James Dodson and Tom Groves trimmed the catalpa tree that shaded Judge Houston's private office at the police station. P. C. Groves wielded the saw and P. C. Dodson the axe. Mr. Dodson is quite an expert with the axe. He says that he has used an axe before. John H. Oldershaw offered to supply the axe and keep it sharp if the two experts would chop down the forest on the south side of the police station.

Congregation of William Street Baptist Church Unanimously Decide to Extend Call to Rev. Mr. Torrie.

The congregation of the William St. Baptist Church met last evening and extended a unanimous call to the Rev. Mr. Torrie, who so ably occupied the pulpit of the church all summer.

James H. Oldershaw, senior deacon, presided at the meeting. So popular was the choice that its acceptance was signalled by a clapping of hands—a somewhat unusual occurrence.

Mr. Torrie is a duly qualified minister, but is taking a post graduate course. He will come to Chatham and preach one Sunday a month until he has completed his studies.

WILLIAM GORDON

Sadie Martinot

In a Famous Play.

To secure accuracy in a stage effect of moonbeams shining through a stained glass window and illuminating the figure of Paula Tanqueray seated at her piano, Sadie Martinot got the biggest lens procurable and concentrated a calcium light upon the white costume she intended to wear. The dress was an elaborate and costly affair. The calcium rays made its color appear a delicate champagne or biscuit color, and that is the color of the fabric now worn by Miss Martinot in Pinero's play. "There's no use soiling white on dirty stages when it looks like yellow," says Miss Martinot, "and the coru crepe dress I now wear looks very much richer in the light from the window. Will appear at

The Grand on Tuesday Evening

"THE SECOND MRS. TANQUERAY"

Her superb costumes and remarkable talent are seen to advantage in this much discussed play of Pinero's.

SCRATCH OF PIN

are entertained for the little fellow's recovery.

An example of the serious results which sometimes occur as the result of the scratch of a pin is the serious condition in which lies the seven months' old son of Richard Lowe, in the employ of John Hoon.

The unfortunate little fellow in some way scratched the back of his heel on a pin and it was not long before the blood poisoning set in and the leg was soon badly swollen.

A day or two after the limb from his heel to his hip, seemed like one extensive blood blister all the way up.

The blood poisoning now seems to have left the leg and erysipelas set in the hips and above. Slight hopes
