

The spiritual, as well as the temporal interests of those around us have not been overlooked; and we have humbly endeavoured to lead the careless and unawakened to wait upon the ordinances of Religion, and improve their Day of Grace.

It is peculiarly encouraging, and calls for grateful acknowledgment, that the Funds of the District Society have not diminished since our last Report, and we would affectionately congratulate the Rich and the Poor on the support it has received, and the good, which under the Divine Blessing, has been effected. To that Gracious Being, who has the hearts of all in His hands, and who only can dispose us to devote a part of our worldly substance, in the relief of the deserving Poor, be ascribed all the Praise.

Increasing observation and experience convince us more and more powerfully of the necessity and benefit of the District Visiting Society, as the organ of communication with the Poor, and the least exceptionable mode of dispensing charity. Whilst therefore we would again recommend it to the cordial support of all who feel it a duty and privilege to relieve the sick and needy, we would commend it to the Blessing of God, and pray that the hearts of many may be enlarged to contribute freely towards St. George's District Visiting Society.

R. F. UNIACKE, Secretary.

THOMAS MAYNARD, Treasurer.

N. B. The Visitor who leaves this Report will call, and thankfully receive the smallest contribution.
