³ assuming that the C.P. was negligent. In the other case, it would be a deliberate omission of the Gazette.

I stopped in here on my way to the train.
 Have had a pleasant p.m. in Toronto with no friends, so was glad to see you.

The line-up of the newspapers seems to me very important just now. I forgot to mention the Charters matter to you.

Yours sincerely,
 Arthur Meighen
