TWELVE

THE NEWS, ST. JOHN, N. B., FRIDAY, APRIL 24, 1908

LOCAL MATTERS OF INTEREST.

SATURDAY

After a painful illness which had be proprietor of the Grand Union Hotel, some hopeless some weeks ago. Mrs. who is charged with selling liquor dur-An elia Purdy, wife of Hon. D. J. ing prohibited hours, was heard before Purdy, ex-M. P. P., passed away yes-Judge Ritchie yesterday afternoon. terday morning at her home, 325 Main One of the prosecution's witnesses was street. Mrs. Purdy was a woman of examined and the case was further adcharming disposition and a general journed until Monday next at 2 p. m. avorite with all who knew her. She took a prominent part in church and fax, delighted a large audience in the charitable work, and will be greatly school room of St. Stephen's Church missed.

"Dramatic Character Sketches from The late Mrs. Purdy was born on the Bonnie Brier Bush." Every avail-August 12th, 1848, at Indiantown. Her able seat in the school room was occumaiden name was Amelia Cowan, and pied. Rev. Gordon Dickie, pastor of she was a daughter of John Cowan and the church, introduced the lecturer. his wife Susan. She was married on During the evening a quartette from June 15th, 1871 to Daniel Jarvis Purdy. St. Stephen's choir sang Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar."

TUESDAY

The case against W. H. McQuade, vere acquainted with her intention and

NEDNESDAY

THURSDAY

A movement is on foot to furnish the sons, Jarvis C., who is connected with new set of colors. With this object in his father's business; Willard G., at view a fund has already been started home, and two daughters, Mrs. Geo. and the colors will shortly be received Beverly of this city and Mrs. Warren The suggestion came from Colonel Vi Purdy of Boston. She is also survived dal when he last inspected the regiby two sisters, Mrs. Geo. Chesley of ment and has been taken up by Hampton and Mrs. Edward Kierstead officers and men and Daughters of the Empire.-Charlottetown Guardian. The smallpox situation at the home The Fernhill Cemetery Company ha of Amos Watson, Sr., Undine, is very issued a handsomely illustrated report serious. There are now five persons ill by its directors containing a list of the with the disease. Among those quaran- lot holders up to date, with a well pretined are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Watson. pared plan of the grounds, copy of by-On Sunday morning a daughter was laws and a lot of information which n to them. On Monday the child will be very useful to lot owners. These died, and the mother's condition is very will be mailed free of charge to lot critical, as she contracted smallpox holders sending their name and address H. G. Cole, P. A. Edington, F. H. Tingsome days ago. Mrs. Watson, Sr., is also to the company's office, 85 Prince Wilvery ill .- Victoria Co. News. liam street. Notice is published in the Royal Gazette that supplementary letters patent Work on the G. T. P. has commend have been issued to T. McAvity & Sons, ed here, and they are now breaking Ltd., permitting the increase of the out the road toward Grand Falls, and company's capital stock from $600,000 to have completed the building of a two $1,000,000. Of this $400,000, $150,000 will story house, 30 x 36 on Ernest Marsbe ordinary stock and $250,000 preferred. ten's farm. Another one was built The death occurred in the General about five miles from the mouth of the Public Hospital this morning of Mrs. Wapskee, Another will be built at Esther Green, wife of James Green Three Brooks Lake. Houses of this de-The late Mrs. Green was formerly Miss scription are to be built along the line Esther Gooley and is a daughter of about every ten miles, which during Thos. Gooley, construction will be used by the engin-End. She lived in Beverley, Mass., and eers and construction officers, and afcame here to take care of her father, ter, it is understood, will be used as who was in poor health. Besides her residences for the section men.-Vicfather, one son, a brother and sister toria Co. News. survive. John Gooley, of Lynn, Mass.

