attend regularly the religious services of the denomination to which he belongs, and to maintain without, as well as within the walls of the College a good moral character.

6. When Students are brought before the Faculty under the above rules, the Faculty may reprimand, report to parents or guardians, disqualify from competing for prizes and honours, suspend from Classes, or report to the Corporation for expulsion.

7. Any Student injuring the furniture or building, will be required to repair the same at his own expense, and will in addition, be subject to such other penalty as the Faculty may see fit to inflict.

8. All cases of discipline involving the interests of more than one Faculty, or of the University in general, shall be immediately reported to the Principal, or, in his absence, to the Vice-Principal.

§ VIII. LIBRARY AND MUSEUM.

1. The books in the Library consist of two divisions:—1st, those which may be lent: 2nd, those designated by the general term "Books of Reference," which may not, under any circumstances, be removed from the Library.

2. Students may borrow books from the Library, on depositing the sum of four dollars with the Librarian, and signing a receipt for the books: such deposit to be returned to the Student on his returning the books uninjured.

3. Students may borrow not more than three volumes at one time except on special recommendation of a Professor, and must return them within two weeks, on penalty of a fine of one shilling for the first week of detention, and two shillings and six-pence for each subsequent week.

4. A Student incurring a fine will be debarred the use of the Library, until the fine has been paid.

5. Any volume or volumes lost or damaged by a student, shall be paid for by him, at such rates as the Faculty may direct, having reference to the value of the book and of the set to which it may belong.
