The Rev. Thomas Carter, a missionary stationed at Hwai Yuen, in Anhui Province, China, writes: "I never really knew what the Lord's Prayer meant until to-day. We came to a village where some Christians gathered for worship. To hear that company of men say, 'Give us this day our daily bread' had a strange sound when we knew that not one of them had so much as seen bread for many a day, unless you call pressed sweet potato vines bread. Somehow that prayer must be answered. We cannot let these people starve."

The Synod of the United Diocese of Down, Connor and Dromore, lately elected the Bishop of Ossory (Dr. D'Arcy) to the See of Down in succession to Dr. Crozier, who was recently elected Primate. Dr. D'Arcy, who is one of the soundest scholars on the Episcopal Bench, is well known in England. In going to the North of Ireland he is "returning home," as he began his clerical career as curate of St. Thomas, Belfast, and was subsequently Vicar and Dean of Belfast. Dr. D'Arcy was elected Bishop of Clogher in 1903, and was translated to Ossory in 1907.
