CARRIE-LYNNE FAIR
BASKETBALL

Carrie-Lynne averaged 7 rebounds per game in three games this week. With her hustle and work ethic, she led the Tigers by example. It is this type of determination that will be necessary if the girls are going to be successful at this weekend's AUSA Championships at UPEI. Charity Cup ready to go

BY TIM JARDINE

The Annual IWK Grace Charity Cup hockey game is set to go. The game will take place this Saturday March 7 from 8-10pm at Dalhousie Memorial Arena. The game features a carefully selected team of Howe Hall All-Stars who will face off with the stars of the "past", Howe Hall Alumni All-Stars.

Residence co-ordinator and alumni captain Charles Maxner exhibited a quiet confidence, possibly stemming from last year's 7-1 alumni victory, yet stated "we'll be missing some key players, so we may have our backs against the wall. But I'm sure Trent [alumni coach Trent Dicken] will have us ready to go."

The coach of the Howe Hall All-Stars, Dave Brophy, also displayed confidence in his troops, noting "We have a good crop of skaters, coupled with some good defence and some great goaltending. The whole team is ready to skate and have a good time for a great charity."

Admission to this showdown will be $2, with all proceeds going to IWK Grace.
