

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
Narrow vs. Broad Belts.....	4
Narrow Belts and Single Rows of Trees.....	5
Broad Belts.....	5
Arrangement of Plantations.....	7
Home Plantations.....	7
Buildings on Hill tops.....	7
Field Shelters.....	9
The View.....	9
Shrub Plantings.....	10
Preparation for Planting.....	10
On Stubble.....	10
On Sod.....	10
Planting the Trees.....	12
Planting with the Plough.....	12
Spade Planting.....	13
Marking the Ground.....	13
The Actual Planting.....	13
Care of Plantations after Planting.....	15
Blue-joint or Couch Grass and Sweet Grass.....	15
How Blue-joint Grass Spreads.....	15
Sweet Grass.....	17
Distances between Trees.....	17
Pruning.....	17
Plantations should not be pruned.....	19
When Pruning should be done.....	19
Thinning.....	19
Use of Willow and Poplar Cuttings.....	21
Gaps in Plantations.....	21
Transplanting.....	22
Evergreens or Leaf-shedding Tree Species.....	22
Evergreens.....	22
Grading up Poplar Bluffs.....	22
Summary.....	23

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS.

Plate I.	Four years' growth of Manitoba maple and ash in Central Saskatchewan, N. W. Territory, Sask., Frontispiece.	Page
Plate II.	Four seasons' growth in Central Saskatchewan Near Delisle Sask., Frontispiece	Page
Plate III.	Plantation near Macleod, Alta. Trees three to five years old.....	6
Plate IV.	Plantation too near house. Near Outlook, Sask.....	6
Plate V.	Two seasons' growth. Near Gainsborough, Sask.....	8
Plate VI.	Plantation near Rosthern, Sask., planted 1902 and 1903.....	8
Plate VII.	Eight year old trees in Southern Saskatchewan (near Oxbow).....	14
Plate VIII.	A neglected plantation.....	14
Plate IX.	Plantation of Eastern poplar overgrown with Blue-joint grass (near Saskatoon, Sask.).....	14
Plate X.	Trees planted too far apart and pruned (near Saskatoon, Sask.).....	16
Plate XI.	An unpruned plantation (near Gainsborough, Sask.).....	18
Plate XII.	Blue-joint grass in plantation, a result of pruning trees.....	18
Plate XIII.	Cottonwoods at Indian Head Experimental Farm.....	20