

contact, the organizers would appreciate any assistance they can get. Please contact:

Cpl. Randy Herman
Port Coquitlam CP/VS Section
British Columbia

Fax: (604) 462-9220
or (604) 941-1786

LOOKING FOR PEN PAL Police officer from New South Wales, stationed at Sydney, Australia, would like to correspond with members of the RCMP, in the hopes of swapping ideas about policing practices to gain a fresh perspective. He would also like to find out how to get an RCMP T-shirt.

Mr. C. Elliott
Unit 4
15 Huddart Avenue
Normanhurst
New South Wales
Australia 2076

LOOKING FOR MEDALS The undersigned is a collector of RCMP memorabilia and would like to purchase United Nations-RCMP Medals (Namibia and former Yugoslavia).

Cst. J.W.G. Rose
Deas Island Detachment
P.B. 159
Delta, British Columbia
V4K 3N6

Telephone: (604) 590-8483

SARSCENE '96 — Atlantic Canada is a search and rescue (SAR) workshop aimed at providing a forum for Canadian SAR personnel to voice concerns, share ideas and build strong communication bonds in the field of SAR. This 5th annual, multi-jurisdictional Canadian SAR Workshop, will be held in Dartmouth, Nova Scotia, October 17-19, 1996. Approximately 350 participants are expected from air, land and

HELP THE MEMBERS OF FORT McPHERSON

Have you ever said to yourself, "We always send aid to foreign countries, but we never deal with problems right here in Canada"? Well here is your chance!

The students of Fort McPherson, Northwest Territories, have lost an entire school to fire. The RCMP being in the community policing era, we wish to show this community the dynamism and efficiency of our federal police force by helping replace the books of the school library.

Please send one book along with your business card to the RCMP Detachment, P.O. Box 88, Ft. McPherson, N.W.T., X0E 0J0, att.: Sgt. Robert Gray or Cst. Paul James Joy. The school is attended by girls and boys between the ages of 6 and 18 whose language of preference is English but who would also appreciate books in French. The books can be story books, novels or poetry books.

We welcome your support. PLEASE HELP THESE KIDS!