To JAS. G. MOYLAN, Esq., Inspector of Penitentiaries, Ottawa.

HALIFAX PENITENTIARY, 30th June, 1879.

SIR,—I beg to inform you that nothing of importance has transpired in my department during the past twelve months. Until to-day, when one female convict arrived, no woman prisoner has been under my care during 1878-9. It is a subject of congratulation that the committal of the heaviest classes of crimes has been thus confined almost entirely to the other sex, at least for the year that has just gone.

The apartments are always kept clean and thoroughly ventilated, and ready for occupants whenever they may be required.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant, ELLEN FLINN, Matron.

To Jas. G. MOYLAN, Esq., Inspector of Penitentiaries, Ottawa.

STONY MOUNTAIN, 30th June, 1879.

Sir. I have the horor herewith to submit my Report for the year ending 30th

Matters of little importance transpired during the year, with the exception that I was seriously attacked with typhoid fever and confined to my bed for over three manual attacked with typhoid fever and confined to my bed for over three manual attacked with typhoid fever and confined to my bed for over three manual attacked with typhoid fever and confined to my bed for over three manual attacked with typhoid fever and confined to my bed for over three manual attacked with typhoid fever and confined to my bed for over three manual attacked with typhoid fever and confined to my bed for over three manual attacked with typhoid fever and confined to my bed for over three manual attacked with typhoid fever and confined to my bed for over three manual attacked with typhoid fever and confined to my bed for over three manual attacked with typhoid fever and confined to my bed for over three manual attacked with typhoid fever and confined to my bed for over three manual attacked with typhoid fever and confined to my bed for over three manual attacked with typhoid fever and confined to my bed for over three manual attacked with typhoid fever and confined to my bed for over three manual attacked with typhoid fever and confined to my bed for over three manual attacked with typhoid fever and confined to my bed for over three manual attacked with the manual attacked with months; this was occasioned from the defective drainage of the institution. The doctors in attendance as also the Surgeon of the prison have asserted the above cause.

Un to 1 Up to the end of the year nothing had been completed in the way of effectively draining the draining had been completed been given by the Departdraining the building, but instructions have, I understand, been given by the Department of the building. ment of Public Works to remedy all defects and suitably drain the building.

One escape occured during the year, on the 2nd July last, the convict being recaptured a few days after; a detail of the fact in connection with the escape was forwarded a few days after; a detail of the fact in connection with the escape was forwarded. warded to the Assistant Inspector, and subsequently the convict was brought before the Convict was brought before the Court of Queen's Bench, and sentenced to six months additional to his original
