

CHICAGO MARKET.

Firmer Cables Account for the Strength of Wheat.

CORN STEADY.

Provisions Dull and Lower.

Chicago, Nov. 9.

The strength of Cables does not affect the market much but lower ones would be taken hold of by the Bears and prices would be broken, on any such declines buy wheat, its position is such that purchases could be averaged in the event of a decline and end up with a profit. Wheat was strong. Corn steady and Provisions neglected.

ROSSLAND QUOTATIONS.

Beyond the fact that there is much more steadiness noticed in prices there is very little fresh to chronicle in the state of the market. Golden Gate Company have seen buyers at firm prices and from all accounts the mine will be a good one. In other stocks there is little change. Giants have been enquired for.
