Catholic Review. ondon, January 12.—Church of Engndism is going from bad to worse. The last development (abyusus abyusum invocat) is to try to harmonise the teaching of the gospels with the teaching of Herbert Spencer or Professor Huxley. It is found impossible to "answer" the modern scientists who would seek to destroy "Bible Christianity," so the best thing to be done is to create a modus vivendi, by which Anglicans and Agnostics may huddle together. Canon Freemantle, a church dignitary of the Establishment, has been writing articles in one of the leading London reviews to show that Christianity is not really Christianity but Christianity with Christianity left out. There is no "certitude," he assures us, about this fact of the Resurrection. Nor did our Divine Lord even "pretend to any absolute knowledge of God," He only pictured them as a pious poet might be supposed to do. Further, we are to be careful not to "think of a transcendental God;" we are to think of Him only as that Supreme Power—which ex ncer or Professor Huxley. It is dental God;" we are to think of Him only as that Supreme Power—which ex hypothesi includes mankind, the leading portion of the world, with all its noblest ideals—the weekest possible kind of washed out Pantheism! Immortality is to be "a background of hope beyond the scene of present duty;" in fact, a point of the same painful incertitude as the Resurrection of the amiable prophet, Christ. And so on, with a good deal more of the same kind. Meanwhile the Bishops and the Archbishops of the Establishment take no notice whatever of such writings. Were Canon Freemantle to publish his conviction that obedience to the Holy See is an obligation for all Anglican clergymen, it is quite certain that his superiors would be down on him and would advise him to retire from the Establishment. But he has only published a little scholarly to retire from the Establishment. But he has only published a little scholarly anti-Christianism. This is a very mild offence indeed. Probably the next time the Canon dines with his Bishop his Lordship will say to him: "My dear Canon, forgive my mentioning it, but you really should not throw doubt on the Resurrection, at least, not in widely read reviews. To me you may, of course, say what you like; we Anglicans understand one another perfectly; but it is imprudent to tell the public that Christianity is a pretty sham, because it may lead the public to think that we are shams."

It is somewhat amusing to read the clerical advertisements which appear in what are called "the Church papers." That highly respectable old Tory weekly John Bull, always furnishes interesting pabulum of this kind. "Required, a priest with mod. views" (mod. means moderate) is a sort of advertisement which is normal and, perhaps, tame. "Wanted, an assistant curate; views liberal, but distinctly Evangelical." This is rather a puzzler for the ordinary mind. To be liberal is not necessarily to be Evangelical, but possibly to be rather too much inclined towards the Freemantle estimate of Christianity. However, the advertiser would explain his meaning by post. "Local tenancy required, rem. (this means remuneration) not so much desired as pleasant hilarity." This is, at least straightforward and intelligent. "Curacy wanted; married, private means, mod. views, unturnished house." Now here it is unnecessary to mention the "mod. views." It might have been taken for granted that a married man with private means would hold moderate and discreet views. It is somewhat amusing to read the It might have been taken for granted that a married man with private means would hold moderate and discreet views about the priesthood. Another curate advertises that he is "single." Look out, young ladies, for this young gentleman "Abstainer" is another personal recommendation. Though whether the gentleman abstains from marriage or from claret is not specified, nor does it matter much. But the Low Church newspapers more funny than the High. Their advertisements have more pungency of No-Popery. "A thoroughly Christian and non-Ritualistic mind" must be refreshing non-Ritualistic mind" must be refreshing at a tea-party of old spinsters. "A Protestant of the good old-fashioned type" is a sort of picture which recalls to us the delightful days of our (Protestant) youth, when port wine and snug rectories were the summa bona of a priestly career, and an unmarried clergyman was a "rara avis" Finally, a "Protestant worker in the Lord's vineyard" must be tractidistributing, unctious and saponacious; full of texts, and bubbling over with pious sentiments; not unlikely to look out for a lady of good fortune, and to be "called" to a fat incumbency with a good house.

ADOPTION OF THE REPORTS.

The President, in moving the adoption of the reports, said that during the past year the Superintendent of Agencies appointed a number of new general agents and a large number of local agents which has re-ulted in a satisfactory increase in the list of our policy holders.

Our death losses for 1886 are very light compared with the previous year, and our surplus available for distribution among policy holders is proportionately increased.

policy holders is proportionately increased.

During the past year the Company has been compelled to dispute the payment of two claims, amounting to $4.500. One of these, known as the Dunseath case, came to the payment of the payme to trial before Justice Rose, in Toronto, and was declared to be a barefaced att mpt to defraud the Company. Since the trial Samuel J. Dunseath, whose life was assured and who was said to have been drowned in the D troit River, has been found alive and well in Michigan, which proved the wisdom of the Board in resisting the claim. business or the same period of 1886, which shows that the progress of the past year is still going on.

The adoption of the reports was seconded by several of the members, who offered hearty congratulations on the pre-eminently satisfactory nature of the reports read by the President, and in the most enthusiastic terms expressed their high appreciation of the present undoubted financial stability of the Company, and of the gratifying success which characterized the operations of the past year in the face of the keenest competition from rival institutions. Among the speakers were the Rev. Messra Morrow and Burns, Dr. McLellan, Director of Te chers' Institutes, Mr. Allison, Q.C., of Picton, and others.

The balloting for directors resulted in the re-election of Messra. I. E. Bowman, M.P., James Trow, M.P., Alfred Hoskin, Q.C., and the election of A. P. Clement, of Messra. Bowlby & Clement, barrister, etc., Berlin, for the ensuing three years.

On motion, Messra. Henry F. J. Jackson and J. M. Scully were reappointed, by the votes of those present, auditors for the current year.

Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness, and Hay Fever.

A NEW TREATMENT.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and sustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness, and hay fever, are cured in from one to three simple applications made at home. Out of two thousand patients treated during the past six months fully ninety per cent. have been cured. This is none the less startling when it is remembered that not five per cent. of patients presenting themselves to A NEW TREATMENT, when it is remembered that not five per cent. of patients presenting themselves to the regular posititioner are benefited, while the patent medicines and other advertised cures never record a cure at all. In fact this is the only treatment which can possibly effect a permanent cure, and sufferers from catarrh, catarrhal deafness, and hay fever should at once correspond with Messrs. A. H.