There will be a convention of the Boston, is the sister. Maritime Deaf Mutes' Association in this city, August 24th, 25th and 26th. A committee of the association has been appointed to make arrangements for a trip on the river and harbor for the visiting delegates. Arrangements for the convention were made at a meeting held Friday in the Clifton House,

Results of the Easter examinations the medical departments of McGill at the Seamen's Mission, Tuesday eve-University, Montreal, were posted last ning, for the benefit of the crew of the week. In the honor list, anatomy, A. E. Macaulay, son of A. E. Macaulay, Princess street, as usual stands well excellent programme: Harold Allison, up. Other names posted as having Miss Edith Fairweather, Master Lawpassed are J. H. Allingham, Fairville; rence MacLaren, Miss Mary MacLaren, W Funis and J. B. Gallagher, Bath are many lengths of the best muslins and organdies in the lot, all this sea- OT ost. See advertisement on page 5. The C. P. R. steamer Montcalm arived from Avonmouth with 1000 tons of cargo at 5 o'clock vesterday afternoon. The voyage was made in ten Professor James Carruthers of Halidays and twenty-three hours, which is the best trip she has made here this eason. When some time out from last evening with his lecture entitled, Avonmouth four stowaways, Chas. Parsons, Joseph Marshall, Ernest Mattison and John Singleton were discovered hiding between decks and on the arrival of the steamer here were taken to the central police station by C. P. R Detective Walsh This is the Montcalm's last trip here. She is the last on the Bristol service this season. The steamer will take away 900 head of cattle from this port. The C. P. R. steamer Lake Michigan sailed for Antwerp yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock taking away a large genral cargo and 420 head of cattle.

Last evening's Montreal express carried a large number of students be longing to the University of New Brunswick and the Provincial Normal School who were on their way to Fredericton to resume their studies. Among the .U. N. B. students returning to Fredericton were Stanley E. Bridges, W. H. Morrow and Miss Grace Flemming of St. John; A. Landry of Dorchester: the Misses Smith of Hampton: ley, H. U. Price, Miss Claire, Flana gan and Miss Georgiana Ryan of Moncton, and Miss Margaret Belyea

The joint boards of the Methodist churches of the city held a meeting in the Exmouth street church last night. A large number were present. A committee of ten was appointed to canvass for missionary subscriptions among the members of the Exmouth street church. This is carrying out the plan proposed by the laymen's missionary movement. A committee of four was appointed to consider improvements confectioner, of North for the church and report at the next meeing of the joint boards. On Sunday evening there will be a meeting in the interests of the laymen's missionary movement in Exmouth street church.

is the brother and Mrs. Trombly, of A Japanese (whose name space will not allow) caused the police on the West Side a hot chase yesterday afternoon, but he was eventually capured. The Jap was an undesirable C. P. R. engine 1576 was derailed in who had been placed on board the the yard here yesterday afternoon, but steamer Victorian to be deported to no damage was done. An I.C.R. shunt-England. He undoubtedly disliked the er assisted in placing it back onto the idea of leaving the country and, watching his opportunity, escaped from the vessel over the gang plank and started A very enjoyable concert was held off in the direction of Fairville.

A meeting of the fire chiefs of the Victorian W B Wallace occupied the various New Brunswick towns is called for April 27th at St. John. Chief chair and the following supplied an or April 27th at St. John. Chief Fitzpatrick will attend as representa-tive of the local department and will mament this summer. This could be made a fine feature for exhibition week Fitzpatrick will attend as representative of the local department and will made a fine feature for exhibition week five men from the Victorian. Messrs. and no town in New Brunswick has a Waterman, Little, Godkin, Martin and finer place in which to hold such a Crisp. Mr. Gorbell did everything posment than is to be found on the sible for the comfort of the sailors and exhibition association's grounds .-- Chathis kindness was greatly appreciate At the close of the concert a barrel of ham Commercial.

Grand Charity Ball to be Held in York Assembly Rooms-History of Local St. George's Society-Sketch of England's Patron Saint.

