TOWN AND COUNTRY.

PEACE and plenty. Hessian and home industries. Mr. S. M. Smith is building an addition to his photo gallery.

The Listowel base-ballists came out second-best in a match played on Monday with the Brussels club.

The nomination for Councilor to fill the vacancy in the West Ward takes place at Collison's Hall at 12 o'clock to-day.

Mr. J. C. Burt, whose store had a narrow escape from fire last week, is clearing out his summer goods at job prices.

Fresh Cranberries, Oranges, Lemons, Dates, Maple Sugar and Syrup at J.S. GEE'S.

If you want to throw a blight over the present prosperity of the country, vote against the National Prosperity Candidate.

North Perth Conservatives have reason to congratulate themselves over the purification of their ranks.

STORY readers will find an abundant supply of entertaining literature in the Oriental Courier, published by S. Zan Smith Philadelphia.

Fruits of Canada, Raspberry and Strawberry Jelly in 4 and 8 lb. tins, also by the doz. at J.S. GEE'S.

Mr. G. T. HUBBES, confectioner, has recently bought an oven in connection with his premises, and is now prepared to supply the public with the staff of life.

Mr. A. G. MORTIMER, late of the Kinross Standard, has started a paper in Boston, the Tribune. It is a weekly printed and promises to be a creditable local sheet.

Biscuits, confectionery, fruit and canned goods sold very cheap at H. J. GEE'S factory and oyster parlor—open door west of H. J. GEE'S.

STREET SPRINKLING.—The watering cart has made its appearance. Messrs. HESS Bros. were awarded the contract for watering the street, at $3 per day, when required.

EARLY VEGETABLES.—Lettuce, radishes and other early vegetables can be obtained at T. HUBBES', confectioner. Fresh supplies every day. Try them.

ATWOOD.

Dr. Hamilton, who disposed of his practice in Stratford some months ago, to Dr. McQuinn, with the intention of making his home in the land of boom, has concluded to resume the practice of his profession again, and has selected Atwood as his field for work.

WALLACE. Hurray for Plumb! If you want to have the Bailiff at your doors vote for McMullen.

Barbara Siebertan aged and poor woman whom the Township Council lately ordered to be removed from the Township, died on Monday morning last. The remains were interred at the expense of the municipality.

NEW BARN.—A fine barn was raised on Mr. George Little's farm, 3rd line, on Friday last. Its dimensions are 55 x 82 feet. Mr. John Willoughby, ex-Deputy Reeve, is also erecting a fine barn, the frame of which will be raised on Friday afternoon.

ACCIDENT.—A young man named Moses Doll, son of Mr. Christian Doll, on the 2nd concession, met with a rather serious accident on Friday last. He was driving home from Listowel, and had with him a barrel of oil, which appears to have tipped over his seat, throwing him off the wagon. In falling he received a severe concussion of the brain, which rendered him senseless for some time.

The members of the Municipal Council of Wallace met pursuant to notice, at the Township Hall, Gowans town, 27th May, 1882, and having made and subscribed declaration of office in terms of statute, the Clerk laid the Roll with the list of appeals on the table and declared the Court or Revision open, for 10 o'clock, a. m. on Friday, June 16, 1882.
