THE MIRACLE CRUCIFIX

PRIEST REGAINS HEALTH FROM PARALYSIS

Washington .-- Several communications telling of resent remarkable manifestations of the already celebrated crucifix at Limpias, Spain. which has been drawing vast crowds from every part of the kingdom, have been received here recently by the Rev. Jose de Iasasi of the Carmelite monastery from the Right Rev. Manuel Ruiz, Bishop of Pinar del

So great has been the interest aroused in the prodigies that it has been necessary for the Bishop of Santander, in which diocese Liampias is located, to take vigorous steps to stamp out the activities of unscrupu lous merchants who would take advantage of the devotion to commercialize the surroundings of the image and to reap profit through the sale of pictures and replicas.

Already one miracle has been recorded as a result of direct supplication to el Santo Cristo del Agonia. The manifestations have increased in frequency since the sacred image was first asen to open and shut its eyes by a little servant maid of the parish of Limpins, called Francesca. Priests and layman, woman and children, including many persons who befors "did not believe in miracles." have seen the miraculous happenings. Typical of the manifestations is on foot to the shrine.

'I said Mass at half-past elev relates Father Martinez, "but nothing until a quarter past one. this time I began to note that eyes of the sacred image moved different directions, and I put my on my guard not to be the victir an illusion; looked away from t to time, screwed up my e, changed my place and my post and asked for glasses, of which used three pairs. "The eyes of the image contin to move, now to the right, new the left, then towards the cell then in front; its glances were but serene at times, but again sev reflecting a terrible interior confi one was gentle, as if contempla some object which assuaged all pain previously suffered; at ot times they implaced mercy; I the figure breathe, open and c the mouth; I saw the eyes ful tears; I saw the face turn livid die as a victim of the inte struggle. I was witness of all for three quarters of an hour."

A layman, Don Agab Sanch reports that he "saw the movem of the eyes, not once, but one h dred times."

Dr. J. Jose Nevada, physician Castro-Urdiales, bears witness to miracle recorded through inter sion to el Santo del Agonia in case of Father Vincente Rodrig Miranda, coadjutor of the parish Santa Maria, who had been stric with partial paralysis and hal whose body was affected. The priest, who was sixty-sev years old, had been a faithful devo of the Sacred Heart. One day w lying in bed he took a picture of crucifix in his right hand and play it in the affected left hand made following prayer: "It is forty years, O Lord, since I have been meditating Seaforth on your five wounds and on the sorrows of the Blassed Virgin. should have been courtmartialed, but there never was any suggestion of that," General Dyer

concluded. ENRAGED AT SUPERIORS

The General was visably consumed with rage at the powers whom he thought he had served well, who had tacialy sanctioned his procedure but who let him go "for the good of the service" when the searchlights of publicity had penetrated to far off Punjab and revealed the dark deed to the eyes of an awe-stricken civilized world.

These who met General Dyer to day noted his kindly blue eyes and wondered at the utter absence in his face of that iron thread in his char-acter which prompted the bloodiest act in a generation of British rule in India. He has a thick set face which is burned brick red from thirty five years of service in India.

LECTURE ON CHINA

The popular saying that one half the world does not know how the other lives was forcibly brought home to those who assisted at the illustrated lecture on China given in Congress Hall on the evening of Ascension Day. The views that were screened were without doubt very interesting and instructive, but it was the simple recital of facts accompanying each ploture that especially impressed the audience. Unlike the average lecturer who perhaps has been a part once of the scene that is flung on the canvas but whose interest in it is altogether impersonal, Father Fraser has lived, toiled, prayed and-it must have been so-suffered in all the places and among all the people that he sets before his listeners.

Thus Brigadisr General R. E. H. Dyer, excommander of the British troops in India, today explained his order to a small squad of troops in Arrived 1010 the Gradient April, 1919, to fire into a crowd of five thousand unarmed Indian civilians at Amritsar until their ammunition was exhausted, the most horrible massacre since the Indian mutinies. Dyer's men killed 500 and wounded 1,500 in less than a quarter of an hour.

First praised for his action by his chief, then when after nearly a year's complete suppression of the affair the world learned of it and shuddered with horror - reprimanded, investigated and ordered to resign, General Dyer arrived in London today to protest against being made