Englishmen in all parts of the world | of a vast change in matters of religion, will celebrate today in honor of the and Christianity began to take the tutelary saint of England. St. George's place of Paganism, and thus symbol-Society of St. John will observe the Mcally St. George was the means of deday by holding a charity ball in the stroying the dragon of heathen idola-

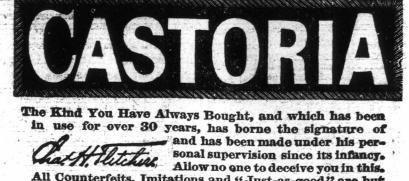

York assembly rooms. tries. The local society was founded in 1802 It was shortly after this that Dioy some patriotic Englishmen, and was cletian, instigated by his son-in-law for a long time the leading society in Galerius, issued an edict against Christhe city. Every event of national im- tianity, and ordered the persecution of portance was celebrated by them, such those holding the Ohristian faith, when as St. George's Day, the birthday of the first martyr of Britain was St. Althe sovereign, the victories during the ban, about 301. St. George at once Crimean war, Indian mutiny, etc., while hastened back to endeavor to put a they were always ready to assist Eng- stop to the persecutions through his inlishmen in distress. The society has fluence with Diocletian. On arrival at existed ever since though for a brief Beirut he learned about the terrible time dormant. It was reorganized in massacres, and was much disturbed at 1885 with much enthusiasm, which has the state of affairs and the destitution existed ever since. They have always of the people, and having inherited a ben to the front in patriotic works, large sum of money from his mother such as the jubilees of the late Queen, he distributed very largely of his means when in 1887 they placed a bust of Her to relieve the distress, and resolved to Majesty in Trinity church. The society go in person to Diocletian to plead his and the members individually did much cause, thus taking his own life in his during the Boer war in subscribing and voting funds for the St. John soldiers. went outside the city on horseback, In charity they are very active, help- clad in armor, and declared war ing deserving Englishmen who are in against tyrants and all forms of hea-need, and this branch of the work during the past two or three years has story of his combat with the dragon caused a heavy drain on their charity originated, the real significance being funds. The demand has been great the triumph of Christianity over Paowing to the large number of immi- ganism, but it is also related with grants arriving here. It is on this ac- some degree of authority that a vencount that the society is to celebrate omous dragon had been investing the

St. George's Day this evening by a outskirts of the city and especially a charity ball, the proceeds to be given pool, from which the monster issued nightly and killed all within his reach. to the charity fund. A large number of guests are expect- and that the only way to stop his deed, and all arrangements are perfect- predations was to sacrifice the most beautiful maiden in the city, a princess, ed. The ball is under the patronage of his honor the lieutenant governor, who to the monster, but when St. George with Mrs. Tweedie and his staff will saw the maiden being led to the banks be present. Other guests of the society of the pool, he at once offered to slay will be the United States consul and the dragon, which he did, much to the Mrs. Willrich, Colonel White, D. O. C., delight of the people, and a bay on the and Mrs. White, the president of St. south of the city is today called St. George's Bay.

Andrew's Society and Mrs. Cameron, St. George continued his work on heand his worship the mayor and Mrs. half of the Christians, and falling to

All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children-Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea-The Mother's Friend.

har Militcher. The Kind You Have Always Bought In Use For Over 30 Years.

NTAUR COMPANY, TT NURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY and all nations were taught to respect was given away by her father. Miss that flag, and so when England, Ire- McDiarmid's gown was of white Brusland and Scotland were united under sels net over white taffeta, trimmed the name of Great Britain the red cross with baby Irish lace. Her veil was of St. George was blended with the trimmed with lilies of the valley. The white cross of St. Andrew and the red bridesmaid wore pink silk with pink cross of Ireland, the whole forming the hat. The house was prettily decorated Union Jack, the flag on which the sun with potted plants and cut flowers. never sets and which never floats over Numerous and costly presents of cut a slave.

glass and silver showed the esteem in which the young couple are held by their friends. Immediately after the ceremony the

BIRTHS.

