"A GREAT BOOK."

The Natural Law
In The Spiritual World.

By HENRY DRUMMOND, F. R. C. E., F. G. S.
41pp. New Edition Ready. Price, $1.75.

"Too much cannot be said in praise of it, and those who fail to read it will suffer a serious loss. Possesses a deep interest on every page."—The Churchman.

"This is every way a remarkable work, worthy of the thoughtful study of all who are interested in the great question now pending as to the relations of natural science to revealed religion. A mine of practical and suggestive illustrations."—Living Church.

"This book is a defence of doctrines of the Faith from a standpoint so new that it will make a new departure in apologetics."—New York Herald.

"The theory it announces may almost be termed a discovery."—Aberdeen Press.

"Its originality will make it almost a revelation; the charm of its style will give it fascination—the soberness of its thought will commend it to the most critical," etc.— Christian Union.

STOP AND THINK
before you buy all the extensively advertised bostrams of the day which have made no genuine cures, and have nothing to commend them to the public, but false praise from the vendors, who instead of manufacturing an article of worth, which would cost money, give to agents immense profits to ensure their sale, and the sick who have been induced to try them, only find out when too late that they are really no better, and often worse than before using them, then in the meantime the proprietors have

CAREFULLY laid away a fortune, and in a short time the very name ceases to be seen or heard.

Gates' Life of Man Bitters may be relied on as a medicine of great merit, and has made some of the most remarkable cures ever known, and has never been introduced into any locality where it has not given evidence of great value to the suffering sick. Hundreds of cures have been made in the provinces with this medicine in connection with the Invigorating Syrup, and hundreds of certificates from good citizens, and the clergy, many of which are under oath, can not fail to convince the most skeptical of their great curative properties.

DON'T BE DECEIVED Use the medicines that have been tested for over forty years, and will certainly cure you.
So positive are we of their power to cure, that we offer a reward of $100, for a case they will not cure or help, and $1000 for a false statement made by us of any certificate of cure this medicine has not accomplished. Sold everywhere at 50 cts. per bottle, 12 bottles for $5.50. Manufactured by D. Gates Traps for the Young.

Of the Society for the Suppression of Vice in New York.

A new, thrilling, but prudent description of the Author's adventures with crime, an in bringing the victims to justice.

"Let 'Traps for the Young' be widely circulated, not among the young, but among those who have the care of them, among all Christians patriots, and philanthropists. For to save the young is the most important and the noblest work in which either young or old can engage."
