

When and how the assignee may be discharged from his trust.

XII. So soon as the said resolution or agreement shall have been carried into effect, and the creditors of the said debtor shall have been satisfied according to the terms of the same, the said Judge shall cause a meeting of the said creditors to be had before him, and on being satisfied that the assignee has fully performed his trust, shall give to such assignee a certificate thereof, under his hand and the seal of such Court, and such certificate shall be a full release and discharge to such assignee, both in law and equity, for all matters done by him as such assignee: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for such assignee, or the said debtor, to receive for his services in the execution of his said trust, such sum of money as the majority of the said creditors in number and value, at such last mentioned meeting shall appoint. 5 10

Proviso: remuneration of assignee, &c.

Final discharge, how and when to be granted.

XIII. At or after such last mentioned meeting, the said Judge shall give to the said debtor a certificate under the hand of the said Judge, and the seal of the said Court, of the filing of the petition, of the making of the said resolution or agreement, and that the same has been fully carried into effect; and such certificate shall from thenceforth operate to all intents and purposes as a full discharge of such debtor from all debts due by him at the date of his said petition, excepting only that no debt herein excepted from the operation of this Act, shall be barred by the said certificate. 15 20