GILLESPIE .- At St. John, N. B., Apri

POYAS-At St. John, April 15th, to Mr.

MARRIAGES

April 20th, by Rev. Wellington W.

Camp, Kendall Hall and Gertrude

LeBaron Vaughan, both of St. John.

HOSFORD - LIVINGSTON .- In this city, on April 22nd, by the Ven, Arch

Deacon Raymond, rector of St. Mary's

Church, Thomas F. Hosford to Mrs

WANTED.

MEN WANTED,-Reliable men in every locality throughout Canada to advertise our goods, tack up show-cards on trees, fences, bridges, and all conspicuous places, also distribute small advertising matter; commission or salary $83 per month and expenses

$4 per day; steady employment to good sary. Write for particulars. EMPIRE

MEDICINE COMPANY, London, Ont

small family. Apply at 110 Wentwort

WANTED-A capable general girl in

WANTED-Two iron moulders accus tomed to machine castings, and one man for moulding machine. Must be good workers, and strictly temperate.

THOMPSON MFG. CO., LTD., Grand

Farm for Sale.

Containing 100 acres, situated one and a half miles from Belleisle Corner and four from boat landing, known as the

"James O. Jones" farm. Good house, two barns. Never failing water brought in pipes. Good hard wood chance, Ap-

22-4

18-1-tf

reliable men; no experience ne

Martha C. Livingston.

Irene Vaughan, daughter of Mrs.

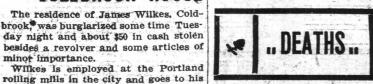

and Mrs. A. Poyas, a daughter.

to Mr. and Mrs. Charles H.

18th, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm.

daughter.

a son.

rolling mills in the city and goes to his home every evening after work. EDWARD J. JOHNSTON. sed the break occ about twelve o'clock, as members of Joseph and Eliza Johnston, of Otte the family were awake a good deal Lake, St. John County, took place Wedafter that hour. The intruders forced nesday at his home. The deceased is open the dining room window and ensurvived by his father, mother tered. Their work was executed very three brothers, viz.: Joseph A. and Wm. A., at Otter Lake, and George quietly and not a sound was heard. The drawer in which $50 was kept was H. of St. John. opened and the money extracted, also MRS. ESTHER GREEN Mrs. Esther Green died suddenly a revolver. The locality where the house is situ-Wednesday morning. She was the wife ated is a quiet one! There are no imof James Green, and besides her husBritish Minister Desire for tion in Rega to This Terr

VOL. 32.

SUCCESSFUL

OTTAWA, May 6 .- The rep L. Mackenzie King, on the his mission to England to the British authorities of of immigration to Canada Orient and immigration fro particular, was presented ment this afternoon. It may factory solution of one of and most complex problems the mutual interests of ( the empire. The full and fr change of views between t and Canadian governments ed in the adoption of a mu of co-operation in which ( ain's well known policy of of the native races of India h with Canada's policy of k Dominion a white man's cou at the same time there is o necessity of legislative ac might reflect on Great Brit jects in India and render, critical there a situation alr nant with danger. When Mr. King went to March he was told by seve foremost statesmen of the E they regarded the question gration of Oriental peoples : greatest problem of imperi They recognized Canada's ri automony in the matter of immigration restrictions, wh same time they believed that position within the Empire sufficient gaurantee that th her plenary powers in th would not be without a to the obligation which within the Empire entails. ministers, also recog social and economic ground tive of India was not a per to this country. Canada the danger of taking any that would lead to endange Britain's interests among th millions of her restless India 'Starting with this basis understanding the solution most satisfactory one to ed. In brief, it is based or discovery of a clause in immigration act of 1883. vents natives leaving India tract to labor for hire in country unless said country list of countries scheduled as being those which have considered by the governo to be adequate for the protect Indians during their sta Canada is no country. scheduled list. Therefore ing in of contract labor fro British Columbia, the main alarm as to the future influ trary to the laws of India. in-council just passed make grants liable to deportation in violation of the laws of country. This therefore shu tract labor immigration fi Those who come voluntarily out by the recent general requiring them to have in session an adequate sum of prevent the liability of thein a charge on the public. The sum is now $25 and it may to $200 if not found adequ out the Hindus. Further mensures include the distr literature by the Indian

MISS OGUVY, PT E. R. Hicks, Dorchester; H. B. Loggie, Chatham; P. B. Malcolm. St. John. There are many Lower Province men among the successful ones.

Mrs. W. O. Theal of Adelaide street on Briday evening received from Bossailors. ton the sad intelligence of the death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Dr. Fenwick, who perished in the great fire at Chelsea. The dwelling of Dr. Fenwick caught fire while he was away from home. At first it was thought that every person had escaped from the building, but it was afterward learned from a search of the ruins that Mrs. Fenwick, her cousin, Miss Earnes, and her maid had been burned. Mr. and Mr. Robert Baxter of Adelaide street are relatives of the deceased lady. 11.30 o'clock.

Karl Mortilmans and Dennis Boytens, two Belgian stewards of the C. seems that the element of mystery in P. R. steamer Lake Michigan, will be connection with her departure was exsentenced today by Judge Ritchie for aggerated, as some of her relatives stealing articles from the ship's passengers. The men were before the poknew her whereabouts all the time. lice court on Saturday, when they ded guilty. Gordon Kaye, a thir-

Dr. W. E. McIntyre left for Wolfville, N. S., yesterday by the C. P. R. to teen-year-old boy from Carleton, was also before Judge Ritchie on Saturday meet with the Ministerial Committee on the charge of stealing. He was reof the Board of Governors of Acadia anded until today. It is possible University Arrangements will be made that he will be sent to the Industrial for the placing of students on the mission field during summer vacation.

Hon. E. H. Allen, formerly claims The death took place on Monday last agent of the I. C. R., has secured a after a short illness of R. D. P. Northrup, of Belle Isle Creek. Mr. Northrup lease of the Powys farm at Kingsclear was about 58 years of age. He was a and is expected to move there with his ninent up river man, being engaged family from Shediac some day this week .-- Moncton Transcript. as a blacksmith as well as a farmer. He was a member of the Independent Yesterday morning in the county

Order of Foresters of Belle Isle. Decourt chambers before Judge Forbes ceased is survived by a wife, two the case of Brennan v. Hopkins came daughters and two grand daughters. The funeral took place at Belle Isle up again. Some weeks ago the plaintiff got a verdict for $50, and E. T. C. Creek on Thursday at two o'clock. Rev. Knowles, on behalf of Mr. Hopkins, is Mr. Coleman, of Springfield, conducted endeavoring to get a new trial. A. A. the service, and the interment was made in the Church of England burial Mr. Knowles should have filed his grounds

Easter was a typical April day, half rain, half sunshine. The weather must have been very annoying to the ladies, for just after the rain had spoiled the Easter parade of millinery at the mor-J. MacMillan Trueman, attorney-atning church services, the sun broke law, who recently opened a law office through the clouds and the afternoon proved to be as fine a spring day as in the Canada Life Building, Prince could be desired. Of course some of Wm. Street, was appointed a notary the "creations" of the milliner were on public by the Provincial Government exhibition in the afternoon, but still the at their last meeting in this city. morning parade was spoilt and that The congregation of St. Matthew's means that Easter was spoilt. Presbyterian church, Douglas Avenue, There were two slight accidents on in bidding farewell to their pastor, Rev the steamer Loke Michigan Saturday' A. H. Foster, Tuesday, made him the afternoon. David Riley of Whipple recipient of a well filled purse and an street was struck on the head by a address. The address spoke of the great swinging hook and was severely cut. interest which the pastor had in all He was taken to the emergency hos- kinds of church work, particularly pital, where several stitches were put among the young. Rev. Mr. Foster in the wound. Robert Donald of 94 leaves Saturday for his new charge in Protection street was struck by a bar- Maitland, N. S., Mrs. Foster was prerow when coming down a gangway sented with a certificate of life membership in the Mission Band of St.Matwith it and had his foot injured. thew's church, while an address and

The stmr. Victorian arrived at the remembrance were also given to her mother, Mrs. McDonald. dock at twelve o'clock on Saturday with a large cargo and several passengers on board. The passengers consist-A sale of ends pretty muslins and d of 52 saloon, 28 second cabin and 703 other wash goods tomorrow at F. W. third cabin, but the majority of these Daniel and Company's, Charlotte St. Where the prices have been cut down were landed at Halifax on Friday, and only 240 were for St. John. The to one dress length or shorter ends. voyage was not rough and good time ter tomorrow for quick sale. There that he intended to burn her out. was made apples was distributed among the A number of roughs attacked a man named Whittaker on the corner of A number of local Conservatives Clarence and St. Patrick streets last night, and during a fight which followed paid a visit to the Fairville Conservative Club on Tuesday evening, Speeche struck him with a bottle over the head, were made by Messrs. Fox and Carey. cutting a long gash. There was good step dancing by There is no mistaking the superi-Messrs. Marshall and Dillon, Messrs. prity of a tea, that in sixteen years has McQuade, Buckley and Holland renbuilt up a market in almost every part dered pleasing songs and John Shee of the North American continent, that han gave a clever exhibition of Irish has had the most enormous increases jig and reel dancing. Towards the close n sales, year after year, until over of the evening refreshments were served. The gathering broke up about 18,000,000 packages was the immense output for 1907. This continental enorsement of "Salada" Tel proves conclusively their right in offering it to the

Miss Kane, who was reported missing public as the most celicious and healtha few days ago from her home in North End, is now in Montreal, where ful tea in the world. 17 she has secured a good position.

Summerside harbor is still filled with ce but it is in such a condition that change of wind will carry it all out. Navigation between that port and Point du Chene may be opened any day Charlottetown and Pictou harbors are practically clear. The steamer Northumberland has already crossed from Pictou.

Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Wm. Miller and wife, of 88 Chesley St., in the loss of their only child, Arthur, who died last evening, after a lingering illness. He was of a quiet disposition yet a general favourite, and was an active and earnest member of the young mens class of St. Luke's Sunday School, He was employed for some years in the Massey Harris Co. office, but most recently with Frost and Wood Co. His funeral will take place Saturday. School Inspector Carter visited St. Andrews schools last week and at the close of his visit had a conference with the trustees and teachers, when mat-Wilson for Mr. Brennan claimed that ters of general interest were discussed. A change in the system of grading grounds for wanting a new trial, and was brought up by the Inspector. He the matter was stood over for a week. also urged that an attempt should be made to increase the salaries of the teachers. There were few places where the salaries of the teachers were so ow as they were here.-Beacon.

ST. THOMAS, April 22.-Fire destroyed the Henry block at Rodney this morning. The damage amounted to $10,000. The block was an old frame structure, occupied chiefly by a hardware store and several Jewish families, who kept large quantities of scrap about, so it burned fiercely. The occupants escaped, and though four stables were destroyed the live stock was saved.

TORONTO, April 22.- Ten years in was sent by the Emperor on an expe- George," while on the invasion of Scotthe penitentiary was the sentence by dition to Britain, and where at that, land in 1386 by Richard II. It was or-Police Magistrate Denison to David L time were Constantius and Helena his dered that every person should bear Latta, the man who poured gasoline wife, and as St. George salled through the cross of the patron saint on his ward, son of Harry P. Hayward. over the veranda of Mrs. Kittie Drie- the Irish Channel this was afterwards | coat both before and behind, and this Miss Emily McDiarmid, sister of singer's house on Adelaide street west called after him as St. George's Chan- is the origin of the red cross on a the bride, was bridesmaid and Harold and applied a match to it. Mrs. Drienel. It is supposed that on this occasinger had incurred Latt's ill-will, and sion the Empress Helena was convert- it noble deeds have been done. The Rev. W. W. McMaster performed the We propose putting these out on coun- he told the officer who arrested him ed to Christianity ,and also her son ships that defeated

Hanington; secretary, E. E. Church; assistant secretary, F. Noel Sheraton. doors, and everywhere exhorting the people to resist the orders against them. He was cast into prison and al-On Sunday next the society will have most killed by spear thrusts, but mirtheir annual church service, when they will attend Trinity church in a body at aculously recovered, and is said at this time to have performed miracles, but p. m. A special service has been ar-was finally beheaded by order of the ranged. The objects of St. George's Society emperor on the anniversary of his birth, Good Friday, April 23rd, A. D. are to foster a spirit of patriotism and 303. Thus died the great martyr, wise nationality, to promote social interfribune and most faithful and unselfish course among its members, and to extend aid to Englishmen and Welshmen Christian soldier, who was also called the trophy bearer and the victorious or their descendants, or their widows

one. His remains were allowed to re and orphans. The above clause is from the constimain at peace in his burial place in tution of the society, but the objects Nicomedia, but about twenty-five years later were removed to his native city comprise a broader field and are really of Lydda identical with those of The Royal So-It is a curious fact that the history ciety of St. George, London, of which of this saintly martyr has been con-H. R. H. the Prince of Wales is prefounded with Arian George of Cappasident, viz.: 1-To encourage and strengthen the docia, who lived half a century later was a villain of the worst type, a frauspirit of patriotism amongst all of English birth or descent, irrespective of creed or party, and to maintain that spirit of fraternal union and sentiment of race which should animate all of kindred blood, helping to preserve those distinctive characteristics, tradi- in 362, and as there is a church in Coutions and customs which have con- stantinopte dedicated to St. George the tributed to make the English pre-eminent the world over. 2-To maintain the recognition and celebration of St. George's Day-the have meant the saint of this sketch, old English festival day of St. George -and the anniversary of the birth and where a saying is recorded "By good death of Shakespeare, April 23rd. 3-To further British interests by St every possible means, and to render a dozen of your St. Ge ige of Cappaassistance in furtherance of all English docia." His popularity in England durand patrotic movements.

St. George's Society request that all citizens will join with them in mark- his honor alone. ing the day-England's day-by displaying flags and dressing windows, and also that all members and others will today wear a rose, the national flower of England. It has been arranged that at 12 o'clock the chimes of Trinity will play a selection of English airs under the direction of Mr. Coupe.

'Tis a glorious charter, deny it who that during the siege of Ptolemins he That's breathed in the words-I'm an land and the special patron of chivalry, under the cry of "Sir Edward and St. was born on April 23rd, A. D. 270, at George," and this king in 1330 made him Lydda, in Palestine. This city was in patron of the realm of England and of the beautiful vale of Sharon, famous the Order of the Garter, so the battle for its roses. The locality was also cry of the English army thenceforth called the Garden of Palestine, and the became "St. George" or "God and St.

Englishman.' St. George the tutelary saint of Eng- to have gained his victory at Calais

town of Lydda was for some centuries George," and sometimes "For St. George and Merrie England," many of called St. George's. His parents were of noble birth and Christians, and he these cries being found in Shakebecame a distinguished soldier, a man speare's works. St. George was also selected as the of great courage and a tribune, and held high command under the Roman patron saint of the republic of Genoa. Emperor Diocletian. It is curious that At the council of Oxford in 1222 the festival. of St. George, April 23rd, was even in the present day both Christians and Mohammedans in Palestine ordered to be kept as a national holimake vows to St. George in case of day. During the fourteenth century danger or great distress, when he is and for some time after the cross of addressed as the "evergreen green one," St. George was worn as a badge over probably in allusion to his having been the armor by every English soldier to born in Lydda. St. George is supposed indicate that he was in the service of to have accompanied Diocletian in his the crown, and it was ordered as an Egyptian campaign in 295, and also to article of duty that every soldier go-have taken part in the Persian war in ing into battle shall use the cry, "St. 298, when, after resting at Beirat; he, George, forward," or "Upon them, St.

George of merrie England worth mediate neighbors. No suspicious charhand leaves one son and a father, broacters had been noticed and there is no ther and sister. clue to the perpetrators of the deed. The late Mrs. Green was a daughter The matter was reported to the police, of Thos. Gooley, confectioner of North however. and an effort is being made End. to locate the guilty parties.

RECENT WEDDINGS READ-At Port Elgin, N. B., April 17,

WICKWIRE-LAECHLER.

A wedding in which many St. John dulent army contractor, and who by people will be interested took place at devious ways and fraud became the the residence of the bride's parents, 83 Arian archbishop of Alexandria, where Tonawanda street. Dorchester, Mass. he was lynched by his own people and Wednesday, when Miss Lena L., young his body cast into the sea. This was est, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Laechler, formerly residents of this city, was married to James William martyr in 330, and another in Ezra in-Wickwire of Boston.

GULUBRUUN

minor importance.

Syria dedicated in 346 to St. George the Mrs. E. W. Henry of St. John, sister HALL-VAUGHAN-In St. John, on holy martyr, it shows that it must of the bride, left last Saturday evening by steamer Calvin Austin, to attend the while further proof may be quoted wedding. from one of Sir Walter Scott's works,

KIRKPATRICK-CHEYNE. The residence of Captain and Mrs. John F. Cheyne, Queen street, Carleton, was the scene of an interesting ing the middle ages is attested by the event at 2.30 o'clock Wednesday afterfact that 163 churches were named in noon, when their eldest daughter, Miss Minine Cheyne, was married to Ansley St. George being early regarded as a Fulton Kirkpatrick. The ceremony valiant soldier was soon adopted as which was witnessed by a few of the the patron of chivalry and of the milirelatives and immediate friends of the tary profession, being so honored in contracting parties, was performed by France in the sixth century. The Rev. Jacob Heany, pastor of Carleton Cruseders ascribed their success at An-Methodist church, and the happy couple tioch to his intercession and the rewere unattended. The rooms were ligious honor paid him reached its full tastefully decorated with cut flowers, development. King Richard I. declared and Miss Ethel Cheyne, sister of the bride, presided at the piano and renhad a visioin of St. George, who told dered the wedding march by Mendelshim how to stir up enthusiasm among shon very effectively. The bride was the soldiers while Edward III. is said attired in a becoming gown of crepe de chine. Among the numerous gifts was handsome parlor lamp with cut glass shade, the gift of the bride's friends St. in the Methodist church, where she was an efficient member of the choir, a Sunday school teacher and an enthusiastic member of the Epworth League. The happy couple, accompanied by a nurmber of the wedding guests, left by

Bay, N. B. last evening's train for their new home WANTED AT ONCE on salary and at Gaspereaux station, where they will expenses, one good man in each locality be welcomed by a large number of their with rig, or capable of handling horses friends. to advertise and introduce our guaran The bride, who was very popular both in the church and community, will teed stock and poultry specifics. No be greatly missed, and her friends experience necessary; we lay out your work for you. $25 a week and exunite in wishing her all the joys of penses. Position permanent. Write W. A. JENKINS MANUFACTURING wedded life. CO., London. Ont.

HATWARD-McDIARMID. A wedding of much interest took place Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of S. McDiarmid, 25 Goodrich street, when his daughter Miss Alice Pearl McDiarmid, was unit ed in marriage to William Henry Haywhite field-the flag of England. Under MacMichael best man.

ply to JAMES H. PICKLE, Springthe Spanish ceremony and Miss Helen MacMichael field, or ALBERTA B. JONES. Petit-Constantine, which was the beginning Armada carried it at their mastheads, played the wedding march. The bride codiac. N. C.

Now is

We have Just Open

These Run f All are Well insulated by the bes

The best provis

See them

ho Market